LOCAL ITEMS

All notices published in this column, where revenue is to be derived, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents a line, (count six words to a line), each issue. Special rate will be made on long contracts.

—WANTED—Clean, white rags not scraps at this office.—THE ENTERPRISE.

—Vote early Tuesday morning and then see that your neighbor votes.

—Today is all Saints' Day according to the calendar.

—Election day Tuesday from sunrise to sunset.

—Bishop Robert Strange will preach both morning and night in the Episcopal Church Sunday. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

—The quail law is out today and for the woods and fields with dogs and guns.

—Sunday closed the pastorate of Rev. J. T. Rightsell, who for a year has been pastor of the Christian Church here.

—The Graded School pupils had holiday on circus day.

—Services at the Baptist and Methodist Churches on Sunday.

—There will be a baptismal service at the Episcopal Church immediately after Sunday School Sunday morning.

—John L. Rodgers is preparing to have a residence erected on his lot on upper Main Street.

—The grading at the railroad crossing on the main street leading to East Williamston, is imperfect and so a bit unsafe for motor cars at present.

—Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. E. Rightsell immersed several candidates for baptism in the pool at the Baptist Church, which was kindly loaned to the Christian Church for that purpose.

—Tuesday is a National holiday as well as election day and the banks here will close.

—Dave Sherrod, an inmate of the County Home, was killed on the Plymouth branch of the A. C. L. R. R. near here on Wednesday by the five o'clock train. The unfortunate man had wandered down the road and was sitting on the edge of a cattle guard. The engineer failed to discover him until too late to stop, but blew the whistle to warn him. Being weak of mind, he arose and instead of getting off, deliberately walked across the track in front of the engine. He was killed instantly and one leg was cut off. The conductor brought his body here and notified the proper authorities.

University Happenings

The first meeting of the year of the Chemical Journal Club of the University was held this week in Chemistry Hall.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. C. H. Herty, who gave an account of the 18th International Congress of Applied Science at Washington and New York.

Dr. Herty's lecture was followed by the presentation of brief resumes by Burke Haywood Knight and William L. Jeffreys of two of the papers presented before that congress at its national meeting.—Greenboro News.

Huntsville, Ala. W. C. Pollard, a well known citizen, says.—"I have used Foley's Honey & Tar Compound and found it a most excellent preparation. In fact, it suits my case better than any cough syrup I have ever used and I have used a good many, for I am now over seventy years old." Saunders & Fowden.

PERSONAL BRIEFS

Messrs. J. G. Staton and W. C. Manning have been in Wilmington this week on business.

Mrs. James G. Staton left Monday for Charlotte where she will attend the Missionary Council of the Southern Diocese which assembled there Tuesday.

Mrs. F. W. Hoyt has been in Washington this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Sawyer and children, of Windsor, motored here Sunday afternoon and spent several hours with their cousin, Mrs. Wheeler Martin, Jr.

Miss Della Ray and mother are at home after several months visit to Norfolk.

J. Davis Reed, of Portsmouth, has been in town this week on business.

Death of an Infant

Lucy Isoline, infant daughter of John Hopkins and his wife Annie M. died Sunday morning at the early age of three months and twenty days, she was a bright precious child, the idol of the home, and it was sad to have to part with the little darling so early after its entrance into the household where it had so graciously endeared itself. But God knows best, and He gathered the bright little bud and took it to his own garden, where He Himself may watch over it, till it shall bloom and blossom into rich perfection. The funeral exercises were conducted from the home on Monday afternoon by Rev. Geo. J. Dowell, and the little white casket containing the dear little body was deposited in the Hopkins cemetery, where it will sleep in undisturbed repose until Jesus shall call for it on the morning of the resurrection. The parents have the sympathy of many friends who were present to sympathize with them, in the loss of their child.

Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee. Twinges of rheumatism, backache, stiff joints and shooting pains all show your kidneys are not working right. Urinary irregularities, loss of sleep, nervousness, weak back and sore kidneys tell the need of a good reliable kidney medicine. Foley's Kidney Pills are tonic, strengthening and restorative. They build up the kidneys and regulate their action. They will give you quick relief and contain no habit forming drugs. Safe and always sure. Try them. Saunders & Fowden.

Hurt by Engine

Mr. Eli Rodgers, of Bear Grass Township, was painfully hurt on Tuesday morning by becoming entangled in the shaft of a gasoline engine which was being used to run a peanut picker. Dr. J. H. Saunders was summoned and found the unfortunate man suffering intensely from his bruises and lacerated arm. It seems that the clothing of Mr. Rodgers was caught in the shafting and he was thrown around and thus received his injuries. The engine was stopped as soon as possible and the injured man removed to his home.

