LOCAL ITEMS

All notices published in this column, where revenue is to be derived, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents a line. (count six words to a line) each issue. Special rates will be made on long contracts.

—The first hail of the season fell on Sunday afternoon.

—Rock have been plentiful this week at twelve and one-half cents per pound.

—Rev. G. W. Belk, will preach at the Masonic Hall Sunday, morning and night.

—Have you seen Halley's comet? Get up with the birds one morning and view it in the Eastern sky.

—Occasionally a "tiger" is caught in his den. The work should be vigorously pushed forward.

—The faculty of the Graded School met Monday afternoon and arranged for the exercises at the end of the term.

—The stores here will close at 7:00 o'clock p. m., on and after April 18th. This order of closing will be in effect until October 1 3

—The first of the free dinner sets being given away by J. A. Mizell & Co. to their patrons was received by Mrs. S. A. Newell. Note their ad in this issue.

—Suskin & Berry, Washington's big clothing house, is advertising Kirschbaum's fashionable suits in this issue. Read and learn where money can be placed to advantage. They advertise because they want the trade.

—Dr. R. H. Drake, eye specialist, is now at the office of Drs. Warren & Rhodes treating eyes and fitting glasses. Owing to the rush of business will remain until Tuesday, April 12. If your children suffer with headache, neuralgia or pains about the eyes, consult Dr. Drake. Examination free.

—The children of St. Andrew's Mission Sunday School held their annual Easter services Sunday afternoon. The weather was unpleasant but there was a representative number present, and the entire program was carried out. Prof. R. J. Peel addressed the children on the lessons taught by the day, and the hymns and carols were heartily sung. An offering was made in the mite boxes and the services concluded with the processional hymn.

—Sunday night lightning struck the barn and stables of J. K. Carstarphen, but the damage was only slight as chemicals were hastily used and the fire extinguished. At first it was thought that the bolt also demolished the wagon belonging to J. E. Pope, but upon investigation it was found that Mr. Pope's horse became badly frightened and ran into the wagon. The animal was bruised and there were signs of paint on the skin. The same night lightning also struck the stables and barn of McG. Taylor burning the buildings and cremating the horse therein. The storm was terrific and accompanied by heavy rain.

—Truckers will find Simpkins' Early Prolific Cotton a great money-maker. It can be planted as late as May 20th, to follow truck crops, and if desired can be planted between the rows of the growing crops. It matures in ninety days from planting. Choice and pure seed, guaranteed, $1 per bushel F. O. B. at Raleigh, cash to accompany order. References: Any bank in Raleigh. Address W. A. Simpkins, Raleigh, N. C. Simpkins has grown at Raleigh two bales to the acre, following Irish potatoes, snap beans and cabbages.
