MUNYON'S PAW-PAW PILLS

A trial package of Munyon's Paw Paw Pills will be sent free to anyone on request. Address Professor Munyon, 53d & Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. If you are in need of medical advice, do not fail to write Professor Munyon. Your communication will be treated in strict confidence, and your case will be diagnosed as carefully as though you had a personal interview.

Munyon's Paw Paw Pills are unlike all other laxatives or cathartics. They coax the liver into activity by gentle methods. They do not scour, they do not grip, they do not weaken, but they do start all the secretions of the liver and stomach in a way that soon puts these organs in a healthy condition and corrects constipation. In my opinion constipation is responsible for most ailments. There are 26 feet of human bowels, which is really a sewer pipe. When this pipe becomes clogged the whole system becomes poisoned, causing biliousness, indigestion and impure blood, which often produces rheumatism and kidney ailments. No woman who suffers with constipation or any liver ailment can expect to have a clear complexion or enjoy good health. If I had my way I would prohibit the sale of nine-tenths of the cathartics that are now being sold for the reason that they soon destroy the lining of the stomach, setting up serious forms of indigestion, and so paralyze the bowels that they refuse to act unless forced by strong purgatives.

Munyon's Paw Paw Pills are a tonic to the stomach, liver and nerves. They invigorate instead of weaken; they enrich the blood instead of impoverish it; they enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that is put into it.

These pills contain no calomel, no dope; they are soothing, healing and stimulating. They school the bowels to act without physio.

Regular size bottle, containing 45 pills, 25 cents. Munyon's Laboratory, 53d & Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia.

Publicity Law Badly Needed.

Connecticut, District of Columbia, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island and Vermont, have laws which provide specifically for the reporting of tuberculosis and which make provision for the proper registration of living cases of this disease. In 14 other states, laws or regulations of the state boards of health require that tuberculosis be reported simply as one of a list of infectious diseases. The following 28 states and territories have no provisions whatever for the reporting or registration of tuberculosis cases:—Arizona, Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia and Wyoming.

Hadn't the Material.

"I really never saw such an impudent man as that Mr. De Borrowe," said Miss Wrathy. "He actually had the nerve to ask me the other night how I managed to get that lovely tinge of auburn to my hair!"

"Really? Well, why didn't you box his ears?" asked Miss Slimm.

"Why, I only had my Easter hat-box handy, and that wasn't big enough," said Miss Wrathy.—Harper's Weekly.

COMES A TIME

When Coffee Shows What It Has Been Doing.

"Of late years coffee has disagreed with me," writes a matron from Rome, N. Y.

"Its lightest punishment being to make me 'logy' and dizzy, and it seemed to thicken up my blood."

"The heaviest was when it upset my stomach completely, destroying my appetite and making me nervous and irritable, and sent me to my bed. After one of these attacks, in which I nearly lost my life, I concluded to quit the coffee and try Postum."

"It went right to the spot! I found it not only a most palatable and refreshing beverage, but a food as well."

"All my ailments, the 'loginess' and dizziness, the unsatisfactory condition of my blood, my nervousness and irritability disappeared in short order and my sorely afflicted stomach began quickly to recover. I began to rebuild and have steadily continued until now. Have a good appetite and am rejoicing in sound health which I owe to the use of Postum." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Read the little book "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a reason." Never read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

CAUCUS SYSTEM IS DENOUNCED

AN INSURGENT ATTACKS PARTY CONTROL IN THE HOUSE. WARM LANGUAGE.

PRESIDENT TAFT SCORED

Protests Against "Boss Control" of the House—When Members are Guilty of Treason—People are Not Represented Says Mr. Lindbergh.

Washington—Denouncing as "traitors" representatives in Congress who surrender their action to party caucus, and declaring that any President is guilty of bribery who undertakes to control the house through patronage to those who espouse administrative measures regardless of merits, representative Lindbergh of Minnesota, an insurgent Republican, during the wool tariff debate in the house, attacked what he claimed was the "boss control" of the house and its manipulation through the caucus system and patronage distribution. He charged the Democrats with having worked for freedom of action in the last Congress when they co-operated with the insurgent Republicans, but to have adopted the evils of the caucus system now they are in power.

The house has capitulated to an unofficial body now known as the Democratic caucus, he declared. It is not the first time in history that the majority membership of this house has committed treason, nor is the Democratic caucus the only caucus to have committed the offense.

"I am talking against treason and I unflinchingly and unhesitatingly say that any member who surrenders his action to the control of a caucus, violates his oath, is a traitor to his constituency and commits treason against his country."

Regarding the presidential use of patronage, Mr. Lindbergh said:

"The house is the only elective body in Washington, and when any President undertakes to control it by systems of personal favors in the shape of patronage to those who will vote for so-called 'administrative measures,' irrespective of their honest opinions or their merits or demerits, he is guilty of nothing short of bribery."

