IMPORTANT GAINS FOR DEMOCRATS THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES.

Results Surprising in Some of The States.

DIX ELECTED GOVERNOR OF N. Y.

Woodrow Wilson Elected Governor of New Jersey—Harmon Elected in Ohio—Democrats Claim Connecticut and Massachusetts—Republican-Fusion Candidate Elected in Tennessee—All Democratic Congressmen Elected in North Carolina—Caleb Powers Elected in Kentucky—Louisiana Votes For $6,000,000 Bonds For Panama Expedition—Delaware and Florida Against Prohibition—McNinch, Cowles and Grant, Republicans, Defeated For Congress in North Carolina.

The result of Tuesday's election is a surprise to Democrats as well as to Republicans. It was generally believed that Dix would be elected in New York, but there was doubt as to the results in Ohio, New Jersey, Connecticut, and Tennessee.

If all the Congressional delegation from North Carolina elected are Democrats, as returns seem to show, this will be one of the greatest surprises.

Favorable weather prevailed and the voting was lively everywhere.

The national House of Representatives has been carried by the Democrats, reversing the present Republican majority of 43.

The United States Senate will probably have a reduced Republican majority as a result of the legislative elections held in many states.

In New York State John A. Dix, Democratic candidate for Governor, is elected over Henry L. Stimson, Republican, by a plurality of about 55,000, reversing the Republican plurality of 75,000 in 1908 for Governor Hughes.

In New Jersey Woodrow Wilson, Democratic candidate for Governor, is elected over Vivian M. Lewis, Republican, by about 15,000 plurality, reversing the previous Republican plurality of 8,000 for Governor Fort.

In Massachusetts Eugene N. Foss, Democratic candidate, has defeated Governor Eben S. Draper, Republican candidate for re-election by about 30,000 plurality reversing Governor Draper's former plurality of 8,000.

In Connecticut Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, Democratic candidate, is elected Governor, over Charles A. Goodwin, Republican, by about 4,000 plurality, reversing the previous Republican plurality of 16,000.

In Ohio Governor Judson Harmon, Democratic candidate for re-election, appears to have carried the State by about 15,000 over Warren G. Harding, Republican candidate.

In New Hampshire Robert P. Bass, Republican candidate for re-election is leading Charles E. Carr, Democratic candidate, by about 6,000 plurality.

In Pennsylvania the election of John H. Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, is claimed by a large plurality.

In Rhode Island, Governor Pothier, Republican candidate, for re-election, is slightly in the lead over Lewis A. Waterman, Democratic candidate, with a plurality much reduced from that of 1909.

In Tennessee the Fusion candidate, Ben W. Hooper, is apparently elected by 15,000 plurality.

Democratic Governors have been elected in Alabama and South Carolina.

In Iowa the Democrats claim the election of Claude R. Porter for Governor, but this is not yet conceded.

In Wisconsin the election of the Republican candidate for Governor, Francis E. McGovern, is claimed by a reduced majority and the return of Senator La Follette to the United States Senate is assured.

In Michigan Chase E. Osborn, the Republican candidate for Governor, appears to have a safe lead over L. T. Hemans, Democrat.

The Democrats gained from the Republican seats in Congress in eight States. In New York 7 Republican seats were won by the Democrats. In Maryland, Massachusetts and North Carolina each the Republicans lost two seats.

Losses were definitely known to have been sustained also in Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

The known Democratic gain is 19 seats, offset by the Republican gains from the Democrats one each in New York and Pennsylvania.

Reports received from other States indicated the Democrats

Can Live Ten Days More. London.—It was officially announced that Dr. Hawley H. Crippen convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of his wife Belle Elmore, would not be executed as originally arranged for the reason that the law provides that two weeks must elapse between the dismissal of an appeal and the carrying out of the sentence.

