—Summer weather has come again.

—Help the Boy Scouts to equip themselves.

—The Board of Education met Monday.

—I will preach at the home of Mr. George Moore Sunday at 3 o'clock.—J. L. Cherry.

—Rev. John R. Matthews, who held a Mission here in April, is in Hamilton this week.

—Miss Mattie Curganus, the oldest daughter of Eli Curganus, is studying art in the Maryland Institute, Baltimore. She has always shown marked genius for drawing and painting.

—Mr. Carlton Liverman and family, of Anlander, have moved here and are occupying the Harrison residence on upper Houghton Street. Mr. Liverman has come here to take the position of shipping clerk in the Pants factory.

—WANTED—Clean, white rags not scraps at this office.—THE ENTERPRISE.

—Elder R. F. Bumpas, of the Warrenton Conference, preached here Monday night, and held a business meeting with the official members of the Church after services.

—W. F. Hemby presented an apple to the Editor, which is somewhat a curiosity. It was found in a barrel of fruit and is formed of two distinct apples grown together but hanging from the same stem. Some one very facetiously called it a 'Siamese' apple.

—The construction of the railroad bed to the river will be completed in about three weeks, if conditions are good during that time. The work has progressed rapidly and has been done well—the track making an attractive picture viewed from the curve.

UNION CENTRAL PAYS CLAIMS PROMPTLY

Williamston, N. C. August 31, 1912.

Frank F. Fagan, Agent, Union Central Life Ins. Co. Williamston, N. C.

Dear Sir:

We beg to acknowledge receipt of check for $493.08, being the amount due the estate of our late brother, Mc. H. Leggett, after deducting balance due on premium note.

We desire to congratulate the Union Central on the prompt payment of this death claim. Proof of death was mailed to the Raleigh office on the 16th inst. and you had the check in hand ready to present to us on August 24th. We also desire to commend the Union Central for promptly paying this claim without any contest. Our brother had allowed his policy to lapse and he died before the health certificate reached the home office. He was insured in several other companies but the Union Central was the first to make settlement of the claim.

Very respectfully,
 JESSIE B. LEGGETT,
 JOHN B. LEGGETT,
 Admins of Mc. H. Leggett
