PROPOSAL FOR PROTECTORATE OVER NICARAGUA FORECASTS NEW POLICY.

PRESIDENT FAVORS PLAN

on Proposition Senators Divided Sensation is Created in Diplomattic Circles

Washington .--- The proposed new Nicaraguan treaty, wirtually establish ing an American protectorate over Nicaragua, which Secretary of State Bryan urged before the senate foreign relations committee with the consent and approval of President Wilson in augurates a vastly important new pol icy for this government in relation to its Central American neighbors. It will ultimately establish the United States as Lord Paramount of the western hemisphere, and has led to the suggestion that Mr. Bryan has abandoned his anti-imperialist views. The matter has become the absorbing topic of diplomatic and congres sional discussion.

While official utterances have not been given of the purpose of the administration to outline a general policy toward Central America, members of the senate evince a growing conviction that the principle to be applied to Nicaragua is one that the Wilson administration would be glad to see extended to the other Central American republics.

Members of the foreign relations committee who were present when Secretary Bryan unfolded his plan continued to assert they could not discuss the new development. The original Nicaraguan treaty has been the subject of open discussion among sen-This compact did not go furators. ther, however, than to guarantee the United States exclusive canal rights, and naval base site, in exchange for a payment of $3,000,000 in gold.

The later project to extend a vir tual protectorate over Nicaragua, has assumed the character of an interna tional policy, which members of the senate are discussing with emphatic expressions of opinion. It is believed that Senators Clarke of Arkansas, Bo rah and some other influential mem bers of the foreign relations commit tee will take the general attitutde of oppdoition toward the Bryan-Wilson plan; while Senators O'Gorman, Burton and several others are known to favor many of its essential points.

NO FILIBUSTER ON TARIFF

G. O. P. Senators Say They Will Not Delay Measure.

Washington.-Republican senators have served notice upon their Democratic opponents that there is to be no unnecessary delay of the Under wood-Simmons tariff revision bill While the sharp tongue of Republican criticism and dire prediction is to be loosed throughout the tariff debate, the Republican do not plan to add any general filibustering tactics or to attempt to hold up final action on tariff revision

This policy has been partially out lined in the opening speech of the Republican opponents of the administration bill, in colloquies on the floor of the senate and in private conferences among senators. Within the

ATTACK SOCIALISTS

SEATTLE HEADQUARTERS OF SO CIALISTS AND INDUSTRIAL WORKERS SACKED.

A RIOT FOLLOWS SPEECH

Secretary of the Navy Daniels Had De clared There Was No Place for Red Flag in This Country.

Seattle, Wash .- A party of United States marines and sailors from the eserve fleet, most of the sailors wearing the name bands of the cruisers Colorado and California, started to "clean up the town," as they expressed it, by attacking Socialist and Industrial Workers of the World headquarters

A second party of men from the Pacific reserve fleet attacked the big Industrial Workers' headquarters on Washington street, in the southern part of the city. . The contents of the buildings were dragged into the street and a bonfire made of them.

A provost guard of fifty men from the fleet was hurried ashore in cutters to arrest all the men ashore.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels was dining on the curiser West Virginia, the guest of Admiral Reynolds at the time rioting began.

About a dozen sailors, all young were in the first wrecking party that got under way. They were aided by several members of the Washington naval militia and by a hundred civilians, who had made most of the noise. Waving United States flags the storming party swooped down on the cart news stand of Milard Price, a Socialist orator, at the intersection of Fourth avenue and West Lake boulevard, the busiest night corner of the city. The cart was broken to splinters in a moment, and the big stock of Socialist papers and magazines were torn, tossed into the street and jumped upon.

Secretary Daniel of the Navy Department addressed a banquet given at the Ranier club in his honor, and spoke in eulogy of the American flag and took occasion to praise the attitude of the mayor of Boston, who stopped a red flag parade.

"The red flag has no place in this country," he said, "and believers in it have no place in this country. A mayor who does not enforce the law against the red flag is not fit to hold office, and people who believe in the red flag should be driven from the country.

Mr. Daniels then passed on to eulogize President Wilson and closed his address amid great cheering. His red flag remarks occupied only a minute and those who observed him closely say that he had no intention of making them apply locally. However, word was passed about the street that the secretary had made a long address devoted to the two flags and had urged that all believers in the red flag be driven out of the country.
