Close of Term

The ending of the session of the Williamston High School was an event interesting alike to scholars and patrons of the school. The Senior Class had worked diligently throughout the term so as to have a creditable ending of the work. The class was composed of the following graduates: Fannie Murt Manning, Sallie Hadley, Allie Hadley, Martha Ward, Walter Jenkins and Maurice Watts. Sallie Hadley was valedictorian and acquitted herself with honor. The papers read by other members of the class were well-received and the humorous bits brought forth peals of laughter.

The entire school assembled at 10 o'clock in the City Hall and after prayer by Rev. G. J. Dowell, the exercises opened with a song which was unusually well rendered especially by the first and second grades as they had been thoroughly trained by Miss Alexander, who has had a very successful year in that department. Walter Jenkins was salutatorian and made a splendid address. He was followed by Maurice Watts, who gave a most interesting history of the class, paying a high tribute to Principal Jordan. Then was read in order the Prophecy by Fannie Murt Manning, "Macbeth and Lady Macbeth, a Contrast," by Allie Hadley, Will and Testament by Martha Ward and then the valedictory. Handsome floral pieces were presented each one and the stage was bright with beautiful flowers. Under the direction of Prof. Jordan another song was rendered and then the speaker, Mr. H. G. Hunter, was introduced. Mr. Hunter came as a substitute for Hon. J. Bryan Grimes, who was detained at home on account of illness in his family. The words of the speaker were plain and pointed and appealed to even the younger children who gave him earnest attention.

At the close of the address, S. A. Newell delivered diplomas to the class and John L. Hassell presented prizes to the winners in the fifth and sixth grades. James Edwin Harrell received the first prize for punctuality, attendance and scholarship, Una Bradley receiving second prize. Fitzhugh Robertson and Daisy Manning received prizes in the seventh and eighth grades.

Thus closed one of the most successful years of the High School. The Faculty was strong, each member doing that part of the work to which he had been assigned, faithfully and conscientiously. Throughout the term there has been that quiet confidence existing between teachers and pupils which always make for things worth while in the school life. Prof. Jordan, who has been principal for two terms, will not return as he has secured a scholarship in the Chicago University and will train there for a year. His work here has been of a high order, and though a young man, he easily won the respect of each of his pupils.

MUSICALS
Thursday night, Miss Lettie Critcher, teacher of music, gave the annual recital assisted by her pupils, Miss Alexander and several others of the school. The class has been large this year and some good work accomplished. The numbers on the programme consisted of solos, duets, trios, quartettes, songs and J. W. Jordan, a well known dentist of Hopkinsville, Ky., recently had an operation for his kidney trouble, but he says: "The first real relief I got was after taking Foley Kidney Pills. They eased the terrible pain in my back and accomplished more good than anything I had tried. I gladly recommend them." Saunders & Fowden.

In Honor of Prof. Jordan

On Monday evening the Senior Class of the High School entertained in honor of their teacher Prof. A. M. Jordan, at the home of Miss Lettie Critcher. The guests were met at the door by Miss Critcher and Prof. Jordan and extended a most cordial welcome. After returning from the cloak room they ashered into the punch room and served with delicious punch by Miss Sallie Hadley and Maurice Watts. Music and conversation was the prevailing pastime of the evening.

At 11 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room and served with chicken salad, pepper and ham sandwiches, pickles, crackers, cream and cake. The table was artistically decorated with purple and gold, the class colors.

At a late hour the guests reluctantly departed after thanking Miss Critcher and the class for the pleasant evening. Those of the class present were: Miss Fannie Murt Manning, Allie and Sallie Hadley, Martha Ward, Mary Dare Brown, Emma Robertson, Maurice Watts and John W. Manning. The invited guests were: Miss Mary Lee Pell, of Richmond; Miss Isabelle Morton, of Robersonville; Misses Carrie Alexander, Susie Purvis, Frances Knight and Fannie Biggs Martini; Wheeler Martin, Jr., Bruce Whitley, Dr. J. S. Rhodes, Leslie Fowden, Fred Shute, Maurice Moore, Ben Hopkins, Oscar Anderson, Roland Robertson, Burrous, Roger and Duke Critcher.

The Demons of the Swamp

are mosquitos. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the icy chills and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50 cts. at Saunders & Fowden.

The selections were from some of the most famous composers and the pupils showed excellent training in memorizing and technique. Among the most pleasing numbers were "Greeting to Spring" with Miss Alexander as first soprano; "Guess Who," song and drill, and Fancy Skirt Drill by ten girls. Taken as a whole, the recital was a most pleasing one, and the beautiful scenic effects produced by Mr. Maurice S. Moore, added much to the stage setting.

