—Court next week.
—Don't miss the show tonight. Specialties in abundance.
—A double program at the moving pictures tonight.
—Sunday is St. Patrick's Day and dear to every Irishman.
—Special St. Patrick's Day pictures at the moving pictures Monday night, next.

A live wire from opening chorus to finale. What? Why Buster Brown, Mary Jane and Tige, who will be with you soon.

—The Bank of Robersonville is making a splendid showing as can be seen from ad in this issue. Figures are correct and speak for the bank.

—FOR SALE—King's Improved Cotton Seed. One of the best producers in the patch, making 40 per cent lint. Fine staple and matures early.—W. D. Jenkins, Route 3, Williamston, N. C.

—Mrs. Fannie S. Biggs is having attractive and convenient improvements made to her residence in East Williamston. The house is also being wired for electric lights, which will add to the interior appearance.

—A doctor's prescription.—A frequent laugh is far better than all medicines. So see "Buster Brown", "Mary Jane" and "Tige." They furnish a laugh every minute and then some.

—The body of Mrs. Emma Wilson Kilpatrick arrived here from Smithfield today where she died on yesterday. The interment will be this afternoon in the family plot adjoining the Baptist Cemetery.

—D. S. Powell, of Parmele, was in town Tuesday in the interest of the new school to be erected there. The town of Parmele should be congratulated on being chosen as the seat of this school, which will belong to the Conference of the Northern Methodist Church. It will aid greatly in building up the religious and material life of the town.

—J. Paul Simpson, while working on the engine at the shop of J. L. Woolard on Monday night, was struck in the face by a part of the machinery and a deep gash was made. He was taken to the drug store and attended by Dr. Saunders. The blood flowed so freely that it nauseated the injured man and he fainted but soon regained consciousness and went to his home on Main Street.

—Rev. J. H. Griffith, of Kinston, exchanged pulpits with Rev. M. E. Bethea on Sunday. Mr. Griffith has visited the parish here several times before and has many friends in the town. He has been rector of the Church at Kinston for nearly fourteen years and is doing a good work there. His services here on Sunday were very interesting and his sermons were strong presentations of the truth of the Gospel as found in the Scriptures. He was the guest of the rectory while in town and left on the early train Monday to fill an appointment in his own parish.

Glorious News

comes from Dr. J. T. Curtiss, Dwight, Kan. He writes. "I not only have cured bad case of eczema in my patients with Electric Bitters, but also cured myself by them of the same disease. I feel sure they will benefit any case of eczema." This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is a most effective blood purifier. Its an excellent remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Price 50 cts. Satisfaction guaranteed by Saunders & Fowden.

A Cold, Laerlpe, Then Pneumonia

Is too often the fatal sequence, and coughs that hang on weaken the system and lower the vital resistance. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a reliable medicine that stops the cough promptly by healing the cause; soothes the inflamed air passages, and checks the cold. Keep always on hand. Refus substitutes. Saunders & Fowden.

Seed Peanuts For Sale

Just received one-car load of genuine Wilmington Seed Peanuts. We are offering these to our farmer friends at actual cost to induce them to grow this variety of peanuts, as they are very much in demand and we believe will yield more per acre than any other variety, thus bringing the grower more money.

You must see us and let us book your order promptly before they are gone.

Yours truly,
Va-Carolina Peanut Co.