"One person cuts very little figure here," he added, "unless he is in the swim with the bosses, and then he is worthless to the people."

Tribute to Heroic Deeds of Men.

Washington—President Taft, as commander-in-chief of the navy, paid tribute to six enlisted men in the service. In the presence of Secretary of the Navy Meyer and Captain Wiley of the battleship North Dakota, the President presented the men with medals of honor, the highest distinction which this government can bestow. The President spoke in praise of their heroic deeds when on September 8, 1910, an oil-fuel explosion on the North Dakota killed three men, putting in jeopardy the lives of scores of others and placed the battleship itself in danger.—Thomas Stanton and Karl Westa, chief machinist's mates; Patrick Reid and August Holtz, chief water tenders; Charles C. Roberts, machinist's mate, first class, and Harry Lipscomb, water tender, made up the honored half-dozen. These men waded in water up to their waists, in dense smoke, unbearable heat and the fumes of burning oil and gas and steam, to rescue their comrades and to prevent further explosion. In addition to the medals of honor a gratuity of $100 was given to each man.

Cause of Pennsylvania Wreck.

Trenton, N. J.—Derailment due to defective condition of the tracks while undergoing repairs was responsible for the Martin's creek wreck in which 12 persons were killed and more than a hundred injured on the Pennsylvania road on April 29, last.

Now For a Long Talk Fest.

Washington—The battle lines on the Canadian reciprocity agreement were squarely drawn in the senate, when, in accordance with agreement, Chairman Penrose reported the bill without recommendation, favorable and adverse views were presented by Senators, Messrs. McCumber and LaFollette submitted reports outlining their individual views in opposition to reciprocity and Mr. Williams presented the views of himself and Messrs. Stone and Kern favorable to the measure.

No Discrimination Against South.

Washington.—The postoffice department is not discriminating against Southern states in establishing rural mail routes, declared George G. Thomson, superintendent of rural postal delivery, before the house committee on expenditures in the postoffice department. He denied that politics figured in the matter.

Representative Redfield of Brooklyn suggested that of the 1,700 petitions for rural delivery now pending before the postoffice department the great majority are in the South.

DOWNFALL OF SAMARIA

Sunday School Lesson for June 18, 1911. Specially Arranged for This Paper.

LESSON TEXT—2 Kings 17:1-18. MEMORY VERSE—4. GOLDEN TEXT—"He That Being Often Reproved Hardeneth his Neck, Shall Suddenly be Destroyed, and That Without Remedy."—Prov. 2:1.

TIME—Hoshea became king in the twelfth year of Ahas (2 Kings 17:1), B. C. 725 (Beecher), 720 (Haastings). Samaria fell B. C. 722 (Beecher), 722 (Haastings).

PLACE—Samaria, the capital of the northern kingdom, about 35 miles north of Jerusalem.

KINGS—Hoshea in Judah, carrying out his reforms. In Assyria and Babylon, Shalmaneser IV, followed by Sargon II, in Assyria and Merodach-baladan in Babylon. In Egypt, Sabako (So.).

PROPHETS—Isaiah and perhaps Hosea and Micah.

What was the character of Hoshea? The implication of v. 2 is that, though he allowed the practices of idolatry and the other evils of his predecessors, yet he was a better man than they. Perhaps the teachings of Hosea had reached his heart. "About his personal character we know little. We may infer that it lacked decisive energy and lofty patriotism. Beginning his reign as a mere puppet in Assyria's hands, he shaped his career as an opportunist. He was too astute to offend any national susceptibilities by abandoning the worship of Jehovah, too cautious and politic to play the role of a purist in religious practices. The impartial historian will not judge this last king of Ephraim too severely, but will unhesitatingly admit that he lived in times of direst difficulty and peril, when nothing but miraculous divinely guided statesmanship, like that of Isaiah, could have saved the realm from overwhelming disaster."

The Northern Kingdom had had its chance, and had thrown it away. "There is less hope for us each year and day we live in sin. Every hour we are drifting out to sea—the helpless, homeless bark is leaving the lessening shore farther and farther behind. Our disease becomes incurable. Like those stones which, though soft as clay on being raised from the quarry, grow hard as flint through exposure to the weather, our hearts are growing harder day by day."

Hoshea's imprisonment is a fair sample of the result of dependence upon men rather than God. Trust in Egypt was Israel's snare from the first. The prophets compared it to trusting in a shadow or making a staff out of a bruised reed. "The bankrupt who asks a bankrupt to set him up in business again is only losing time. The prisoner does not beg his fellow prisoner to set him free. The shipwrecked sailor does not call upon his shipwrecked comrade to place him ashore." In our troubles we are not to scorn the aid of men, but we are to know that without God's favor and assistance all human help is vain.

