Deplores the Situation

Buttonwillow, Cal., Aug. 29, 1912.
Editor, ENTERPRISE,
Dear Sir:—

It is with unspeakable horror that I read in your columns of Aug. 16th. of the terrible tragedy in which my father was so unfortunate as to be the principal figure.

Your editorial which appeared in the same issue, gave me a great deal of relief—it was tempered with kindness and sympathy for those who are now suffering for the misdeeds of others, and it was a bull's eye score delivered in no uncertain manner at the ones actually responsible for the act of my father, who had to take a life to save his own. Without a doubt, they are the mercenary, gold-grabbing, law-defying "human hogs" (apologize to the hogs) that infest Williamston and raise a stench with their "blind tigers" which reaches to heaven. They live and grow fat on the money that was the price of somebody's blood and immortal soul; they live and move in respectable circles, and the sniveling, cold-blooded devils use even the Church to cloak their sins and make them appear respectable. Yet how many of them are willing to heed the cry of the widow and orphan for bread?

This is history repeating itself and is another tragedy added to those already committed in Martin County, and it would take the fingers of two pairs of hands to count them. Little did I think that the far-reaching influence of whiskey would ever so directly effect my home and the ones that I love, although it is long since I learned that it is no respecter of persons.

How long are you law-abiding, christian men and women of Martin County going to allow these "blind tigers" to run at large? Bengals are deadly to the body, but they destroy the soul also. Would to God that the vote was in the hands of the women of the South for then these "blind tigers" would have to change tactics.

You have laws against the sale of liquor and you have officials sworn to enforce the law and the people of Martin County should see that the laws are enforced. They should blot out this nefarious business which makes it necessary for old grey-haired men to use powder and ball to protect their lives and those dependant upon them.

Please publish this as an "open letter" in the next issue of THE ENTERPRISE, and oblige.
Yours for Better Government,
Jesse S. Whitley.

T. L. Parks, Murrayville, Ga., Route 1, is in his 73rd year, and was recently cured of a bad kidney and bladder trouble. He says himself: "I have suffered with my kidneys. My back ached and I was annoyed with bladder irregularities. I can truthfully say, one 50c bottle of Foley Kidney Pills cured me entirely." They contain no habit forming drugs. —Saunders and Fowden.

WE GUARANTEE a good position to every teacher who completes her preparation at Littleton College. We have scholarships for young women desiring preparation to teach who are without sufficient means. Mrs. J. N. Hill, Homer, Ga., has used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for years, and says she always recommends it to her friends. "It never fails to cure our coughs and colds and prevents croup. We have five children and always give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for a cold, and they are all soon well. We would not be without it in our house." Saunders & Fowden.

Buried Sunday Morning

Sunday morning at nine o'clock, the funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church by the pastor, Rev. Rufus Bradley. The interment was in the Baptist cemetery. Among the out-of-town relatives here to attend the funeral were, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Roberson, Jr., and daughter, of Robersonville, Mrs. M. O. Blount and Miss Velma Blount, of Bethel, Miss Allie G. Little and W. J. Little, of Robersonville, Mrs. Fleming, of Pitt County, and Ferdinand Gator, of Oriental.

The active pall-bearers were: S. A. Newell, T. J. Smith, A. D. Mizell, F. K. Hodges, J. W. Anderson and W. C. Manning.

A Menace to Wilson

Among the thirty Senators whose terms expire next fourth of March, the one Democrat who conspicuously deserves defeat (next to Bailey of Texas, who saw the handwriting and declined to entrust his reputation to a campaign) is Simmons of North Carolina. If the Democrats of the nation realized how much their brightly dawning day of fortune is menaced by such a man as Simmons, they would unite in a petition to their fellow party men in North Carolina to keep this locust away from Washington. If Wilson is elected and Simmons is returned, he will be to Wilson's Administration what Gorman of Maryland and Smith of New Jersey were to Cleveland's — Collier's Weekly.

