A SURE REMEDY FOR LAZY LIVER

Go to Saunders & Fowden for this Safe, Reliable Remedy and Get Your Money Back if it Fails

There are very few remedies that gain the confidence of druggists as Dodson's Liver Tone does. Saunders & Fowden sells it and backs up the sale of every bottle with the money back guarantee that the price will be refunded if it fails to give complete satisfaction.

Dodson's Liver Tone costs 50 cents a bottle. It is the safest and best remedy for torpid liver constipation, biliousness, etc., that has ever been sold in this city. It takes the place of dangerous calomel and does not lay you up as a dose of calomel often does. A bottle in the house is as good as fifty cents in the bank. If you or your family need a liver tonic you have the medicine ready. If it fails you get your money back.

Be sure you get Dodson's Liver Tone when you ask for it. There are imitations of it that may disappoint you.

LOCAL

This is a prescription prepared especially for MALARIA or CHILLS & FEVER. Five or six doses will break any case, and if taken then as a tonic the fever will not return. It acts on the liver better than Calomel and does not grip or sicken. 25c

BREAKING THE NEWS

By ALLIE BROCK.

"Papa," began Bobbie one evening after dinner. "It makes a lot of difference whether you like a person or not, doesn't it?"

Bobbie's father laid down the evening paper and looked at his son critically. "What has little Miss Kelly been doing now?" he asked.

Bobbie screwed up his face. "Miss Kelly!" he repeated scornfully. "I bet nobody over to school would know who you were, talking about. She isn't Miss Kelly, and she don't ever be. She ain't in my room any more, and I'm glad. Gee, she's the stingiest thing! If she gives the fellers a bite of her apple you can know there's something the matter with it. There in't nobody likes her, les'n it's Billy."

"I understood that she was a very bright girl."

"Bright! Well, maybe," Bobbie said grudgingly. "I dunno. But honest, there's a lot more to think about than just books."

"I thought that was your opinion."

"Well, it's so," Bobbie declared. "Mamma doesn't want me to be sitting studying till 'leven every night. I sh'd say not."

"Does Mamie Kelly study that hard?"

"Well, no," acknowledged Bobbie. "You see, she goes home and works afternoons, but gee, she ain't a boy, and she doesn't mind sticking around the house. They have to work terribly hard in her room. Billy says he gets nearly killed."

"Is Billy in her room now?"

"Yes, there's lots of fellers in her room. They've got a teacher I don't like. She dresses in freshy gowns. I don't think they ought to wear gowns to school."

"You don't? Well, may I ask if you prefer bloomers?"

"I don't know as it's bloomers," Bobbie said thoughtfully. "But anyhow I don't like party dresses at school. Then, she's awful strict. You dassn't smile, hardly, les'n she comes down on you like a hammer. Jimmy, he says she scares him almost into a fit, and one day she sent him home."

"So Jimmy's in Mamie's room, too?"

"Sure," Bobbie said, uneasily. "It's an awful big room this year. I heard the teacher saying it was 'most too big to handle. Gee, but there's some swell fellers in my room. You know that Pete Harding? Well, he's there and he's one of the biggest fellers on Aunt Mary's street. We had a lot of fun with him yesterday. He was showing us some circus stunts he seen—saw last year. Some class to him, all right."

"What is your teacher like?"

"Oh, she's all right," Bobbie said, carelessly. "I knew her before, and she certainly is fine. Susie Herrick says she's awful glad to get away from her, but everybody knows what Susie Herrick is. There ain't nobody likes Susie, les'n it's Jimmy, and he goes over there a lot."

"Is Susie Herrick in Mamie Kelly's room, too?"

"Well—er—yes. But I don't believe anybody could like that teacher. She was awful cross to Nellie Foster, and I just tell you that it wasn't fair. She got sore at Nellie for whispering—that was all there was to it. You can't breathe in that room. That teacher thinks books is everything. She does around with a book under her arm, just as if she liked it. Gee, I wouldn't be a teacher for a farm!"

"What room is Nellie Foster in?"

"Not in Mamie Kelly's room! There ain't nobody'd stay in her room if she could get out. I'd rather be in the kindergarten alone than in a room with Mamie Kelly."

"Why didn't Nellie Foster go up with the rest?"

"Oh, she did," Bobbie said, dolefully. "She's awful smart. But what can you do with a teacher like that? A person couldn't admire Mamie Kelly and Nellie Foster, too. The new teacher is Mamie Kelly's kind. She won't let a feller even smile in school. So that's how Nellie Foster got sent down. It wasn't a thing but for whispering. It makes me awful tired. Of course, some of the marks was bad, but they often is in a new room."

"Where is Nellie Foster now?"

"Her?" Bobbie said slowly. "Well, you see, she's in my room. I—er—well, you see, I got sent down, too." —Chicago Daily News.

Taken Literally.

The parish tea was over, and the curate stood up to say a few words to the recipients before they dispersed. He spoke in eloquent terms of the impecuniosity of curates in general, and then went on to say, in apparently touching tones:

"Why, even as I stand before you now I have only half a shirt on my back."

A few days later the reverend gentleman received a parcel containing half-a-dozen new shirts, accompanied by a card bearing the name of one of his fair (though, alas! no longer young) parishioners. At the earliest opportunity he called upon the lady and thanked her for the gift, and then proceeded to ask what had prompted the kind action.

"Why," she replied, "you told us the other night that you had only half a shirt to your back."

"True," he answered; "but the other half was in front."

She (Saturday night)—Do you like to dance?

He (wearily)—Yes, but not on my weak ends.

She (sympathetically)—Try ankle supporters.

Just Try It Once

You are always glad to follow the example of wise and prudent men in all things but banking. You have not got a prosperous neighbor who does not carry a bank book. Why don't you? Call today and make a small deposit as a starter. Try it just once and see if you don't step a little higher when you go home to your family. It is much easier to forge to the front with one of our neat little bank books in your pocket. Don't take our word for this but try it just once