November 23 is the new date set for the execution. Meanwhile Solicitor Newton, Crippen's counsel is drafting a petition for a reprieve.

would have ample margin to assure them the 22 seats necessary to give them control of the House, two Democratic gains previously having been reported in Maine.

In Oklahoma returns indicated that the Democrats probably gained 2 seats, due apparently to the operation of the grandfather clause, which debarred negro Republicans from voting.

At Democratic headquarters in New Jersey it was claimed that the State would hold 8 seats, making a Democratic gain of 5.

In West Virginia reports stated the Democrats had gained in 3 congressional districts.

Missouri returns showed one known with 3 probable Democratic gains, while in Iowa and Illinois the returns indicated that the Democratic gains would total 6 seats.

In North Carolina returns indicated Democratic gains probably would increase to three.

A big surprise came from Wisconsin, when the Republican committee conceded the election of Victor L. Berger, Social Democrat, to Congress from the fifth district, which is now held by the Democrats.

New York—Returns indicate that A. Dix, Democrat, has been elected Governor of New York over Henry L. Stimson, Republican, by between 55,000 and 65,000 plurality. These figures may be reduced or increased by returns from up-State rural districts.

New York City gives Dix a plurality of at least 100,000, which more than offsets the greatly reduced plurality of the Republicans up-State. Two years ago the Greater City gave Chanler for Governor less than 60,000 plurality.

The complexion of the Legislature which will elect a successor to Senator Chauncey M. Depew, will be settled only by more complete returns, although it seems probable that the Republicans will hold a working majority.

In New York City, Herbert Parsons, Republican, was defeated for re-election as Representative to Congress by J. M. Levy, Democrat, as was William S. Bennett, Republican, by Henry George, Jr.

Theodore Roosevelt's home district, in Oyster Bay, L. I., gave Dix a plurality of 204 as against a plurality of 793 for Hughes in 1908.

In Ulster Charles A. Taleott, Democrat, defeated Millington, Vice-President Sherman's nominee for Congress, by 3,768.

New York—Henry L. Stimson attributes his defeat to causes nationwide and a general movement of the Republican party toward progressivism.

"There seems to be a ground swell all over the country," he said, "and I was caught in it. I think it is only the beginning. We're beginning to have a realignment of political parties and the Republican party is going the agony of becoming progressive. The returns speak for themselves. I have nothing to regret. We've had a good clean fight. I was surprised that I ran so well up with the rest of the ticket."

Greenville, S. C.—Returns from many parts of Greenville county show a landslide victory for the prohibitionists on the question of dispensary or no dispensary in this county, the vote standing: 696 for; 4,928 against, representing probably two-thirds of the vote polled.

Concord, N. H.—The election as Governor of Robert P. Bass, of Petersboro, who won the Republican nomination on a progressive platform and for whom Colonel Roosevelt spoke three times, was indicated by returns from about one-half the towns and wards of the State. These early figures, if borne out, would give Bass a majority of 6,000 votes over his Democratic opponent, Clarence E. Carr, of Andover.

From the same returns the early indication was that Congressman Cyrus A. Sulloway in the first district and Frank D. Currier in the second district, both Republicans, would be returned to Congress by majorities somewhat reduced over their 9,000 votes each of two years ago.

Omaha, Neb.—Hitchcock, Democrat, for United States Senator under the Oregon plan, ran ahead of Dahlman and prominent Republicans concede that he leads Senator Burkett, Republicans, in Douglas county by more than 10,000.

Wilmington, Del.—Returns from the State are arriving slowly. The

This is the way William Volker, president of the board of public welfare, sentenced three boys after they had been convicted of throwing eggs at pedestrians. When the boys appeared in the municipal court two of them were fined fifty dollars each and the third twenty-five dollars.

indications are that the Republicans have carried the State, including a majority in both houses of the Legislature.

In rural Newcastle county, outside of Wilmington, the wets defeated the drys in the local option election.

Guthrie, Okla.—Early reports from Oklahoma election precincts indicated that the result on the State ticket would not be known for many hours. Both Democratic and Republican State committees claim the election of their candidates for Governor.