$80,000.00 Lost Annually By Wage Earners

Dr. Sadler estimates that about $80,000,000.00 in wages is lost annually to the American people as a direct result of colds. Lost time means lost wages and doctoring is expensive. Use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly. It will stop the cough, and heal and soothe the sore and inflamed air passages. Saunders & Fowden.

SPICED GRAPES

7 lbs. grapes, 3 1/2 lbs. sugar, 2 oz. cinnamon ground, 1 oz. powdered cloves, 1 cup strong vinegar. Remove the skins and boil the pulp and strain out the seeds. Tie the spices in a cheese cloth bag so they can be removed. Mix all together and cook until thick as marmalade, which will take about an hour and a half. When done turn into jelly glasses. —This is good with roast meats. —Mary Ronald's Century Cook Book.

A LIVER MEDICINE THAT BEATS CALOMEL

Dodson's Liver Tone Does the Same Work as Calomel without Making you Sick. It is Vegetable-tastes good and Never Fails

Everybody who has ever taken calomel knows what a strong drug it is. Calomel spurs the tired liver as if it were a tired horse, and while the liver works harder for a little while, it is soon weaker than ever.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a vegetable tonic that gently induces the most sluggish liver to work. Taking it is followed by no bad after-effects. No restriction of habit or diet necessary. For either children or grown people.

Saunders & Fowden sells a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for fifty cents and guarantee it to be a perfect substitute for calomel and will give you your money back if it disappoints you.

In Honor of Bride

The first of the early autumn social events was the elegant reception on Friday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Martin in honor of their son, Wheeler Martin, Jr., and his bride formerly Miss Louie Poteat, of Wake Forest college. The Martin residence, which is one of the handsomest in town was decorated for the evening with choice flowers, and beautiful candelabra of silver and gold were stationed in the rooms, making a soft glow over the happy scene.

The arriving guests were met at the door by Mrs. Carrie Biggs Williams and Mrs. Cushing Biggs Hassell, who greeted them and presented them to the receiving line which was stationed in the drawing room.

Those who received were Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Martin, Jr., Mrs. Asa T. Crawford and Mr. Harry Biggs, Mrs. Charles Davis, of Norfolk, Va., with Mr. Burras A. Critcher, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dunning and Dr. and Mrs. John D. Biggs.

After the guests had left the receiving line they were taken in charge by Mrs. W. H. Crawford and Mrs. Henry Cook who took them to the dining room, where a most delightful menu was served. Miss Fannie Biggs Martin and Miss Fannie Manning carried them from the dining room to the punch room, where punch was served by Miss Irene Smith and Clayton Moore, Miss Clara Jones and Jack Biggs.

Miss Mattie Waters had charge of the gift room, and the people of Williamston have never seen a more beautiful display of wedding gifts than those which have been given to Mrs. Wheeler Martin, Jr. Mrs. Martin, as Miss Poteat, of Wake Forest, was a very popular young woman with a large number of people throughout the South, not only because of her distinguished family, but for own self. She has been very warmly welcomed to Williamston.

The receiving hours were from eight to eleven and many called during the time. The reception was one of the most splendid events in Williamston society. The people of Williamston were delighted to meet and welcome Mrs. Martin to her new home.

Antoine Deloria, Postmaster at Garden, Mich., knows the exact facts speaks of the curative value of Foley Kidney Pills. He says: "From my own experience I recommend Foley Kidney Pills, as a great remedy for kidney trouble. My father was cured of kidney disease and good many of my neighbors were cured by Foley Kidney Pills." —Saunders and Fowden.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks for the kindness of friends during the sickness and at the death of my husband. In my heart, through all the years, will the love and sympathy of this people live alike with the memory of him who shared the kindnesses with me. Also, I would give added thanks for the beautiful floral offerings so expressive of the thoughts that filled the soul of the giver.

Mrs. Louis C. Harrison.

