Don't let any one influence you not to vote. It is every man's privilege and duty also.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket Tuesday, and your conscience will be clear, for you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you have done all you could for yourself and your neighbor.

Don't be fooled by what some may say, but go right ahead and vote for men who represent progressive Democracy—men who are aligned with Woodrow Wilson. Your vote will help in the fight against the domination of the big interests that are trying to throttle the workingman, and have succeeded to a large measure.

Principles Above Men

Senator Simmons, and his followers, have the right to change their views on public questions, but a defense of his record is a repudiation of the Democratic party's position on those questions since its founding and it is a reactionary sentiment by the party to the U. S. Senate this winter one half the members of this old organization which has been our only refuge will lose confidence in it. It is our duty to think of what effect the election of a man will have upon the party. Principles are above men.—St. Paul Messenger.

August 31, 1912.

Frank F. Fagan, Agent, Union Central Life Ins. Co. Williamston, N. C.

We beg to acknowledge receipt of check for $493.08, being the amount due the estate of our late brother, Mc. H. Leggett, after deducting balance due on premium note.

We desire to congratulate the Union Central on the prompt payment of this death claim. Proof of death was mailed to the Raleigh office on the 16th inst. and you had the check in hand ready to present to us on August 24th. We also desire to commend the Union Central for promptly paying this claim without any contest. Our brother had allowed his policy to lapse and he died before the health certificate reached the home office. He was insured in several other companies but the Union Central was the first to make settlement of the claim.

Very respectfully,
