Resolutions of Respect

In loving memory of John Clayton Robertson, Robertsonville, N. C.

Whereas, our esteemed friend and honored president, John Clayton Robertson, has been taken from among us by that Reaper whose name is Death, thereby bringing sorrow and sadness to all of us and an irreparable loss to his loved ones at home,

We, the committee appointed by the Directors of the Bank of Robersonville to prepare suitable resolutions, do hereby resolve:

1st. That by his death the bank has lost a trusted and efficient officer, and its members a true and loyal friend;

2nd. That, while bowing in humble submission to the infallible decrees of the only wise and omnipotent God who teacheth us that it is appointed unto man once to die, we wish to place upon record an expression of our great grief at the sudden and unexpected departure of our dear friend;

3rd. That we extend our most profound sympathy to his many friends in the commercial world, his brothers, sisters, aged mother, sorrowing wife and daughters and his church;

4th. That we seek to perpetuate his memory by emulating in our lives every characteristic of him that will make our lives better and nobler;

5th. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the bank, and one sent to his family, and that the same be published in some newspaper.

A. S. Roberson,
F. J. Jeffress,
R. A. Bailey,
Committee.

Received Appointment

Mr. Robert H. Salsbury, ex-member of the Board of County Commissioners, has been appointed Director of the Central Hospital at Raleigh, succeeding Dr. John D. Biggs, whose resignation was tendered and accepted. Dr. Biggs was chosen to succeed his father, the late Dawson Biggs, who was for years one of the ablest members of the Board of Directors. The selection of Mr. Salsbury is a wise one, as his interest in the good of his State never flags, and his long service in the public affairs of Martin County is an asset upon which he can draw in discharging the duties of Director of the Hospital.

A Mitchell, a general merchant near Bagdad, Ky., writes us:—"I think Foley Kidney Pills one of the greatest kidney medicines there is. My daughter was in terrible shape with kidney trouble and I got her to take it. She is completely cured now. I think it one of the greatest medicines made." Saunders & Fowden.

Bank of Jamesville

The Directors of the Bank of Jamesville met Tuesday at the banking house in Jamesville. A careful survey of the business of the institution developed the fact the increase of business over that of last year was a hundred percent. This is a fine showing and is highly satisfactory to officers, stockholders and patrons. The institution is a convenient help to Jamesville, and is a credit to the banking business of the State and County of Martin

Huntsville, Ala. W. C. Pollard, a well known citizen, says:—"I have used Foley's Honey & Tar Compound and found it a most excellent preparation. In fact, it suits my case better than any cough syrup I have ever used and I have used a good many, for I am now over seventy years old." Saunders & Fowden.

Our Orphan Home

The Thanksgiving Proclamation of the President, which has just been published to the people of this great country, calling upon us to stop our usual vocations long enough to consider from whence comes the unprecedented prosperity which we as a nation have been enjoying, comes with a voice of authority. Truly every heart can find genuine gratitude to the Great Giver of all good.

While your minds are directed to the consideration of the Source from whence these blessings come, and a feeling of thanksgiving is thereby engendered for the goodness of our Heavenly Father, we feel that this is the best time to bring to the attention of our readers the needs of the various orphan homes in our state, where the little ones who have lost their earthly protectors are being cared for and trained.

These children receive the great blessing of these homes through your generosity. They are dependent upon you. Their numbers are increasing, as are the advantages they receive, which necessitate larger contributions from the people. God has blessed our people and he expects us in turn to help bless our homeless little ones.

Nobly have the people of North Carolina measured up to their duty in this regard in the past, and we believe they will not be any less mindful of the needs of our orphan children this thanksgiving season than they have been in the past.

"Tells the Whole Story." To say that Foley's Honey & Tar Compound is best for children and grown persons and contains no opiates tells only part of the tale. The whole story is that it is the best medicine for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and other affections of the throat, chest and lungs. Stops la grippe, coughs, and has a healing and soothing effect. Remember the name, Foley's Honey & Tar Compound, and accept no substitutes. Saunders & Fowden.

In Memoriam

In sad but loving remembrance of our darling little son, Thomas W. Craigie, who departed this life one year ago today, November 9th, 1911.

God needed one more angel child,
Amidst His shining band,
And so He bent with loving smile
And clasped our darling's hand.
By his loving parents.

