Bulletin No. 4

The Virginia-Carolina Game!

On February 20th it was mutually agreed by our North Carolina Agency and the Virginia Agency of the Maryland Life Insurance Co., to extend the time of the contest till March 31st instead of closing it on the last of February as originally intended.

This action was suggested by the referee, owing to the fact that the weather during February was so unusually bad, it did not give either side a fair chance to prove its real worth.

I want to say however for our men that I am proud of the record which they have made even under unfavorable circumstances. They have shown themselves equal to the job.

Now our firm determination is to stay in the race and demonstrate to Virginia that she doesn't beat Carolina in every game played.

Watch us do it---Help us do it.