New Orleans.—As usual, the Democratic nominees for Congress and State offices were elected without exception. The constitutional amendments providing a State bond issue of $6,500,000 in support of the proposed international exposition to be held in New Orleans in 1915 were overwhelmingly adopted.

Topeka, Kan.—Governor W. R. Stubbs, Republican, has undoubtedly been re-elected by a decreased majority over George Hodges. Six or eight Republican Congressmen will be returned, it appears. The districts in doubt are the third and the sixth.

Philadelphia.—State estimates are coming in slowly. Twenty-two out of 67 counties, including Allegheny in which is located Pittsburgh, but not including Philadelphia, give Tener, Republican, for Governor an estimated plurality of 10,000 over Berry, Keystone; Grim, Democrat, is running far behind.

Des Moines, Iowa.—Early indications are that Iowa cities, containing half the vote, have indulged in Democratic landslide.

Claude Porter, Democrat, for Governor, claims the election by 10,000, but the Republicans declare the result is in doubt and that belated county districts will wipe out Porter's lead. The normal Republican majority in the State is about 60,000.

Nashville, Tenn.—Summed up, the result of Tuesday's election appears to be B. W. Hooper, Republican and Fusionist, chosen Governor by 15,000 to 18,000 majority; B. A. Enloe, Democrat and Fusionist, by a like majority and a possible small Fusion majority in the Legislature. Both sides claim the Senate.

Most of the middle and west Tennessee, Democratic counties, nearly all of which went for the independent judicial ticket in August last, returned to the regular column, but by such small majorities that they were overwhelmed by the heavy Republican vote in east Tennessee counties.

In the congressional races R. W. Austin, Republican, appears to have defeated N. W. Hale, independent Republican; Sells, Republican; defeated C. H. Lyle in the first; Z. D. Massey, Republican, was elected to fill out the unexpired term of W. P. Brownlow. In the eight other districts the Democrats have won.

Trenton, N. J.—Returns from the election in New Jersey were very slow in coming in, but figures available indicated the election of Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, for Governor, the only State office to be filled, by between 10,000 and 20,000 plurality over Vivian M. Lewis, his Republican opponent. Most of the early returns were from Republican strongholds and while they showed Lewis to be in the lead a falling off in the normal Republican vote was indicated, on which the Democratic claims for Wilson's success were based.

Cleveland, O.—A remarkable delay in the counting of the vote is reported throughout the State because of much scratching of ballots. Incomplete official returns from outside the major cities indicates a gain for Governor Harmon of approximately 5 votes to a precinct, which if carried throughout the State would elect him by a plurality of more than 10,000.

Wheeling, W. Va.—The Democrats of West Virginia have made large gains in every section of the State. The election of John W. Davis for Congress, first district; W. G. Brown, second district, and John M. Hamilton, fourth district, are claimed by the Democrats. Big gains in the third and fifth districts are also recorded. Five State Senators and thirty members of the Legislature are also gained, according to the claims, but the results are so close that the official count will be necessary. The Republicans concede large losses in the State.

Jacksonville, Fla.—Early returns show local optimists in lead on proposition for prohibition amendment to the constitution. All Democrats elected.

Sugar Planters Invoke the Law. Donaldsville, La.—After adopting resolutions in which charges are made that the State and federal anti-trust laws are being violated by combination of capital which effectively restrain trade in sugar and molasses, by monopolistic methods, sugar planters, gathered here from eight parishes, took steps to secure the prosecution of the offenders. A committee, empowered to employ attorneys and detectives, was named and instructions given.

NEXT CONGRESS.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Returns up to date show the political complexion of the various State delegations in the Sixty-second Congress to be as follows:

The make-up of the Sixty-first Congress is also compared.

