INVITE THEM HERE

It is rumored that the Hamilton Pants Manufacturing Company is looking for a location with better transportation advantages. Williamston has ample facilities and cheap rates—just as good as can be had in Eastern Carolina. The Hamilton people are just such folks as we need. Let our people offer them some inducement. Invite them to locate here and make it difficult for them to decline the invitation. They would help us and we could serve them.

Bagley Confessed

Last Friday the forms of the paper were held open so that a message might be received containing information about the electrocution of Brad Bagley. The main facts as received from Warden Sale were published. This message stated that Bagley made no confession but that he talked as the straps were being adjusted about his face and head. What the words were, the Warden failed to hear. The doomed man had written to friends here that he was innocent of the murder of Captain White, though he had never made any effort to prove an alibi on the night of the murder.

His spiritual adviser, Joshua Griffin, had exhausted every means by word of his own and that contained in the Scriptures to induce him to confess. But the man, so soon to die, never despaired until just a short while before the hour for his death. He had some hope that something would be done for him even in those last moments. So he walked unflinchingly to the death chair. But when all hope was gone and the electrical fixtures were being placed about his body, with the awful fact of eternity staring him in the face, he for the first time realized the great load upon his soul and murmured: "I am a guilty man." There were those from Williamston who heard his words and his call for God to have mercy on his soul.

There had never been any doubt among the citizens of Williamston as to Bagley's guilt even though he should have died with closed lips, but it is best that he confessed ere his soul went to eternity. His body was embalmed and brought here Saturday, and Sunday an immense crowd of his race attended the burial.

Notice

To the Democratic Voters of the 2nd. Senatorial District.
I have decided to become a candidate for the office as one of the Senators from this district, in the Next General Assembly of North Carolina, and respectfully solicit the support of all democrats of said district, both at the primary and Convention.

Respectfully,
W. A. Thompson,
Aurora, N. C.

Helps a Judge in Bad Fix

Justice Eli Cherry, of Mills Mills Tenn., was plainly worried. A bad sore on his leg had baffled several doctors and long resisted all remedies. "I thought it was a cancer," he wrote. "At last I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was completely cured." Cures burns, boils, ulcers, cuts, bruises and piles. 25 cents at Saunders & Fowden.

El Baile Club

The young men of the town have recently formed the El Baile Club for mutual pleasure and enjoyment. Strictly speaking it is a Club which will give each week a dance on Thursday evening. The name El Baile was handed down from generation to generation by the Moors and in history it is first spoken of in connection with some festival during the days of the Spanish Main. It was taken to Mexico by the Spaniards and those care-free, pleasure-loving people use it to express amusement. The members of the Club hope to get as much innocent fun and pastime out of the organization as the meaning of the El Baile Club conveys. Clayton Moore is president and Julius S. Peel is secretary and treasurer of the Club.

Services Closed

The revival services at the Methodist Church which commenced ten days before, ended on Wednesday night. All through these meetings at both the morning and night services the attendance has been large, and the interest very marked. Rev. J. H. Buffalo made plain the Gospel truths and made a profound impression upon his hearers. The choir led by Mr. Fitzgerald did faithful service and the singing was an attractive part of the meetings.

There were several additions and the Church was greatly revived.

A. C. L. R. R. Criticised

When the railroad company consented to elevate the track above Main Street extension just this side of Martin's farm, it was thought that the company would build a cement arch under which the street would pass. Not so, however, for there is nothing except unsightly wooden piling there to support the track. The citizens of the town have severely criticised the company's action. They want a more enduring and attractive structure there. After voting for good roads, the people desire to have them built as attractive as possible under the natural conditions. The Coast Line should accede to the demands of the people and give them something worth while.

John R. Staton, Joyce, Ky., had an exceptionally severe attack of whooping cough. He says: "If it had not been for Foley's Honey and Tar Compound I would have been compelled to quit work. Instead, I never missed a day, and Foley's Honey and Tar Compound gave me instant relief and is the only cough medicine we ever use." Contains no opiates. Saunders & Fowden.

Judge Pell The Man

Mr. Editor:
I notice the announcement of Judge George P. Pell, as a candidate for Corporation Commissioner.

There are several special reasons why he should be nominated. The first reason why he should be nominated is the fact that, as we all know, the Corporation Commission is a court and needs members of some judicial experience, as its decisions must be reviewed by the Supreme Court of the State. Judge Pell has had experience upon the Superior Court bench, and has been trained to hold the scales of Justice even-handed between the railroads and the people. He will certainly take care of the people's end of it.

This year there are two vacancies to fill on the Commission. For one of these vacancies only Eastern men are candidates, so the Eastern Democracy will certainly fill one of these vacancies. Why not give the other vacancy to the Cental and Piedmont Counties, and nominate this splendid and proficient Democrat, Judge Pell.

I sincerely trust that our Democrats in Martin will see it as I do, and will instruct for Judge Pell.

I am,
Yours very truly,
J. C. Robertson.

Mrs. R. Brant, 11115 Paden St., Parkersburg, W. Va., had an attack of lagrippe which left her bad kidney trouble, and she suffered much severe pain and backache. Then she heard of Foley Kidney Pills and says: "After taking them a short time the pain left my back and I am again able to do my own housework. Foley Kidney Pills helped me wonderfully." Saunders & Fowden.

Good Health Hints

No spit—no consumption.

Don't made a junk shop of your stomach.

Use sticky fly paper in the house. Swat all flies that escape it.

The best spring tonic—spring air and pure spring water. Take it every day.

A decreasing death rate is the best evidence of sanitary progress in a community.

When you are feeling dull and stupid and have a headache, try a good big dose of fresh air. It will generally do you good.

The presence of flies means the presence of filth. It may be in the kitchen, in the cuspidor, in the uncovered garbage can, the manure pile, or the open privy. At least it is nearby. Remember your visitors and caller may know about this, too.

Get the drink habit. It will cure your "spring fever" and make a torrid summer mild for you—if you drink Adam's pure, unadulterated ale. Your sluggish feeling each spring is due to winter accumulations of waste in the body which should be removed. Flush them out with not less than two quarts of water every day. Then keep them flushed. Don't permit these sluggish conditions of the body, if you have to drink three or even four quarts of water and eat nothing but fruits and vegetables. Have an internal spring house-cleaning for a week and see how much more easily you can do your work.

Don't waste your money on "mineral waters." They may contain certain salts, minerals, odors, tastes, and colors, either originally or by adulteration, but for five or ten cents your druggist will give you enough salts and minerals to make a barrel of "mineral water." Ninety-nine per cent of the so-called "mineral waters" are a hoax—a snare and a delusion. What put these "mineral" of which you know little, into your body, of which you know less? The chief virtue of such water's rest in the fact that these "minerals" are usually harmless, and people drink so much of this water that their systems are flushed out and cleaned and they feel good. That is perfectly natural. They would have felt equally good—or better—if they had drunk an equal amount of any pure water, and would have avoided the taste and expense. Man in his ingenuity has added many things to water, but as a rule these additions are useless if not harmful. No drink ever devised by man is more effective for the slaking of thirst than pure water.

Mrs. Rost A. Freeman, Clifford, Va., says they have long used Foley's Remedies and want to say a good word for them. She writes: "Foley Kidney Pills cured my husband of a long standing kidney trouble, after he had taken other medicines without relief. We would not be without Foley & Co's. medicines in our house for many times their cost." Saunders & Fowden.