"Tells the Whole Story." To say that Foley's Honey & Tar Compound is best for children and grown persons and contains no opiates tells only part of the tale. The whole story is that it is the best medicine for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and other affections of the throat, chest and lungs. Stops la grippe, coughs and has a healing and soothing effect. Remember the name, Foley's Honey & Tar Compound, and accept no substitutes. Saunders & Fowden.

Mr. Bond of Edenton

The appearance here of W. M. Bond, of Edenton, on Tuesday night, was awaited with interest by both the friends of Senator Simmons and Gov. Kitchin. Mr. Bond, of Edenton, who is one of the foremost lawyers in the East and a man of splendid character, has been advocating the candidacy of Senator Simmons in many places in the State. He was here by invitation of Simmons' friends who were asked to divide time with Albion Dunn, elector for the First District and an advocate of Gov. Kitchin, but the request was denied.

The speech of Mr. Bond, of Edenton, would have done well to have been delivered before an audience who was not in the least versed in ancient history, and incidentally in the historic events connected with Edenton, where Mr. Bond was reared. One caught a glimpse of Columbus, the Duke of Wellington, Mrs. Surraut, "Maryann" Butler, the Third Party and the sainted dead whose quiet repose has made Edenton soil the Westminster of the Western World. His audience was an intelligent one, and probably had learned all those things in history in the common schools of North Carolina. What every one wanted, and failed to get, was an explanation of why Senator Simmons had voted with the Republicans so often. The Kitchin adherents, who are fair-minded, were anxious to hear both sides of the great question agitating the entire State. They heard only a slight reference to Mr. Simmons' attitude on the questions which have been uppermost in the minds of the Nation within the last four years. Instead he attempted to fix in the hearts of his hearers that Mr. Kitchin had never done a thing in all his life but eat at a free lunch counter, had sought to keep the beel of the negroes on the necks of the white people of the East. To this latter charge, he returned repeatedly, so that it became laughable to those who had known all about the conditions of things in the trying time of Fasion rule. He abused Collier's Weekly, but failed to mention the fact that William J. Bryan had said time and time again that Mr. Simmons was not the man to represent the great State of North Carolina. This and other important things in the campaign now waging, were passed silently, by the man, who himself aspired to sit at the free lunch counter, as he refers to any office held by Honorable W. W. Kitchin, Governor of North Carolina, but found that he was not Bond enough to put the Small man out of business.

The speech was a disappointment to the friends of Senator Simmons, who had hoped to hear his course ably defended. It made friends stronger for the Governor, who in his address here several weeks ago, spoke intelligently of his candidacy against Senator Simmons.

J. K. Cotton, 1303 No. Market St., says.—"I heard of Foley's Kidney Pills and took them for my case of kidney trouble. After taking them a few days the pain left my back, my kidneys acted regularly and the annoying bladder trouble was cured. I gladly recommend Foley's Kidney Pills." Saunders & Fowden.

Dau J. Joyce, Sanville, Henry Co., Virginia, says.—"I took a cold with a cough which hung on for two years. Then I commenced using Foley's Honey & Tar Compound and the cough finally left me and now I am perfectly strong and well." Is best and safest for children and contains no opiates. Saunders & Fowden.

Help Save the Country

On Tuesday next, the fate of the Nation for the next four years will be decided at the polls. The freemen of these United States will then decide whether they shall wear longer the yoke of oppression placed upon their necks by the high tariff Republican party, and which has grown more oppressive with each administration. Shall we be the puppets of the money trust and unquitting tariff leaders, who are just lining their own nests with the small earnings of the masses, which go to purchase the common necessities of life at fabulous prices, or shall we throw off the burden of Republicanism and help the people to rule? This decision can be made at the polls on Tuesday by every voter in this wide land.

Woodrow Wilson stands for the rule of the masses, for freedom from burdensome taxation which enrich the rich and impoverish the laborer. He is leader of pure Democracy, the very essence of which makes for the rule of the people and overthrow of the money powers which are dominating the country making us slaves to do their bidding. A vote for Woodrow Wilson and Thomas Marshall will be a protest against the slavery of the masses. It is the duty of every North Carolina Democrat to work and vote early for the man who alone stands for a government of and by the people. The signs all point to the election of our National ticket, but even in defeat it is good to feel that you stood for the honor and integrity of your country. Tomorrow is Wilson Day. Remember to do your best and be ready for the opening of the polls at sunrise Tuesday morning.

