Every honest man whether democrat or republican will hear with alarm of the action of the postmaster at Benson, N. C., in suppressing democratic papers. The post-offices are in the hands of republicans and it is not wrong to say many are unfaithful and incompetent. The mail system belongs to the people and not the radical party and it is the duty of the people to see that every man is dealt with honesty. It is an old game to suppress everthing democratic during an election year. The Benson postmaster has many counterparts, no doubt, in all parts of the country. He was caught in the only difference. Subscribers to papers should watch carefully and detect, if possible, any suppression. Then make it interesting if any is found. If we must have radical postmasters, make them hew the line by honest service and polite attention.

Democracy Enthusiastic

The democratic candidates are meeting with enthusiastic receptions at every point. It is a very busy time in the life of the farmer, but many manage to go out, hear the speakers, eat "cue" and discuss the political situation. The democrats are united and every man on the ticket will receive strong support. Hon. Harry W. Stubbs is delivering to his hearers big doses of good old democratic medicine in his usual pleasing style. Judge Frank Winston addressed the meeting at Hamilton on Saturday and made a magnificent speech. Everything points to the usual large majority in the County and State.

A Cure for Dull Times.

Business is usually dull while the harvesting of crops is going on because the farmer has to measure his stock before investing to much. Still the merchant, year after year, complains at the lethargy of the buyers. He does nothing, however, to induce people to take a look into their assets and buy things needful and pleasure giving. To be plain, he does not advertise. In looking over the exchanges from the neighboring Counties, we find their pages full of attractive ads setting forth the merits of the various words and goods of different business houses. No one can find a similar condition in our town and County. THE ENTERPRISE is the best medicine for establishing a trade in any line, and yet its pages are almost free of ads. There is not a successful business in the world that has failed to advertise. Letting the people know where you are, what you are and what you can sell them, is the chief element of success, especially in the mercantile business. Then again advertising helps the paper. It can not live on mere subscriptions, and yet people demand it every week. It is anxious to do its part in pushing forward for material welfare, but would like to see some mark of appreciation. Help us to live, and in turn we will help you. Place your ads with us, and see the result. If people don't trade with you, make it to their interest to do so. Go after them through the home paper, and they will come. How do firms establish such a large mail order business? By catchy pages in the papers and magazines. The holiday trade will soon begin, get ahead of yours competitors by reaching the buyer first. Bring a list of your goods, prices, etc, and we will do the rest.

Where Bullets Flew

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done me worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c. at All Druggists.

Taft, The Unbeliever.

When Columbus reached the New World, he planted here the Cross in the name of the Triune God. Following him came other dauntless explorers who planted again the symbol of their faith in God and his Son. The founders of our government, relying on the power and goodness of God and the sacrifice of his dear Son, wrote the Constitution of a people who should be known in all the world as a Christian Nation. No country has been so blessed as the United States, and its men and women go forth into every land bearing in their hands the Cross of Christ, and our government sanctions and protects them. We would meet any attack on our sincerity in a belief in God the Father and God the Son with all the strength of a strong people. Yet the republican party with its arrogance is asking us to support William H. Taft for president, and he an unbeliever in the same class with Bob Ingersoll. It is true that he belongs to the Unitarian Church, a creed bearing its birth in New England and being largely confined to Massachusetts. This Church does not believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. They claim "a grateful recognition of Jesus as the Founder of the Christian religion, and the great Leader and Inspirer of all who seek to lead a holy life with a growing tendency to see in him

Would Mortgage the Farm

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga. W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw: one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c. at All Druggists.

Are You Living In the Cobweb Kingdom?

There are cobwebs on the windows,
There are cobwebs on the door,
There are cobwebs swinging, swaying
From the rafters to the floor.
Now the place is Cobweb Kingdom,
Though it used to be a store.

If the Cobweb Kingdom's ruler
Were a man discreet and wise
He would have no cobwebs swaying,
Swinging round and catching flies;
He would crowd his store with buyers—
He would simply ADVERTISE!

this entire and perfect humanity." Shall we as Christians elevate a man to the greatest office on earth, who tramples under foot the blood of the crucified Saviour? Is it not well to weigh this matter before casting our ballots on the 3rd of November? A vote for Taft is an insult to Him who said: "This is my Beloved Son."

When Taft was governor of the Philippines, he paid claims for the destruction of Catholic property largely in excess to that of the Protestant bodies, thus bidding for the vote of the Catholics in the United States. In this he displayed the true radical spirit: "Any thing to get an office." The Methodist Church North, is taking a decided stand against this unbeliever "my man Taft," so should every other religious body. We do not want this man to rule over our Christian homes, where prayers ascend to Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father. Shall we permit the republican party to place this man in office? That party is never choice, it seeks only for spoils and to everlastingly entrench itself by the appointment of a horde of officials.

In strong contrast to this man Taft, is the peerless orator Bryan—honest Bryan—Bryan, the devout Presbyterian—Bryan who is feared by the grafter, the spoilsman and all dishonest men. Who if elected will shame no creed or individual, and will reign over us as becometh a christian man. Which shall it be, Voter?

Nearly a Tragedy.

At a seaside resort a lady fell into the water from a landing stage while entering a boat. Her husband appeared frantic and cried in the most beseeching tones:

"For heaven's sake, save her! She is my wife!"

A young man gallantly plunged into the water and brought back the poor woman.

The look of gratitude the husband gave fully repaid him for his efforts.

On recovering his equilibrium the husband thrust his hand into his wife's wet pocket, pulled out a somewhat bulgy purse, and with infinite relief said:

"Old woman, the next time you tumble overboard just leave that purse behind, will you? You almost scared me to death!"—London Scraps.

Corrected.

Editor (returning from a week's absence, to substitute)—That was a disreputable issue you got out last week. You're a pretty editor. You don't know the first principles of editing. Substitute—Why, what was the matter?

Editor—You said that Jim Bickedyke had "got a job" and that he is a "good fellow." You should have said he "secured a lucrative position," with the comment that he is a "genial, affable gentleman." I'm sorry, but you'll have to go. You'll never make an editor.—Pathfinder.

Fifty Years a Blacksmith

Sunday School Gems.

Stories of strange and amusing answers given to examination questions are frequently told, but we do not so often see recorded the equally surprising answers given by children in Sunday schools, and yet they are frequently original enough.

A teacher, wishing to turn the young idea toward the mission field, asked, "What are good men called who leave their homes and go to foreign lands to teach the heathen?"

"Prodigal sons," was the prompt and triumphant reply.

A class of boys when asked, "What were the ten plagues?" answered with more fervor than gallantry, "The ten virgins, sir."—Westminster Gazette.