A really effective kidney and bladder medicine must stop the progress of the disease and then cure the conditions that cause it. Use Foley Kidney Pills for all kidney and bladder troubles and urinary irregularities. They are safe and reliable. They help quickly and permanently. In the yellow package. Saunders & Fowden.

Prof. D. W. Milan, of Atlanta, Ga., a noted composer and song writer, who is assisting Dr. J. J. Taylor, of Lexington, Ky., in the meetings being held in the Christian Church at Robersonville. Great interest is manifested. Large chorus choir.

Died in Tarboro

(Contributed)

Fannie Bland was born in 1894 and died September 6th 1912. She was the daughter of Billie Bland who formerly lived near Cross Roads in Martin County. Bro. Bland moved to Tarboro last winter and Fannie died there and was brought to Joe Coburn's and buried there in the presence of many friends and relatives. Fannie became a Christian about three years ago, and was a faithful member of Christian Chapel until her death. Rev. S. W. Summerell conducted the funeral services.

Record Making Sales

The tobacco warehouses here are selling the golden leaf so bountifully produced in this section this season. The warehousemen are busy at both the Dixie and Roanoke, and the prices are soaring amid the clouds. The taking of sand lugs at high prices is one of the marvels of the trade on the Williamston market. The tobacco men here are in the business for a record-breaking year, and with the floors crowded, the mark will be reached. This market is on the rush and is hard to beat.

Kitchin for the Senate

We shall support Governor Kitchin because we believe he will best represent the progressive, militant Democracy of this State, and because of his ability, experience, and loyalty to the principles of his party, which demand equal and exact justice to all people. As a young man he withstood the temptations and pitfalls of Washington, and in his mature years he will not forsake the cause of the people.

The lamented Aycock was known as the Educational Governor, Glean is known as the Prohibition Governor, and Kitchin should be known as the Progressive Governor, because the State has made more progress in almost every line during his administration than in any like period in its whole history. —The Clayton News.

U. A. Smith, Bridgeton, Ind., had kidney trouble for years, and so crippled with rheumatism he could not dress without help. He started using Foley Kidney Pills, and says: "I began to get better at once, and now all my trouble has left me and I do not feel that I ever had rheumatism. I rest well all night and tho' 59 years old can now do the work of a man of 35 years. I would like to be the means of others getting benefit from Foley Kidney Pills." Refuse substitutes Saunders & Fowden.

Grading Road

Work was commenced on the spur track to the river on Monday. W. C. Manning, who contracted to have the grading done, put a large number of women to work to handle the clay. The track will be built solid as other portions of the Coast Line, and the work will go forward as rapidly as possible. The mill is being placed in position with the facility consistent with the securing of material, all of which has to be hauled by teams. The company has a large contract for sugar barrel heads to be delivered in October, and are making every effort to fill the contract.

Governor Kitchin Gaining

It is the general opinion of those who travel in different sections of this state that Mr. Kitchin is gaining ground every day. The fact that all the near republican papers, and the former luke warm democrats papers are having fits and pushing Senator Simmons to the front and are bolstering him up as best they can, only adds confirmation to the charges that he has left his first principles and gone over to the special interests. The only thing that Senator Simmons has left to identify him with the grand old party and the principles of Vance and Jarvis, is his party service of twelve years ago, and he has been repaid for this by having been honored with two terms as senator.

As Mr. Bryan says, the day has come when North Carolina can no longer follow Senator Simmons, and the handwriting is already tracing his sentence on the wall. —The Durham Sun.

In reporting the vote for the candidates for Sheriff at the convention last week, an error was made. Roberson's vote was seventeen and one-half and Crawford's thirty-seven and one-half, and not twenty and thirty-five as reported in last issue.

ORANGE ICE

Boil a quart of water and two and one half cups of sugar for ten minutes; strain and add the juice of six oranges and one lemon. When cold, freeze.

With the beating large for Wilson, the vote in Vermont and the disintegration of the Republican party, signs are might good for a splendid victory in the Nation this year for progressive Democracy.