In Virginia. Richmond, Va.—The Democrats of Virginia elected their nominees for Congress in nine of the ten districts of the State and possibly triumphed also in the remaining one. The ninth district, which was the chief battle ground of the campaign, is claimed by both Democrats and Republicans. The result is very close. The proposed constitutional amendments apparently have been defeated.

In North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C.—While the returns here are still indefinite in many respects it seems certain that the State majority will be around 45,000 anyway, and there seems to be little or no question about the election of both Doughton in the eighth and Gudger in the tenth district. Along with these results of the election there are also evidence of gains of probably ten Representatives for the already overwhelming Democratic majority in the lower house of the General Assembly and possibly four Senators.

In North Carolina.

At midnight Tuesday State Chairman A. H. Eller gave out this statement: The reports at this hour indicate election of all ten Democratic candidates for Congress. Also an increase of about ten Democratic members of the House and four or five in the State Senate. Large gains have been made for the State ticket almost everywhere, the exceptions being a few counties, where there is practically no Republican party and hence a light vote. The majority ought to be right around 50,000.

Raleigh, N. C.—In the first district Congressman John H. Small, Democrat, was re-elected by a majority of over 7,000, a slight loss over the previous election. He had opposition.

In the second district, Representative Claude Kitchin, Democrat, was re-elected, without opposition, by a vote of 8,241.

In the third district Dr. John M. Faison, Democrat, was elected to succeed Representative Charles R. Thomas, Democrat, by somewhat reduced majorities. His opponent was Maj. George E. Butler, Republican.

In the fourth district Representative Edward W. Pou, Democrat, was re-elected by a majority hovering around 5,000. His opponent was R. A. P. Cooley, independent.

In the fifth district Major Charles M. Stedman, Democrat, was elected to succeed Representative John M. Morehead, Republican, over Dr. H. Blair by a majority of 3,482.

In the sixth district Representative Hannibal L. Godwin, Democrat, was re-elected over Iredell Mearns, Republican, by a majority approximating 3,000.

In the seventh district Representative Robert N. Page, Democrat, was re-elected by a majority of nearly 3,000 over John J. Parker, Republican.

ROSY AS YOUNG GIRL

J. W. Church, the Notary Public, of Summit, N. C., Tells How Cardui, The Woman's Tonic, Helped His Wife.

Summit, N. C.—"My wife had been ailing for nearly 12 years," writes Mr. Church, "and at times was unable to leave the house. She suffered agony with her side and back. We tried our family physician for many years, without relief. After his treatments all failed, she began to take Cardui, and gained in weight at once. Now she is red and rosy as a school girl."

"Mrs. Church recommends Cardui to all suffering women."

Cardui is more successful than other remedies, because it is "different." It is in a class by itself.

In over half a century, more than a million women have been helped to rosy health and happiness, by using this well-known and scientific woman's remedy.

Cardui acts specifically, on the weakest womanly organs. It helps to refresh the worn-out nerves and is the ideal remedy for young and old.

As a tonic for women, it has brought remarkable results. As a remedy for women's ills, its friends say it has no equal. Try Cardui.

The Test of Time.

Benjamin Haggood Burt and U. S. Epperson of Kansas City were motoring in Long Island the other day and stopped at Evan's hotel in Douglaston. They ordered large quantities of raw oysters, some of which were thrown aside by the oyster opener.

"How do you determine when an oyster is bad?" asked Mr. Epperson. "You wait a short time and if you have ptomaine poisoning the oysters were bad," said Mr. Burt. "If you are not ill they were good. That's the only safe way to tell good oysters from bad ones."

Reporter in Luck. City Editor (hurriedly)—Anything new about that suicide in the St. Fashion hotel?

Reporter—Not much. The man was a stranger, about my size. Shot himself with a .32 caliber revolver. Had on a dress suit at the time. The body had been taken to the morgue.

City Editor—"Bout your size. That's lucky. I want you to report a big society wedding in an hour. Rush around to the morgue and ask the keeper to lend you that dress suit."
