Contractor Stout, of Rocky Mount, will soon begin the erection of modern stables on the lot of Mrs. J. G. Staton. The present buildings will be removed and other improvements made.

J. G. Godard, Jr., while preparing a pole to be used in the erection of the electric wires, had the misfortune to cut his knee on Monday, in Kingan's new wagon and losing a bit of the bone.

The horse of H. M. Burras, while drawing a load of wood on Saturday, stumbled and fell on a stump with such force that the animal was killed. It was a very serviceable horse and means some loss to the owner.

Sara Bernhardt, the great French actress, played "Camille" in Norfolk Monday night, and several town people went down to witness the play. Among these were Mrs. Asa Crawford, Miss Anna Crawford and H. A. Biggs.

When the Haven Belle touched the wharf here on Sunday, all the deck hands stepped off and refused to do any further work. The trouble arose when the Captain made one of the hands leave while at one of the landings up the river. The others sympathized and left to show their disapproval. Other men were secured and the freight was handled by them.

Tuesday two men representing a land company in Texas were on the streets advertising free lots. The first name called was the winner of one lot, and this proved to be H. M. Burras. Others received assurances that if they would be on the land at such a day and pay the sum of $3.50, they could get the lot for which their number called. Of course, a crowd collected as the day was balmy and some few thought that there must be something in the proposition.

There's No Risk

If This Medicine Does Not Benefit You Pay Nothing

A physician who made a specialty of stomach troubles, particularly dyspepsia, after years of study perfected the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made. Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be the greatest remedy known for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The result they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time brings about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will insure healthy appetite, aid digestion and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain them only at—The Rexall Store, The S. R. Biggs Drug Co.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

If the average person worked only when he felt like it the world would starve before Christmas.

The man who is miserable because a black cat crossed his path Friday always did hate cats anyway, so he excuses himself for his superstition.

Marrying seems to be a religion with some people.

The spider which tried seven times in succession isn't in it with the exploiter who scents a rich graft.

Getting away with a lie would be a much simpler matter if it were not for the numerous persons who are always around keeping tab.

There is no more ridiculous spectacle than to see a slow, stupid man trying to be a sport.

The Book of Nature.
At times of books I weary,
For reading makes me full
Of twisted, warped ideas
Not ripe enough to pull,
And then I turn to nature,
Its pages bright to scan,
Or in the crowded city
I read the book of man.

The brightly printed pages
Present in full to me
A very fine idea
Of life as it should be,
But in the other volume
That men before me act
I get life stripped and naked
And as it is in fact.

The very fine romances,
The tale of love's young dream,
May start off with some trouble,
But end with pie and cream.
In life the paint and powder
Are very apt to rub,
The dainty little maiden
May finish at a tub.

Between the frames and covers
In fiction and in art
You get a race of people
Who live a life apart,
But in the book of nature,
Where truth on facts must wait
For all of its adornments,
They give it to you straight.

The Reward of Perseverance.
"Where is little Willie?"

"Alas, he has gone from us."
"How did it happen?"
"He found an old revolver."
"Yes?"
"And he tried to shoot it off."
"Yes?"
"But it would not work."
"Well?"
"So he tried, tried, tried again."

Striking an Average.
"Why does a handsome man always marry a homely woman?"
"For two reasons."
"What are they?"
"One is because he wants all the compliments that come to the family."
"And the other?"
"Because he wants to even things up."

Neutral.
"Who goes there, friend or foe?"
"Neither."
"You must be one or the other."
"Not necessarily. Why should I be your friend? I can't borrow any money from you. And why should I be your foe? I don't owe you any money."

Always Follows.
"He is a very promising young man."
"Promising is he?"
"Yes."
"How much has he promised?"
"What?"
"I merely was asking how much he owes."

Misunderstood.
"Boys aren't what they used to be when I was a lad."
"Aren't they?"
"No."
"Great improvement. How do you like it?"

Unappreciated.
"She is trying to be a poetess."
"Have any luck?"
"Oh, yes."
"What was it?"
"No one would print her poems."

But He Does It All the Time.
"What do you think about the high cost of living?"
"Me?"
"You."
"Mighty little, I tell you."

Unwilling Miss.
"We kissed and made up last night."
"Different with Mame and me."
"How was that?"
"We kissed and fell out."

Lowly.
"What have you on your mind?"
"My corns."
"Where are you carrying your mind now?"

Good Reason.
"Why worry over trifles?"
"They are not so expensive as something larger."

Spoils the Flavor.
She said as he about his pipe
In cheerful manner joked,
"A husband is not like a ham;
He should not be well smoked."
