—Ain't you going tonight?

Rub-My-Tism will cure you.

—Summer begins today.

—Base ball Monday and Tuesday.

—The town is in the weed business.

Watch Jordan and Moore eat 'em alive on the infield. They can do it.

Rub-My-Tism will cure you.

—See three finger Brown, twirler for the Giants Monday.

—Doc Ward, the spit-ball demon will operate on Aurora Tuesday.

—Automobiles have the town and soon the country will be on the high speed.

—Services at the Baptist, Methodist and Christian Churches on Sunday.

—Aurora will play here Monday and Tuesday.

—S. R. Biggs is preparing a garage in the Leggett block on Brogden Street.

—See Dave Taylor pull 'em out out of the clouds on first Monday and Tuesday for the Giants.

—The usual barbecue was pulled off last Friday at the mill despite the very unpleasant day.

—S. R. Biggs has just received another car load of Buick automobiles. A ride in the "43" will make a fellow consult his bank book.

—Aurora has the best baseball team in the Eastern part of the State—excepting ours—come and see for yourself.

—There will be services at the Slade School House Sunday at 3 o'clock. Text: "They would not come." The public is invited. —J. L. Cherry.

5 or 6 doses 666 will break any case of Chills & Fever; it acts on the liver better than Calomel, and does not gripe or sicken 25c.

—The electric company will install a fan in your house and render the air cool and fragrant. Consult the electrician or the manager.

—Miss Francis Knight was at home Wednesday evening in honor of her house guest, Miss Velma Blount, of Bethel. Delicious cream and cake were served.

—What about the tobacco market this season? The Greenville market opens on August 15th, according to a recent decision of the Tobacco Board of Trade.

—From cool to warm weather was an easy jump this week and people suffered by the sudden change. The mercury was 94 in the shade on Sunday and the humidity was great, but cotton is growing and also grass.

—The presentation of "Dante's Inferno" on Monday night was witnessed by a good crowd despite the extremely hot weather. The pictures were too real for the nervous but enjoyable from the standpoint of design and execution. The reels were the most expensive which have been shown by the theatre since its opening.

—The Shriners who returned from Asheville are wearing happy smiles because they were not made to do ridiculous "stunts." Only the South Carolina candidates were given street work in that line. The meeting next year will be held in Charleston, S. C.

—The ladies of the Aid Society of the Christian Church gave an ice cream supper at the Masonic Hall on Tuesday night and made a splendid success of it. There was a large crowd present and a proper appreciation of tee good things prepared to eat. The amount taken in approximated $38.00. "The Goose Girl" amused the younger set and dimes galore went in the bill of the goose and in turn packages of delicious home-made candies were given.

—North Carolina has nothing greater to offer to the women than the course of instruction at the Normal and Industrial Institute. Read ad and write for information.

—Manning & Codard, who are proprietors of the Biggs Farm near Skewarkey, seem to be headquarters for beef cattle. They are besieged by buyers, and cannot supply the demand. Their success shows what can be done in the cattle business and farmers with good pasture lands should start in stock raising.

—Haywood Knight has received the distinction of Fellow Chemist at the State University. He has been assistant in the Chemical Department for the past year and this new honor will increase his salary and be another step upward in the work that he has undertaken.

—In another column appears the annual announcement of the Agricultural and Mechanical College. This College is doing a splendid work for the industries of the State. Its graduates are in demand at good salaries and are found in all walks of industrial life. Young men who desire to fit themselves for useful and remunerative service cannot do better than inform themselves about this College.

I. Inquire about Col. Bingham's offer of a FREE ROUND TRIP TICKET TO ASHEVILLE.

II. The courses offered at Bingham aggregate 25 more "UNITS" and average 9.5 more "UNITS" than in any other school of any grade in N. C., according to the Jan. 1911 "Bulletin" by Prof. Walker, of the University.

III. Bingham's graduates rank with the VERY BEST at all the colleges they attend, North and South, and at West Point and Annapolis.

U. S. ARMY OFFICER DETAILLED as "Prof. of Military Science and Tactics."

Eeds Hunt for Rich Girl

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they prompt. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at Saunders & Fowden.

The North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts

The State's Industrial College
Four year courses in Agriculture; in Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering; in Industrial Chemistry; in Cotton Manufacturing and Dyeing. Two-year courses in Mechanic Arts and in Textile Art. One-year and Two-year courses in Agriculture. These courses are both practical and scientific. Examinations for admission are held by the County Superintendent at all county seats on July 11th. For Catalog address
THE REGISTRAR,
West Raleigh, N. C.

Some one left an article on our desk which stated that there is a big demand for peanut butter. Suffolk is a fine town for the manufacture of the product from Martin County peanuts, so the shipping will begin in earnest when harvest time comes.

Makes The Nation Gasp

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25 cts at Saunders & Fowden.

Move on Now!

says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. Ring's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25c at Saunders & Fowden.
