By au imperial edict Sunday, May, 14th, was observed as a day of rest by the Chinese nation. This is one of the most important steps from a religious point of view, that the Kingdom has ever taken, and will be hailed with satisfaction by the Christian nations of the world. China has made more forward strides within the last few years than any other country. The light is beginning to break over the Celestial Kingdom and soon it may be that the Sign of the Cross will displace the Dragon

To Fight Tuberculosis

The State Association for the prevention of Tuberculosis purposes individual and to do something definite for the tubercular, especially for the tubercular poor. The habit of wearing insufficient clothing about the chest. late hours of dissipation and other strains on the body have tended largely to increase the spread of the disease. It is high time that people were awakening to the danger that is threatening their own families.

"Stop My Paper"

The highest duty of an editor is to battle with wrong. This, of course, brings him in conflict with wrong doers and they are apt to show their spite in various ways It is quite common for the thin skinned or wounded to rush into the office and shout 'Stop my pasolved and come to naught. But at Saunders & Fowden.

the earth remained, and only his poor foot was injured in the encoun-This is the way of man. atticle in the newspaper touches him in a weak spot, and forthwith he sends to stop his paper. With great complacency he looks to see the crash, when he finds he only hit his toe against a world that does not perpetually feel the shock, and niures no one but himself.

No sensible editor expects to please everybody Such an editor lays no claim to infallibility and may at times even fall into error. But an outspoken, independent journal, aiming to support the right and attack the wrong, is such a ower for good in any community that well-balanced minds will look ver little faults in view of the greater benefits conferred. An ditor who is afraid to speak out on public questions for fear of ofending somebody, may have an easy time of it; but he will never amount to much as a leader of Dickins in is not so strange as les opinion. Thoughtful people will generally honor independence; and smile, for every subscriber fort in buttling for the right be will likely find two let the Republicars manage the to take the place. You can bet you they are tickled
When they hear the scissors grind.

It was something of a scandal Where the hoodlums were thick How they used it for a handle When they went to play a trick, In their rude and boisterous sinning How they grabbed the pigtail queer As they sent the owner spinning On his unoffending ear.

Then there was another stinger. On his busy washing day
If his pigtail fed the wringer
There was trouble right away,
And his loud and plaintive crying
Caused the listeners' ears to swim,
