ALL THEY WANTED WAS PIE LIGHT VOTE POLLED

Something of a Pity That All Labor Troubles Cannot Be Settled as Easily as This.

In the course of some light-hearted comment on the decision of the au-thorities of a woman's college in western Massachusetts, to banish pie from the girls' midday meal, the New York Sun recalls the following incident of an earlier day in a neighboring region:

Some twenty years ago a New York contractor was employed to build a fine country house in the Berkshire hills. The laborers, who were recruited from the neighboring villages, were boarded at near-by farmhouses. Be fore long they all went out on strike. The superintendent in charge was powerless. The contractor hurriedly took an express train for the Berk shires, and on arriving, immediately demanded an interview with the leaders of the strike.

"What's the matter," he demanded. "What's your grievance?"

"We're underfed," said the spokes man. "You can't expect us to work on empty stomachs. The company has got us here. It ought to see that we are decently fed."

"The company pays enough to have you properly fed," said the builder. What is the trouble?"

"We don't get pie but once a day," said the spokesman. "Abominable!" agreed the builder. "You shall have pie three times a And they did, and there was day. an end of that strike .-- Youth's Companion.

STATE PRIMARIES-UNDER-WOOD AND WILSON THOUGHT TO BREAK ABOUT EVEN.

MR. CRAIG IS NOT OPPOSED

Representative Gudger Defeated in His Own County By Reynolds But May Carry District-County Tickets Were Voted For in Some Countles.

Charlotte. - In a number of count les throughout the state primaries were held for the election of delegates to the county conventions to be held later, at which time delegates will be elected to the state convention. In other counties, notably Mecklenburg, Iredel, Cleveland and Rowan, county tickets wers voted for.

In the tenth congressional district the Democrats registered a choice for Congress, in which the Hon. J. M. Gudger, the present representative, was opposed by Solicitor R. R. Rey-nolds. Both men are from Buncombe county. Returns are meager, but it seems that the race is a close one. Reynolds swept his home county (Buncombe), while Gudger is claim ing everything in Rutherford. It will, perhaps, not be definitely known who has received the nomination until the meeting of the district convention. Fof state officers Locke Craig dia not have any opposition for Governor, neither did J. Bryan Grimes, secretary of state. B. R. Lacy, Treasurer, W. P. Wood, Auditor, T. W. Bickett, Attorney General, James R. Young, Insurance Commissioner of Agricul-ture. M. L. Shipman, Commissioner of Labor and Printing or Justices Hoke and Brown of the Supreme Court. For Lieutenant Governor, an office that is generally not much sought after, there is a multiplicity of candidates. E. L. Daughtridge of Edge-combe, John G. Shaw, of Cumberland, Walter E. Daniel of Halifax and J. D. Boushall of Wake are the announced candidates. For Corporation Commissioners, two are to be selected, one to succeed E. L. Travis, who is serving under appointment of Gov. Kitchin, and who wants to succeed himself, and the long term now held by Franklin Mc-Neill, who is not a candidate for reelection.

Deplorable Shooting Affair.

Laurinburg .- A deplorable shooting affair occurred near here a few days go in the road near the Springfield cotton mill. Deputy Sheriff Smith had a warrant for one John Prevatte and was in search of him. Hearing a man coming up the road firing shots and thinking he was the man wanted, Mr. Smith went out to meet him accompanied 💕 three other men. One of the men thinking it was Prevatte, took hold of him telling him that he was under arrest. The man jerked away and ran, Smith following. The deputy claims that he slipped and fell when his pistol went off, the ball entering the neck of the fleeing man. Then it was found that the wrong man

LESSON FOR MAY 26.

TRUTHFULNESS.

LESSON TEXT-Matt. 5:33-87; James 8:

GOLDEN TEXT-"Putting away false-hood, speak ye truth each man with his neighbor; for we are members one of another."-Eph. 4:25.

In this lesson Jesus makes a still further application, or rather gives us another illustration of the righteous ness of his new kingdom, which must be greater than that taught by the Pharisees. We have studied the sacred relations of the righteous life. now we are to consider the matter of truth. We have first a paragraph from Jesus, then an ethical teaching and application from the writings of James the apostle.

Under the old law men swore by heaven which is God's throne, by the earth which is his footstool, by Jerusalem which was his peculiar chosen city. They swore by the head and yet they could not change one hair white or black. Jesus coatrasts all of this with his new kingdom in which absolute simple veracity in our speech is all that is to be required. This makes all oaths profane. When men live in these new relations, with this new consciousness of God they will speak the truth naturally and of necessity. To such there will be no need for any form of speech or oath, for the simplest, plainest speech will be the only necessary and the altogether satisfactory medium of giving and of creating assurance. How about oaths in court? Jesus is speaking to the members of his new kingdom. Between them yea and nay is sufficient, but as between them and others we must adjust ourselves and therefore we do not read into this any admonition not to take an oath in court.

