5 or 6 doses "GGG" will cure any case of Chills and Fever. Price 25c.

Farmers are busy packing pumpkins and the hum of machinery is heard all through the day.

Snow fell here on the 27th of October, the earliest remembered here. The weather was extremely cold and heavy frosts followed.

5 or 6 doses "GGG" will cure any case of Chills and Fever. Price 25c.

There will be services in the Methodist Church Sunday evening at 7:15 o'clock. On account of the meeting at Hamilton, there will be no services at 11 o'clock. Services at Vernon at 3 o'clock, p. m.—C. L. Read.

FOR RENT for the year 1911 store now occupied by O. K. Cowing & Company. John L. Roderick, Everetts, N. C. 10-28-21

For the convenience of those desiring to communicate with him over the telephone, J. Paul Simpson announces that he can be found at Number 67 between the hours of 6 and 8 in the a. m., and 7 and 10 at night.

The many friends of Mrs. Marian Cobb (nee Sumps) will be pleased to learn of her marriage to Mr. Charles Cobb, of Edgecombe County, which was solemnized in the Presbyterian Church at Tarboro on last Wednesday. Mr. Cobb is a prosperous farmer of his county and he is to be warmly congratulated.

Quite a large crowd of both races went to Parmele to hear Booker Washington speak. The speech was in Booker's usual vein of counsel to his race, enjoining upon them the greatly necessity of doing faithful work and living honest lives among their white friends. Hundreds of people went to Parmele from various parts of the country to hear him.

Limber Twig, buggy horse of Dr. W. E. Warren, won second money each day at the Albemarle Fair held at Elizabeth City last week. The purses were $300.00 in each race. Penatus owned by A. R. Mizell won second money in each of his races. Purses were $200.00. He also won second money at Suffolk the week before. Farmer Gentry, the fast colt of John R. Gentry, owned by Dr. John D. Biggs, was also at the Fair, but did not start in any of the races.

The ladies of the Methodist Church gave a Halloween Party at the Masonic Hall on Monday night. Decorations representative of the occasion made the hall attractive. Wishes and stocks wandered about among the audience, giving one an uneasy feeling. Refreshments were served and the marriage of Miss Slim and Mr. Stout provoked much laughter. Quite a nice sum was realized and will be used to defray some expenses incurred by the Aid Society.

Miss Daisy Eckert, Field Secretary of the Philanthropes, addressed a good audience at the Baptist Church on Tuesday night as previously announced. The address was interesting from the beginning and Miss Eckert shined by manner and choice of language that she was in love with the work and had been naturally endowed with those gifts which mark the attractive speaker. The message she brought was one of hope and encouragement and the classes of the Sunday School were greatly benefited by it.

Revival Services at Hamilton

Revival services will begin in the Methodist Church in Hamilton Friday night, November 4th. Rev. L. P. Bransford, of Danville, Va., will do the preaching.

Mr. Bransford is highly esteemed where he is known for his work's sake, and comes strongly recommended as a faithful and a devout Christian. All are cordially invited to attend the services.

There is More Conviction in a single gallon of trial than in a whole barrel of talk. One gallon of Which Do You Believe?

Inequality of fortune has resulted from special privileges. Democracy believes a man should get what he earns; no more no less. The Republican party favors legislation which will enable one man to get something for nothing by forcing millions of people to get nothing for something. The Republican party believes that national prosperity is due to national taxation. The Democratic party believes a tax is a burden; the higher the tax the greater the burden, the less the burden.

HAMILTON ITEMS

Miss Sallie Baker, of Palmyra, is the guest of Mrs. Sheriff Sabbury.

L. J. Baker, of Palmyra, was the guest of C. H. Baker Monday night.

Miss Castine Purvis has returned from Newport News where she has been taking a business course.

We were pleased to have Rev. Mr. Read to conduct the opening services of our school Monday last.

Mrs. Dutt, the celebrated vocalist who has been visiting Mrs. J. P. Boyle, returned to her home in Philadelphia Monday. While here she sang on several occasions and was the recipient of many compliments.

We were glad to have Rev. C. L. Read in our midst again Sunday, it being his regular appointment. With the help of Rev. Mr. Bransford, of Danville, Va., he began a series of services at the Methodist Church Friday evening.

The book club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Purvis last Tuesday afternoon. The programme consisted of a miscellaneous contest, the prize being awarded to Mrs. Walter Sabbury. After the programme, refreshments were served.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Boyle was the scene of a most enjoyable reception Monday night. The participants assembled about eight-thirty. The programme was very interesting and consisted of songs and recitations by Mrs. Dutt and Miss Sallie Baker. At eleven o'clock the happy crowd was ushered into the dining room, where delightful refreshments were served. At the approach of the midnight hour the crowd dispersed after a most pleasant evening.

Quite a number attended the Halloween Party given by the Graded School at the Masonic Hall Friday night. The hall was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers, while the subdued light from the smiling pumpkins rendered the evening somewhat ghostly but very attractive. The programme consisted of singing by Mrs. Dutt, of Philadelphia and a cake walk and promenade by six black cats. Fortune telling also was an entertaining feature. After the programme oblation salad, cake and cream and other dainties were served. The evening proved to be very profitable for the school.

Sale of Seats for "Graustark"

Seats will be placed on sale Monday November 9th, for the performance of "Graustark," at the City Hall Opera House Friday, November 11th, and all indications point to one of the largest advance sales of the season.

As the date approaches, good accounts of the performance continue to reach us from the nearby towns, and it is safe to recommend "Graustark" as one of the best attractions that will appear here this season.

Probably it will be of interest to mention the fact that the Graustark Company will only play in four towns of this State. Prices 50c, 75c and $1.00.