Washington, D. C.,
November 9th, 1912.

Dan J. Joyce, Sanville, Henry Co., Virginia, says:—"I took a cold with a cough which hung on for two years. Then I commenced using Foley's Honey & Tar Compound and the cough finally left me and now I am perfectly strong and well." Is best and safest for children and contains no opiates. Saunders & Fowden.

Colored Teachers Meet

On November 9th, 1912, the Colored Teachers' Association of Martin County was called to order in the colored Graded School building by Prof. R. J. Peel, at 1:30 p. m. Having failed to elect officers previously, that was the first work of the session and resulted in the choice of the following: W. C. Chance, President; J. W. Morrissey, Sec'y; Miss Iola Everett, Asst. Sec'y; W. V. Ormond, Treasurer; P. R. Pearce, Sergeant at Arms; Miss Emma E. Andrews, Reporter.

Prof. Peel gave a most helpful and encouraging talk. All who heard him, felt much encouraged for the future of the Association. It was suggested by him that we begin the Reading Circle at once. Several teachers decided to buy individual books. The Association will provide some.

The teachers pledged themselves to bring at least one more to the regular meeting on Dec. 7th, 1912. The Program Committee made the following to be rendered at that meeting: Music, Invocation by Chaplain, Music, Phonics by Miss E. I. Green, Solo by Miss Alice E. Hyman, Primary Arithmetic by W. V. Ormond, Journal, Miss Maggie Jones.

Birthday Party

Quite a number of the little friends and neighbors of Miss Annie Louise Crawford, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. J. C. Crawford, were invited to join her in the celebration of her birthday on November 2nd., at the home of her parents on Haughton Street. Pleasant games were arranged for the little guests and the hours were spent joyously as only young hearts know how to spend. The little hostess was presented with many pretty gifts, which delighted the little girl. Delicious refreshments were served in the dining room where appropriate decorations with candles, were used.

Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee. Twinges of rheumatism, backache, stiff joints and shooting pains all show your kidneys are not working right. Urinary irregularities, loss of sleep, nervousness, weak back and sore kidneys tell the need of a good reliable kidney medicine. Foley Kidney Pills are tonic, strengthening and restorative. They build up the kidneys and regulate their action. They will give you quick relief and contain no habit forming drugs. Safe and always sure. Try them. Saunders & Fowden.

A Good Month of Sales

From reports received at the State Agricultural Department, 22,245,936 pounds of tobacco were sold in North Carolina during October. Greenville leads the sale with 6,064,824 pounds with Winston-Salem a close second. Of the total amount the two markets in Martin County sold 353,559—Robersonville selling 182,232 and Williamston, 171,327 pounds of the weed. The crop has been delivered early to the buyers, and many farmers blundered by rushing their crops to the early sales.

—I will sell you checks for as much $10. for five cents. All over $10. ten cents, either Bank.—J. B. Speller.

J. K. Cotton, 1303 No. Market St., says:—"I heard of Foley Kidney Pills and took them for my case of kidney trouble. After taking them a few days the pain left my back, my kidneys acted regularly and the annoying bladder trouble was cured. I gladly recommend Foley Kidney Pills." Saunders & Fowden.

Corn Exposition

The longest painting ever executed in this country or abroad, according to authentic statements will form a striking feature of the decorations for the educational building at the Fifth National Corn Exposition next January. The canvas for this immense painting will be nearly a sixth of a mile in length, by nine feet wide. It will extend entirely around the big steel building which will house the exhibits from the department of agriculture and the thirty or more states which will enter the Exposition. The canvas will cover about 7,500 square feet of space and 533 pounds of dry paints will be necessary in the execution of the work.

The artist who will transform this material into a mammoth work of art is Mr. E. E. Sprague, of Columbus, Ohio, who executed a somewhat similar, though smaller, piece of work for the Fourth Exposition. Mr. Sprague is now a resident of Columbia and is beginning upon his huge task. The canvas will be divided into thirty or more spaces, into which will be painted landscape scenes typical of the states whose exhibits will be arranged below.

Exhibits of the highest class are being secured for the Exposition, and it is the purpose to place them in an artistic setting of corresponding high quality. Floral decorations will also contribute to this effect.