FIRST DISTINCTION

The following pupils won a place on each monthly honor roll during the term of 1911-12: Louise Harrison, Francis Manning, Raleigh Bradley, William Ellison, C. D. Carstarphen, Una Bradley, James Edwin Harrell, Leona Page, Daisy Manning, Eva Peel, Ollie Roberson and Fannie Murt Manning.

Escapes an Awful Fate

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough," she writes. "Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment of other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to this wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now." Quick and safe, its the most reliable of all throat and lung medicines. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Saunders & Fowden.

Society of The Cincinnati

Col. Wilson G. Lamb has returned to Williamston and during his absence he attended the annual meeting of the North Carolina Society of the Cincinnati which convened at New Berne last week. Col. Lamb is president of the North Carolina Society, and he is a descendant of Gideon Lamb, a charter member of the society when it was organized with George Washington as President General.

At the meeting in New Berne there were most of the North Carolina members, and in addition to these were present Major Ashton Ramsey, of Baltimore, builder of the Merrimac, and chief engineer of the ship at the fight in Hampton Roads during the Civil War, and Major Farragut, of New York City, son of the famous Admiral and grandson of Captain Farragut The North Carolina line of the Continental Army.

At the meeting in New Berne there were resolutions of sympathy accepted in memory of Major Archibald Butt, whose life was lost on the Titanic, and who was a member of the Georgia Society.

Mrs. Rose A. Freeman, Clifford, Va., says they have long used Foley's Remedies and want to say a good word for them. She writes: "Foley Kidney Pills cured my husband of a long standing kidney trouble, after he had taken other medicines without relief. We would not be without Foley & Co's. medicines in our house for many times their cost." Saunders & Fowden.

Changed Her Mind

Last week, there appeared in these columns the wedding card of Miss Ethel Peel and Mr. J. W. Hardison, the marriage to take place on the 15th, inst. It would seem that another suitor for the hand of Miss Peel determined to upset plans and have them go his way. This was Mr. Ransom, a travelling man whose home is near Enfield. He was engaged to Miss Peel but she discarded him several weeks ago and arranged to marry Hardison, of Washington, who is a Martin County boy employed by Suskin & Berry.

Miss Peel arrived here on the noon train Saturday and Ransom was waiting for her. Her sister, Mrs. J. A. Mizell, insisted that the marriage be deferred until her arrival by car from Robersonville, but nothing was doing along that line, and with license and Rev. G. J. Dowell at the home of Mrs. W. A. Brown, the marriage proceeded before Mrs. Mizell reached here. Mr. Hardison was informed but took the situation quietly and made no effort to stop the marriage. The couple left on the 5 o'clock train, as did Mr. and Mrs. Mizell, whose car broke as they started to return home.

Helps a Judge in Bad Fix

Justice Eli Cherry, of Gills Mills Tenn., was plainly worried. A bad sore on his leg had baffled several doctors and long resisted all remedies. "I thought it was a cancer," he wrote. "At last I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was completely cured." Cures burns, boils, ulcers, cuts, bruises and piles. 25 cents at Saunders & Fowden.

How You Can Help

As heretofore announced, it is the purpose of the pastor of the Methodist Church to begin a series of evangelistic services on the second Sunday in May to be continued as long as the interest may demand. Our Church needs a revival. All who really know and love the Christ and His cause feel and know this to be a fact. Truly every church needs a quickening of her spiritual life.

But a revival comes through human co-operation with Divine power and never otherwise. This being true every genuine Christian should be deeply concerned to know how to aid in the great and glorious work.

As pastor of the Church, I wish to mention a few simple ways to help in needed revival.

1. The life of the co-laborer with Christ must be clean.
2. By earnest prayer to God for His guidance and blessing.
3. By attending and aiding in all the services of the series.
4. By thinking and talking of the meetings between the services.
5. By giving loyal support to the pastor as the divinely ordained leader.

How then can you help in a revival? Answer, by getting right with God yourself; by earnest prayer for your own divine guidance in doing personal work and for His blessings upon your efforts; by attending all the services and aiding in them; by thinking and talking about the meetings between the services and by working in harmony with the pastor as leader in the services.

RUFUS BRADLEY, Pastor.

Mrs. R. Brant, 11115 Paden St., Parkersburg, W. Va., had an attack of lagrippe which left her bad kidney trouble, and she suffered much severe pain and backache. Then she heard of Foley Kidney Pills and says: "After taking them a short time the pain left my back and I am again able to do my own housework. Foley Kidney Pills helped me wonderfully." She was seventy-five years old and a native of Elizabeth City. Months ago she was stricken with paralysis and the end was not unexpected by the family.
