HAS A PETRIFIED WATERFALL

One of the Natural Wonders of the World That is Located in Country of Algeria.

With all the beauty of a cataract of living water, there is in Algeria a remarkable petrified waterfall which recently has been engaging the attention of scientists. This is the Hamam-Meskutin, which means "The bath of the damned," and is located 62 miles from Constantine. This solidified cascade is the production of calcareous deposits from sulphurous and feruginous mineral springs, issuing from the depths of the earth at a temperature of 95 degrees centigrade.

"The bath of the damned," even from a near viewpoint, looks for all the world like a great wall of water dashing into a swirling pool at its foot, yet its gleaming, graceful curves and the apparently swirling eddies at its base are as fixed and immovable as if carved from the face of a granite cliff.

Many centuries have, of course, gone to the making of the deposits, and the springs were well known to the ancient Romans. The name Hamam-Meskutin was given to the stone cataract in an allusion to a legend that the waterfall was petrified by Allah, punishing the impiety of unbelievers by turning all the members of the tribe into stone. At night, so the story runs, its stone dwellers of the remote ages are freed from their strange fetters, come to life and resume their normal shapes.

The two most important needs in a woman's life seems to be love and money.

Anyway, the sign of old age is never a forgery.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 27
JOSEPH SOLD INTO EGYPT.

LESSON TEXT—Gen. 37:2-36. GOLDEN TEXT—"Love envieth not." I Cor. 13:4.

This is the first of seven lessons dealing with Joseph, a fact which suggests to us his importance in the history and the working out of God's plan. This particular lesson occurs about ten years after Jacob's return to the land of Canaan. There are many points of similarity between Joseph and Christ (1) His name means "addings," see Isa. 9:6, 7; Luke 1:31-33 and John 3:30. (2) His birth which removed Rachel's reproach (30:34) even so the birth of Christ has removed the reproach of sin, Col. 2:13-15, Rom. 8:1; (3) The love of his father, see Matt. 3:17. (4) His sufferings at the hands of his brethren, Pa. 69:4; John 15:25. (5) His deliverance from prison which was a shadow of Christ's resurrection, Acts 2:22-24. (6) His marriage to one of another race, Eph. 1:3, 4. (7) His revelation of himself to his brothers, see Zach. 12:10, 13:1. Their Envy Aroused.

The cause of the enmity of Joseph's brethren was four-fold. (1) His tale-bearing, 37:2; his pure mind could not brook their infamous slanders and he reported the same to his father. (2) His father's partiality as evidenced by the coat of many colors (v. 31). Only the opulent and noble, kings' sons, wore such a garment, and Joseph was thereby differentiated from his laboring brothers. (3) His dreams, vv. 5-7. God was revealing himself in a marked manner to this young man, which fact aroused their envy (v. 11), and (4) his very virtues were a rebuke to his evil-minded brothers.

Five words will serve to fix this lesson in our minds: Deprivation, Disgrace, Deliverance, Deceit and Deportation.

I. Deprivation v. 23.—Joseph's coat was symbolical of regal power and authority. It was not a mere patch work, but a long woven garment of bright hues. His dreams, too, had had to do with his exaltation above his brethren. As a matter of policy, perhaps, he ought not to have worn God's providential dealings, Rom. 8:28. Joseph's reception was like that of John 1:11; Matt. 27:23.

1. Deprivation, vv. 24-27.—Stripped of the coat, Joseph is cast into a pit. One wonders if the fact that there was no water there is evidence of the malignity of his nine brothers or of their somewhat tempered wrath. Joseph had pursued a long journey and was doubtless hungry and thirsty, yet these men sat outside eating and drinking while murder lurked in their hearts vv. 20, 25, 26). Joseph starving, was, however, in a better case than these brethren. One among them, Reuben, had averted a tragedy (v. 22), now God intervenes and sends this way a company of Ishmaelite traders from the land of Midian (see Judges 8:22-24). Cupidity prompts both the traders and the brothers as they made merchandise of Joseph, thus avoiding murder (Gen. 4:10).

Valued Cheaply. III. Deliverance, v. 28.—Like as Christ was sold by one of his chosen ones, so Joseph is sold by the very ones to whom of a right he should have looked for love and protection, and how cheaply he was valued, probably a little more than $12. His bitter cries were of no avail (42:21), but this slavery was the road to a sovereignty.

IV. Deceit vv. 29:35.—These brothers are an illustration of that degeneration of character which results from evil courses. It took place within a very brief time, probably not to exceed 15 years. Their jealousy was the outcome of their own evil courses. The intervention of Judah and Reuben was not entirely above suspicion, and not one of them had any esteem of the truth. They hated Joseph the dreamer because of his superior sagacity. The commission of one sin always calls forth others in a vain endeavor to cover the first. Their ready willingness to deceive their aged father, and their scornful words "thy son's coat," reveal the blackness of their characters and their absolute lack of all filial love.

V. Deportation, v. 36.—Reuben, returning, found an empty pit, whether he shared the profit of Joseph's sale, we are left to infer. His plan of deliverance could not, however, have succeeded, as God had other and greater purposes in store for Joseph. As for Jacob, he had deceived his father Isaac, and is compelled to reap as he had sown, Gal. 6:7. The hated coat is used as a means of their deception.

This is an easy lesson to tell, but care must be taken that it be not overdrawn. Too much description will lose the ethical and spiritual teaching. Jealousy and its development will be enough to emphasize the moral teaching. Be sure to emphasize Joseph as a type of the Christ. Do not anticipate his other and later experiences; tell your class that the story is to be continued.

