At the close of the meeting, which was presided over by Rev. Mr. Gordon,

Mrs. Simpson assisted by Miss Hannah Vic Fowden, served a salad course with ices and cakes.

—A good position can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8 hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Davenport, Ia., Cincinnati, O., Portland, Ore., or Memphis, Tenn.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

LET not your left hand know what your right hand doeth. Some member of the family needs must be innocent and respectable.
 If we could understand how little the rest of the world accounts us it would save a lot of wear and tear on our nervous systems.
 The longest way around is the shortest way home—unless it leads past a baseball park.
 He who hesitates is sometimes saved a breach of promise suit.
 The man who fights and runs away may live to see himself in a moving picture show.
 The pen is mightier than the sword in getting a man into difficulties.
 This would be a sad world if people only laughed when they were carefree.
 Man wants but little here below, and it makes him sore because he doesn't get it.
Forestalled.
 "She is saying a lot of mean things about you."
 "Who is?"
 "Julia."
 "She can't say very much."
 "Why?"
 "Because she has a little bit of originality and won't imitate, and I have already said about all the mean things about her that there are in the English language."
Seeing Ineffective.
 "What is the matter with you?"
 "I'm all run down."
 "Have you seen a doctor?"
 "Yes, I saw two of them, and it didn't do me a bit of good."
 "What did they say?"
 "They didn't say anything. We had not been introduced. I saw them as they went past."
The Real Thing.
 The rich with all his store of wealth
 One kind of pleasure misses—
 He nothing knows about the joy
 Of bread and cheese and kisses.
Their Use.
 "What cute little envelopes!"
 "Yes, aren't they nice?"
 "I should say so. They are made of heavy satin paper too."
 "The very best."
 "What are they designed for?"
 "To pack your bathing suit in when you go to the seashore."
The Beauty Doctor.
 "She is a perfect picture."
 "Do you think so?"
 "Yes. Don't you?"
 "Well, anyway she ought to be."
 "Why ought she to be?"
 "She pays a heap of money to an artist to make her so."
It Sometimes Works.
 "What is a good remedy for insomnia?"
 "Have it in the morning?"
 "Yes."
 "Kill the man that runs the lawnmower."
His Notion of Them.
 "Do you take much interest in manly sports?"
 "No. I hire a man to tend the furnace and cut the grass."
Looks Promising.
 "I wonder"—
 "What do you wonder?"
 "I wonder if my fiance will love me when I'm old."
 "Well, he loves you now, doesn't he?"
The Back Number.
 I am sitting in the twilight
 Gazing at the passing throng
 As in bunches and in couples
 Down the street it moves along.
 And I hear the constant babble
 From the ceaseless human tongue,
 And I watch the lovers spooning
 As they did when I was young.
Here's a young and tender couple
 Trading glances on the sly
 Far away from home and mother,
 Having dodged the watchful eye,
 While they chat or softly sing
 If they understand such antics
 And the trouble they may bring.
How can children be so silly?
 I was that way once, I know,
 But I cannot be too thankful
 I've outgrown it long ago.
 They in fancy feel a blessing
 Falling from the stars above,
 When in truth the thing is only
 But a case of puppy love.
Let them go if they enjoy it.
 I can sit here with my pipe
 Making comments philosophic
 From experience more ripe,
 Do I envy them their pleasure
 As they sip the honey dew
 From the lips on which it ripens?
 I won't own it if I do.

A Check Book

A check book does not burn a hole in your pocket like the actual money. Signing your name to a check makes you think. You don't spend a check as readily and carelessly as you spend ready cash. An account at our bank would tend to restrict your spending. Try an account with us and pay all your bills with checks. We will gladly give you a check book. If you will try this for one year you will be surprised at the money you will save and you may then smile at all your troubles. Make your bank account grow. It is recording your history and telling a truthful story of your success. Open an account with us today. Drop a little into the bank every week and its rapid growth will surprise you.

"The Great Annual Dividend Payer"

That's the name given to the Union Central Life Insurance Company. Why? Because it pays policy holders larger dividends than any other company in the United States. It invests only in Real Estate First Mortgages. They yield 6 1/4 per cent interest—more than any other "Life" company realizes on its investments.

Its policy holders owe their large dividends; the low cost of their policies, mainly to these wise investments.
