—Full moon tomorrow.
 —Easter Sunday, 23rd of March.
 —Madam La Retta caught the unwary on Saturday to the tune of a quarter each, and there were not a few.
 —Court week always brings a crowd of fakers in our pocket a good little sum of money.
 —Time now to clean up all trash. "A stitch in time saves nine."
 —Winter came again Sunday night and was ushered in by plenty of rain.
 —The Episcopal Sunday School will have its annual egg hunt on Easter Monday, if the weather is favorable.

—The Philathetas served barbecue on Tuesday and realized a neat sum for the benefit of the Club.

—The Roanoke is having a swell time this week. It rose very rapidly after the heavy rains up the State. Fishermen hope that fish will be more plentiful now.

—There are a number of places in town where shade trees should be placed, if a town beautiful, is desired.

—We have at our garage ready for immediate delivery three five passenger Buick touring cars. Let us take you out and show you the merits of these cars. Automobile accessories also. See ad in this issue.—S. R. Biggs Motor Works.

—The Lord willing, I will preach at the home of Mr. Joseph Lilley on the Staton farm, Sunday at 2 o'clock.—J. L. Cherry.

—The Princess will be presented Monday night. Don't fail to see it.

—Money in one's pocket is often spent on the spur of the moment, while you will think twice before drawing on your balance in the Farmers and Merchants Bank.

—Buy your fancy poultry and eggs from home raisers. Note ad of Oakhurst Poultry Farm.

—CHRYSANTHEMUM Plants for sale at 5 cents each. See Mr. Theodore Robertson, Williamston, N. C.

—The street below the City Hall has been much improved by the closing of the open drains with tiling. This will break up the mosquito market in that part of the town.

—There will be Easter services at the Christian and Methodist Churches on Sunday morning and night. There will be no services at the Episcopal Church as the rector will be at Hamilton for Easter.

A Pleasant Affair

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church gave a most delightful entertainment Tuesday night at the City Hall. There were tableaux—"Declaration of Independence" and "The Edenton Tea Party." The characters were dressed in colonial style and made splendid representatives of those patriotic men and women.

Refreshments were sold and moving pictures shown before the evening was over. A good sum was realized.