Birthday Party

Little Miss Elizabeth Hassell, who reached her seventh year on Saturday, November 9th., had a number of her young friends to help her celebrate the event at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Hassell on Haughton Street on the afternoon of the happy day. The little hostess was given many pretty gifts, and these delighted the childish heart that is so full of the joy of living. There were music and games to help fill the hour with merriment, and ices, fruits and cakes were served on the dining table, the center piece of which was aglow with seven candles, while candlebras from which soft lights fell, ornamented the mantel. After leaving the dining room, each guest was given torpedoes, and there was much fun found in exploding them on the front pavement.

Parents Day

Wednesday, November 27th, will be Parents Day at the Graded Schools. All parents and others interested are invited to visit the school and see the work in progress. The Principal urges all parents to come out and see what their children and others are doing. They will be interested themselves and will give children and teachers an incentive for work by thus showing their interest.

A MEDICINE AS GOOD AS YOUR MONEY

Money Promptly Refunded if Dodson's Liver-Tone Fails to take Place of Calomel

The Saunders & Fowden drug store sells Dodson's Liver-Tone as a perfect substitute for calomel. If you try one bottle and find that it not just as sure in its action as calomel and at the same time gentler and without the bad after-effects of calomel, please call and get your money back. It will be given you promptly. Dodson's Liver-Tone is a vegetable liquid with a pleasant taste, that livens up the liver, mildly but surely, instead of whipping it into action as the strong chemical calomel does. It is used by both children and grown-ups for constipation and inactive liver.

That is why the Saunders & Fowden drug store is willing to guarantee it absolutely, not with another bottle, but with your money back. Isn't a medicine with a guarantee like this worth a trial?

A Great Meeting

Dr. J. J. Taylor, of Lexington, Ky., whose memory holds first place in the minds and hearts of all Carolina people, who knew him, is now conducting a series of meetings in Chester, W. Va., which is crowned with splendid success in the beginning having had 65 additions with the closing of the third sermon.

Dr. Taylor's ability as a Biblical expounder is not questioned by any people. The truth as it is in Christ Jesus the Lord being made plain and forcible by him, found its way into the hearts of splendid men and women of Robersonville and Williamston; has transformed their lives into active Christians who are today doing their part to hold up the banner of our King. As this report comes to us it is only meeting our foregone expectations, and we rejoice with all those to whom pardon and peace have come.

We rejoice in the anticipation of Dr. Taylor's return to North Carolina the coming year and bespeak for him greater things to be achieved.

W. H. Holliday,
Robersonville, N. C.

Pleasant Country Dance

A happy party of young folks motored to Griffins District Thursday night of last week, and attended a dance given by the young men of that section. The hours were spent in the enjoyment of the "square dance," which is much more delightful than the modern figures and waltzes. The music by local talent was good, and every one was made to feel the warm welcome extended by the promoters of the dance. The party from town was composed of Misses Irene Smith, Hannah Vic Fowden, Marie Everett, Essie Peel, Clara Jones, Mildred Alexander and Mrs. H. D. Cook and Messrs. H. A. Biggs, Clayton Moore, Leslie Fowden, Collin Peel and Dr. J. S. Rhodes.

German Club

(Reported)

The Williamston High School German Club met at the home of Misses Ellie and Maud Wynne, Friday evening, November 8th, 1912. The Club was organized with the following names as Charter members—Misses Mary Dare Brown, Laurie Ellison, Frances Knight, Sue Leggett, Eva Peel, Josephine Robertson, Ellie and Maud Wynne, Myrtle Woolard and Mrs. J. T. Jerome; Messrs. Leroy Anderson, Yates Dowell, Ollie Robertson and J. T. Jerome.

President, Leroy Anderson; Secretary, Miss Frances Knight.

A round table discussion in German followed, led by Mr. Jerome. Refreshments were served by the Misses Wynne.

The Club adjourned to meet next Friday evening at the home of Yates Dowell.

There is nothing stronger in the small boy than his sense of injustice.

Would this once and whether mother, teacher, or one of any other intimate relation, you have shaken his faith almost for a life time; and you have sinned against yourself and him irretrievably. As a child, do you remember a flogging you received at home or school, when you knew that the administrator was merely giving vent to his temper, or do you remember a story someone you loved and trusted put on you? We don't like to speak of these things in the after years, but we do well to think of them, at the same time maintaining our self-control that we may not offend the faith and confidence of any child.—Miss Linda Clement, in The Progressive Farmer.
