For All Who Die

The following poem was regarded by Edgar A. Poe as the most beautiful and touching of its kind in the language.

It hath been said for all who die
There is a tear,
Some paining, bleeding heart to sigh
Over every bier;
But in that hour of pain and dread
Who will draw near
Around my humble couch and shed
One farewell tear?

Who'll watch the fast departing ray
In deep despair,
And soothe the spirit on its way
With holy prayer?
What minister round my couch
Will come
In words of woe,
And follow me to my long home
Solemn and slow?

When lying on my earthly bed
In rest and sleep,
Who then by pure affection led
Will come and weep?
By the pale moon implant the rose
Upon my bier,
And bid it cheer my dark repose,
My lonely rest?

Could I but know when I am sleeping
Low in the ground,
One faithful heart would then be keeping

Watch all around,
As if some gem lay hidden beneath
That cold sod's gloom,
'T would mitigate the pangs of death
And light the tomb

Yes, in that hour if I could feel
From the halls of glee
And beauty's pressure one would steal
In secrecy
And come and stand by me
In night's deep noon.

Oh I would ask of memory
No other boon,
But, ah! a fonder fate is mine,
A deeper woe,
From all I've loved in youth's sweet time

I soon must go,
Draw round me my pale robes of white
In a dark spot
To sleep thro' death's long, dream-less night,
Lone and forgot.

Do you know that of all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and consumption are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you eat? For sale by All Dealers.

Bible Study for Everybody

The International Press Bible Question Club is offering the opportunity and stimulus for everybody, either at home or in classes, to study the International Sunday School Lessons. The Adult Bible Class Movement has brought together thousands of men who study the Bible in classes every Sunday, but the I. P. B. Q. C. with its "Suggestive Questions" have put forth a most fascinating lot of questions to discuss and at the same time affords the opportunity for the still larger number, who do not attend Sunday School, to profitably study the lesson at home.

We are glad to report that our effort to enlist the masses in Bible study is being appreciated by our best people; words of encouragement are being freely said in favor of the work we have undertaken. Pastors, Sunday School workers, and others, interested in Bible study are giving us much encouragement. But this we expected; we did not, however, expect our "Suggestive Questions" would so interest non-

Attacks School Principal

A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, biliousness, and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50c at Saunders & Fowden.

churchgoers. This is an agreeable surprise, and it is very encouraging. From what we have learned, we shall not be surprised if non-churchgoers capture some of the best prizes.

We advise everybody to study these questions right along, so as to be ready to enter the contest with the lesson for Sunday May 19th. If you are not a subscriber to THE ENTERPRISE send in your subscription on the attached coupon.

A Fierce Night Alarm

is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin of Manchester, O. [R. R. No. 2] for their four children were greatly subjected to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks," he wrote "we were afraid they would die, but since we got what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, Hay Fever, La Grippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages fly before it 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by Saunders & Fowden.

MR. FARMER:—Have you stopped to consider how important it is that every farmer should know what ingredients constitute the Fertilizer that he uses. For HIS YEAR'S LABOR, HIS CROP, THE SUPPORT OF HIS FAMILY DEPENDS ON

THE RESULTS OF THE FERTILIZER USED

It does not pay to buy Fertilizer because it is cheap. Some Fertilizers on the market are made of low price material and have very little plant food qualities, hence are costly at any price. We are making, in our opinion, the best class of Fertilizers sold in the South.