What measures did Shalmaneser take to reduce to submission his rebellious vassal? He sent (or led in person) an army against him. Professor Rogers thinks that Hoshea marched out to meet this army, and was then captured and sent to Assyria as a prisoner. At any rate, "Samaria prepared for a siege. There is something heroic in the very thought. It was surrounded and hemmed in by territory over which it had once ruled in undisputed sway, but which had long been controlled by Assyrian governors and filled with Assyrian colonists. As Shalmaneser advanced closer he would, of course, destroy and lay waste everything about the city which might have furnished any aid or comfort to it. From the villages and towns thus destroyed the people would flock into the capital until it was crowded. The people of Samaria may have hoped for help from Egypt, watching with sick hearts for signs of an approaching army of succor. They knew what surrender meant in the loss of their city, and in probable deportation to strange lands. They were fighting to the bitter end for homes and for life."

What God had done: By a marvelous deliverance, he had brought them out of their bondage in Egypt. He had driven out the Canaanites from before them. He had given them the commandments, and full and wise laws. He had made a covenant with them, over and over, promising them all blessings if they would obey him. He had sent them the prophets and seers, the best and wisest of men, to declare his will and lead the way.

What Israel had done: They had fallen into a worse bondage, becoming slaves of an abominable idolatry. They had fallen to worshipping the very gods of the Canaanites, thus proved powerless. They had broken the commandments, especially the most solemn and important, that against idolatry. They had failed to keep their part of the covenant, and could not expect God to keep his part. They would not listen to the prophets, but persisted in all iniquity, setting up idolatrous obelisks, and Asherim, and even sacrificing their children to the fire god Molech.

Why We Lose Choice Gifts.

We fail to secure the choicest gifts because we do not sincerely desire them and are not willing to pay the cost.—Rev. Dr. W. G. Partridge, Baptist, Pittsburg.

Religion a Joy.

Religion does not consist in drawing a long face and heaving sighs as we pass on the journey of life, but in brightness and joy, the outcome of a Christian career.—Dr. William Spurgeon, Evangelist, London.

MRS. McPHERSON IS RELIEVED

In Letter Written From Chadbourn, N. C., She Makes a Full Statement Regarding Her Case.

Chadbourn, N. C.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. M. D. McPherson says: "I suffered five years with awful pains. They grew worse, till I would often faint. I could not walk at all, for two or three days at a time, and had an awful hurting in my side, and headache, and backache. I could not do anything."

I gave up, and thought I would die, but my husband said, 'Let's try Cardui.' So I began and the first bottle helped me, and I could do my cooking, and by the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work."

The Cardui home treatment will do more than you recommend it to do. All the people around said I would die, but thanks to Cardui, I was relieved."

Cardui is composed of gentle-acting, herb ingredients. Its action is mild and natural, and it has no bad after-effects, as have many of the powerful drugs sometimes recommended.

No other medicine or tonic has exactly the same results as Cardui.

No other has the record of 50 years of successful treatment of cases of womanly weakness and disease.

Suppose you try it.

Should Report Tuberculosis Cases.

The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis says that the first requisite for a comprehensive campaign for the elimination of tuberculosis in a state or city is well-enforced law, requiring that every living case of tuberculosis be reported to the health authorities. Such reporting is now required by law or health regulations in 25 states, while in 28 states and territories no provision whatever is made for keeping records of cases of this infectious disease. Several cities in non-registration states, as for instance, Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis and New Orleans, have local ordinances requiring that tuberculosis be reported. In all, there are about 100 cities in the United States which have ordinances of this nature.

What Was She Wearing?

The new freeman was telling his wife about the fire.

"It broke out at midnight in the Von Biffers' house on the avenue," he said, "and just as we got there Miss Von Biffer came stumbling out of the flames and smoke carrying her little niece all wrapped up in her arms. It was the bravest act I ever saw."

"What was she wearing?" inquired the freeman's wife.

It's difficult for people to generate advice that is foolproof.

When a laxative is needed, take the always potent Garfield Tea. Composed of Herbs.

Many self-made men forget to make themselves agreeable.

The Human Heart

The heart is a wonderful double pump, through the action of which the blood stream is kept sweeping round and round through the body at the rate of seven miles an hour. "Remember this, that our bodies will not stand the strain of over-work without good, pure blood any more than the engine can run smoothly without oil." After many years of study in the active practice of medicine, Dr. R. V. Pierce found that when the stomach was out of order, the blood impure and there were symptoms of general breakdown, a tonic made of the glyceric extract of certain roots was the best corrective. This he called

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Being made without alcohol, this "Medical Discovery" helps the stomach to assimilate the food, thereby curing dyspepsia. It is especially adapted to diseases attended with excessive tissue waste, notably in convalescence from various fevers, for thin-blooded people and those who are always "catching cold."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps for the French cloth-bound book of 1008 pages. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

AN OUTSIDER.

Gwendolyn—She is not going to stop at that resort any longer. Genevieve—What is the reason, no more there?

Gwendolyn—Not that exactly. There is one lone man, who has proposed to all of the girls but her, and she feels so out of place when they are holding an experience meeting.