Should Be Swift to Hear. "Be not many teachers." We now turn to a paragraph from the Epistle of James which has its peculiar value and interest as showing the difficulty of mastering the tongue. In the church of Christ there must of necessity be a great many more disciples (learners) than teachers. Every man should be swift to hear, but the posttion of teacher carries with it such a burden of responsibility that no one should audaciously asssume it, see Eph. 4:11. etc. With this responsibility is also a correspondingly heavier judgment if we stumble. He that stumbles not in teaching, in the use of his tongue, is indeed a perfect man and one that is able to bridle the whole body; to guide the ship of life, of state, and of the church, amidst the flercest storms.

"The tongue is a fire." It is indeed for it inflames with anger the whole body, the family, society and the nation. History is ablaze with the conflagrations that are a consequence of untimely words and of unbridled tongues, Prov. 15:1, etc. The tongue giving utterance to the thoughts of the heart (for out of the abundance of the heart it speaks), will inflame lust, wither purity and consume strength. It fires jealousy and burns the sweet bonds of friendship. It will sever the ties of home, burn away the foundations of character, of commercial integrity, social purity and destroy the bonds of civic righteousness. It is

PHYSICIAN ADVISES CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Four years ago I had places break out on my wrist and on my shin which would itch and burn by spells, and scratching them would not seem to give any relief. When the trouble first began, my wrist and shin itched like poison. I would scratch those places until they would bleed before I could get any relief. Afterwards the places would scale over, and the flesh underneath would look red and feverish. Sometimes it would begin to itch until it would waken me from my sleep, and I would have to go through the scratching ordeal again.

Our physician pronounced it "dry eczema." I used an ointment which the doctor gave me, but it did no good. Then he advised me to try the Cuticura Remedies. As this trouble has been in our family for years, and is considered hereditary, I felt anxious to try to head it off. I got the Cuticura Soap. Ointment and Pills, and they seemed to be just what I needed. "The disease was making great headway on my system until I got

HEALTH FOR THE CHILD.

The careful mother, watching clo the physical peculiarities of her children, soon learns that health is in a great measure dependent upon normal, healthy, regular bowel action. When the bowels are inactive, loss of appetite, restlessness during sleep, irritability and a dozen and one similar evidences of physical disorder are soon apparent.

Keep the bowels free and clear and good health is assured. At the first ign of constipation give the child a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at bed-time and repeat the dose the following night, if necessary. You will find the child will quickly reover its accustomed good spirits, and at and sleep normally.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is far preferable to salts, cathartics and purgative waters which are harsh in their action. Syrup Pepsin acts on the bowels easily and naturally, yet positively, and causes no griping or discomfort. Its tonic properties build up the stomach, liver and bowels, restoring their normal condition. Druggists everywhere sell Dr. Caldell's Syrup Pepsin in 50c and $1.00 bottles. If you have never tried this remedy, send for a sample to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 201 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. He will gladly send a trial bottle without any expense to you whatever.

"The fires of hell are A. Torrey: kindled by idle words that set men thinking wrong about God and sin and Christ and the Bible. Men usually careful in handling fire are careless about the tongue. Whence come the words that inflame the imagination and the passions? Whence come the words that undermine faith and the credibility of the Bible? If any man question James' words that 'the tongue can no man tame' he has evidently never tried it himself." This does not mean, however, that the tongue can not be tamed, for what is impossible with man is possible with God. James draws a frightful picture of the untamed tongue and of its evil consequences

Profane Men Classified.

"These things ought not to be. No more can a fountain yield fresh and salt water at one and the same time, or a fig tree yield olives, than for a Christian to bless God and with the same tongue curse his fellow men. Not only is it unkind but it is un-Christlike. Sarcasm means literally "to tear flesh like dogs," the charioteer's whip tore the flesh, so we use the tongue as a lash, biting the sensitive spirits of men; verily these things "ought not to be." Phillips Brooks said, "Tell me the words a man uses and reproduce his tone of voice and I'll tell what sort of man he is."

It is a literal fact that the truthful man is he who usually exemplifies all other virtues and we cannot emphasize too strongly that no gentleman swears. Profane men are of three classes; those who are thoughtless, those who are ignorant of language and have a paucity of expres sions at their command, and those who use profanity to emphasize a lie. and generally the greater the lie the more and stronger the oaths. We must not forget, however, that by our salence we may bear false witness and that a positive obligation rests upor us to speak words of praise.