Some Good Tobacco

On Friday last, Garrett & Staton sold on the Dixie Warehouse floor, one barn of tobacco less 300 pounds it being the fourth curing. This sale netted $348.81. Mr. Garrett has made some of the best sales on the market here this season. The loss of one barn by fire cut his margin in profits greatly, but with all that he has made splendid success. First because he knows how to cultivate, cure and care for the weed, and second because he sold on the home market at the Dixie. It is always best to handle your crop at home.

A Mitchell, a general merchant near Bigdad, Ky., writes us:—"I think Foley's Kidney Pills one of the greatest kidney medicines there is. My daughter was in terrible shape with kidney trouble and I got her to take it. She is completely cured now. I think it one of the greatest medicines made." Saunders & Fowden.

Tomorrow is Woodrow Wilson Day. Let every man in Martin County and in North Carolina, who desires the rule of the people do some thing to aid the election of the Democratic nominee for president. It is a critical period in the history of this great Nation. Work and vote for Wilson and Marshall.

Notice of Sale

By virtue of power of sale contained in a certain mortgage executed by J. E. Moore to the undersigned, as mortgagee and bearing the date of the 29th day of November 1910 to secure the payment of a certain bond of even date and time therewith, and the stipulations of the said mortgage not having been complied with.

I will, on Monday the 11th day of November 1912, at the Court House door of Martin County, Williamston, N. C., offer at public sale to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described land to-wit: Situated on a corner of new-town street adjoining the lands of Windsor Alexander, J. B. Davis and others and known as the Joley Moore lot.
This the 11th day of October 1912.
ELIZABETH ALEXANDER
Mortgagee.

To the Tobacco Farmers

If you will grade your own tobacco and then sell with us you will get the highest price for every pound of it. Redmond Harrison has just finished selling his crop with us, as he has done for the past 8 years. Buyers from other markets offered him $175.00 for three acres. We sold it on our warehouse floor for $431.18. This alone will show to the farmers the wisdom of grading their own crops. Daney Taylor offered to sell his crop of 6 acres for $600.00. We advised him to grade it and to sell with us. He did and we sold it for $1,100.00. Samuel Rodgers graded his crop and sold off of 6 acres $1,515.80 worth of tobacco. J. H. Wynn sold his last curing with us last Friday—950 lbs. which averaged $35.76 per hundred. Be wise, farmers, and come to see us.

Adkins & Bailey,
Robersonville, N. C.

The Peril of Special Privilege

The way to defeat the conspiracy of special privilege is to vote for Governor W. W. Kitchin in the Senatorial primary. If the special privilege classes can succeed in getting enough Democratic reactionaries in the Senate to hold the balance of power as they did when Grover Cleveland was President, there will be no relief for the people and the cost of living will continue to advance until all farmers and workers will find themselves slaves used to build up fabulous wealth for the few manipulators of government.—The Scottish Chief.

Kitchin on the Press

In his speech at Albemarle, N. C., on Oct. 16, 1912, in behalf of his candidacy for the Senate, Governor Kitchin made the following reference to the attitude of the State press.

"While a number of the big daily papers of the state are bitterly opposing me in the senatorial campaign, I am gratified to note the constantly increasing support I am receiving from the county and local papers which are closest to the hearts and home of the people. I am standing for the people in this fight and I gratefully acknowledge my appreciation of the cordial co-operation I am receiving from so many of the newspapers of the people. I am inclined to think more of these papers are now supporting me than any other candidate; at least I have a most generous share. The purest patriotism and the truest democracy are not to be found in the city haunts of "big business," but on the farm and in the villages where men live in the open and are in closer sympathetic touch with their fellowmen."—Durham Sun.

DODSON'S LIVER-TONE INSTEAD OF CALOMEL

Just as Sure—Always Safe—No Effects Ever Follow this Pleasant Tasting Liquid

As a remedy for a torpid liver calomel has more than met its match in Dodson's Liver-Tone. It does not the liver on to perform its work at the cost of its strength.

Calomel depends for its power upon exciting the liver to do more work, and often the liver is too weak to stand such treatment, and you are worse off than before.

Dodson's Liver-Tone cannot cause any of the dangerous effects that often follow the use of calomel. It is entirely vegetable and pleasant to the taste, and is suitable for children and grown people.

Get a 50c bottle at Saunders & Fowden under the guarantee that if it doesn't satisfy you that it is a perfect substitute for calomel you get your money back.