For the older scholars attention can be drawn to these same truths, and in addition discuss compromise, parental egotism, lack of discretion and lax discipline in dealing with children.

AIDS LIVE STOCK GROWERS

Southern Provides Improved Facilities for Feeding and Resting Stock at Spencer, N. C.

Spencer, N. C.—To provide improved facilities for properly handling the growing movement of live stock to Eastern and Virginia markets from the Southeastern states, the Southern Railway is now completing a modern plant for resting and feeding stock on property adjoining the Spencer yards.

The plant consists of 33 pens, 20 of which are covered. All pens and alleys are paved with one foot of cinders and are located on a gentle slope, providing natural drainage. Each pen is provided with water trough and feed rack, and the entire plant is electrically lighted. Nine pens are set apart for cattle from the quarantined area and are separated from the others by a solid board wall ten feet high. As all cattle are unloaded at Spencer for feed and rest, the convenient plant will prove an important facility for stock growers.

The construction of this plant is in line with the Southern Railway Company's policy of making every possible effort to aid the live stock industry in the territory along its lines, in accordance with which it has provided special train service for live stock from points where sufficient business is offered and through its live Stock Department is endeavoring to interest farmers, to disseminate helpful information, and to contribute in every proper manner to the upbuilding of the industry.

TO HANDLE LARGE CROWDS

Railroads Entering Chattanooga Complete Arrangements for Handling The Reunion Visitors.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—Officials of the Southern Railway Company and the Queen and Crescent Route expect to handle the great crowds that will visit Chattanooga for the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, May 27-29, with the same dispatch that the normal travel through the Chattanooga Terminal station is handled as the result of arrangements made at a conference of transportation, mechanical and passenger representatives of these lines at which it was decided to form for this occasion a special organization similar to that which accomplished such splendid results for the Southern Railway at Macon during the reunion of 1912.

Experienced ticket sellers and baggage checkers will be brought from other points, special temporary facilities, and ample police protection will be provided, and a large number of expert passenger men will be on hand to assist the veterans and their friends in making arrangements for side and return trips, while special operating and mechanical forces will be detailed to assure the prompt movement of trains.

Especially attention has been given to the arrangements for furnishing information as to the movement of trains. For this occasion the Southern and the Queen and Crescent will draw on their large organization, covering a great part of the United States, and will bring to the services of reunion visitors the full benefit of the experience gained in handling the crowds on other similar occasions.

German Judges Poorly Paid. Berlin.—That German judges earn much less money in the first years of their career than bricklayers, is the curious fact brought out by a recent writer. The average age at which young jurists receive their appointment as full-fledged judges is 35 years and at that age they have earned in subordinate courts positions only about enough to pay for the expense of their education. At 35, however, the average bricklayers has already earned above $6,200. The judge receives $867 a year upon his appointment, and his salary rises slowly to $1,380 at 50 years of age. By this time the judge has earned about $18,660, less the expense of his education, while the bricklayer has earned a total of $11,800. In other words, the judge is in his forty-fourth year when his earnings overtake those of the bricklayer.

Can't Prove Existence of Trust. Augusta, Ga.—After an investigation of two weeks into an alleged cotton seed oil trust, the United States grand jury adjourned. District Attorney Akerman reported that he had not been as successful as he had hoped in securing evidence showing that there was a cotton seed oil trust. The grand jury investigated the American Cotton Oil Company, Proctor and Gamble and other large concerns and it was stated at the outset by the district attorney that he expected to show that there was a trust.

Depot of Lost Articles to be Moved. Paris.—The depot of lost articles which for thirty years had its temporary headquarters at the prefecture of police is about to be removed to the Caserne de la Cite. According to the figures one out of thirty adult Parisians loses something every day, and the police depot was really growing too small. There is a story of one particularly obvious lady who lost the same umbrella twenty-three times. She went to fetch it twenty-two times, but the twenty-third time, she was too much ashamed to redeem it.

Temptation.

Representative Solomon Francis Prouty of the Seventh district of Illinois is the only man in the house of representatives who chews gum, and he chews it with a remarkable avidity. He took the gum habit after a conference of Iowa physicians had warned him that he must either stop smoking or fill a grave. They suggested chewing gum as a substitute for my Lady Nicotine.

The only time he had smoked in ten years was on a hot day last summer while out campaigning. He stopped to talk with an old farmer who was puffing at a cornob pipe. The smoke got into Representative Prouty's nose, and as soon as he reached town he rushed into his office, grabbed his secretary by the arm, and almost shouted: "For goodness sake dig out that pipe of yours and give me a puff! Lock the doors and keep every man out who looks like a doctor. I've got to smoke or bust!"—Washington Star.

ITCHING, BURNING ECZEMA

317 S. Wolfe St., Baltimore, Md.—"My trouble was caused by a severe sprained ankle; the bruised blood not having been drawn off caused a skin affection which the doctors pronounced eczema. It first started with an itching and burning, with very dry skin. Constant scratching, especially during the night finally broke the skin, and during the day the watery fluid that came from it would dry and peel off like fish scales. My stocking would stick to my ankle as if it were glued. I also had it on my fingers. "I was treated without getting any benefit. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment as directed and then applied the Cuticura Ointment and bound the ankle with a soft bandage, after bathing it with Cuticura Soap. They cured me in about two months." (Signed) T. W. Henderson, Dec. 2, '11. Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston." Adv.
