

INDIGESTION, GAS OR BAD STOMACH

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin ends all Stomach misery in five minutes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food. Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or bad stomach. Adv.

Real Excitement.

"Yes," said the meek-looking man, "I've no doubt you've had some great hunting experiences in your travels abroad."

"I have, indeed."
"Buffalo hunting—"
"Yes."
"And bear hunting—"
"Of course."

"Well, you just come around and let my wife take you house hunting and bargain hunting with her. Then you'll begin to know what real excitement is."

CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

A 25-YEAR CASE OF ECZEMA CURED

Mr. Butler Edgar of Danville, Pa., writes: "I have had an aggravated case of Eczema for over 25 years. My hands were unsightly for a great part of that long period. I have used seven 50c. bottles of Hancock's Sulphur Compound and one jar of Hancock's Sulphur Ointment. I feel as though I had a brand new pair of hands. My case has been such an aggravated one. Hancock's Sulphur Compound has cured me and I am certain it will cure anyone if they persist in using it according to directions." Hancock's Sulphur Compound and Ointment are sold by all dealers. "GOOD ROADS DAYS"

GOVERNOR CRAIG ISSUES PROCLAMATION CALLING ON THE STATE TO AID.

DATE IS NOVEMBER 5 AND 6

To Be Blown For Progress.—Men of Every Station Are Asked to Actively Engage in Improving North Carolina Highways.

Raleigh.—Declaring that the people of North Carolina lose $12,000,000 annually because of the poor condition of the state's highways, Governor Craig issued a proclamation designating November 5 and 6 as "Good Roads Days" and calling on all patriotic people throughout the state to work upon the public roads of the state on those days.

The governor pointed out that the modern highway is essential to the material prosperity and social advancement of every community, and declared the country has awakened to the importance of improved roads.

Characterizing the vast sum lost annually to North Carolina through lack of good roads as a "tribute paid to mud" Governor Craig's proclamation calls upon every able-bodied man "to shoulder his shovel, march out and strike a blow for progress."

Summoning the people of every station to answer the call of patriotism, the proclamation calls on the "farmer, the merchant, the lawyer, the doctor, the minister of the Gospel, the rich and the poor to enlist as volunteers in this mighty army for grand accomplishment."

The work will be organized and conducted in a systematic manner, so that at the end of the second day every community in the state will show permanent road improvement. All road overseers, good roads associations and organizations for public welfare and civic improvement are urged to aid the movement. County commissioners are called on to issue proclamations urging the people to participate in the work.

Declaring that the farmers, more than any other class, are dependent upon the country road, Governor Craig's proclamation says: "I call upon the president of the Farmers' Union to issue his proclamation to the farmers of North Carolina, that this great body of our citizenship, constituting as it does the bone and sinew of the state, may join with energy and enthusiasm in the movement."

The women are summoned to lend their presence. In conclusion the governor says: "Let every North Carolinian show by his work that he is for the improvement of the state."

Exposition For State Proposed. Raleigh.—Capt. Russell Bellamy, of Wilmington, has just had a satisfactory conference with Governor Craig on the question of encouragement and support on the part of the state for the proposed North Carolina World's Exposition in celebration of the completion of the Panama Canal at Balboa Island at the mouth of the Cape Fear river. The plans are on a large scale. Captain Bellamy proposes to ask the State of North Carolina to provide $5,000,000 and the counties of the state to raise as much more and the exposition is to open right after the other Panama expositions, so as to draw exhibits from them.

Taxes Will Exceed Previous Years. Yadkinville.—Register of Deeds W. G. Wooten has been working on the tax books for the past few weeks and has them about ready to turn over to the sheriff. The taxes in Yadkin this year will exceed that of any previous year by about $5,000. The taxable property in Yadkin county in 1912 was $3,159,524, and this year the amount listed for taxation was $3,223,674, an increase of $64,150. The taxes collected by the sheriff in 1912 amounted to $27,443.42 as compared to about $32,000 of this year's taxes.

Capture An Illicit Distillery. Henderson.—Sheriff Royster and Police Officers Langston and Champion captured an illicit distillery in full blast near Drewery, but not without some difficulty, for L. Z. Evans, reputed owner and operator of the still, is alleged to have ambushed the representatives of the law, fired upon them and was in turn fired upon. Evans came out second best in the leaden argument, however, being wounded in the left arm and captured, while the officers were unhurt. The prisoner was brought and placed in jail here.

Farmers To Hold Meeting. Scotland Neck.—George R. Bennett of Enfield, local agent for the farmers co-operative demonstration work for Halifax county, has announced that a meeting of the farmers will be held October 2, for the purpose of discussing the question of the value of winter crops and deep fall plowing. A similar meeting will be held in Enfield. Mr. Bennett urges the necessity of calling the attention of the farmers to this important matter, and says the time has come when the farmers must take notice.

Raleigh.—The Baptists of the state, especially the leaders of the denomination, are much interested in a bill introduced in the house by Representative Gallatin Roberts, of Buncombe to amend the law relating to the Southern Baptist assembly at Ridgecrest. Fayetteville.—A verdict unprecedented in annals of Cumberland county was returned by the jury in the case of O. W. Pitiful State in Which Mrs. May Found Herself, and How She Escaped.

Opp, Ala.—In a letter from this town, Mrs. Carrie May writes as follows: "About two months after I married, I began to have very bad weak spells, and terrible headaches. I felt miserable all the time, and soon got to where I couldn't hardly stay up. After the third month I got down completely.

I was young, had never been sick before, and I just didn't know what to do. I thought I would die.

My husband, at last, got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and it helped me so, he got another bottle. When I had taken the second bottle I was well.

I wish that every woman, suffering from womanly trouble, would give Cardui a trial. It is the best medicine on earth for womanly weakness."

Are you weak, tired, worn-out? Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women? If so, take Cardui.

As a remedy for women's ills, Cardui has been most successful. It is purely vegetable, composed of ingredients which have been found to build up the vitality and strengthen the womanly constitution, as well as prevent or relieve those terrible pains from which weak women suffer.

Cardui is worth trying. Judging from the experience of a million other women who have been benefited by this remedy, it should surely do you good.

DIDN'T KNOW

That Coffee Was Causing Her Trouble.

So common is the use of coffee as a beverage, many do not know that it is the cause of many obscure ailments which are often attributed to other things.

The easiest way to find out for oneself is to quit the coffee for a while, at least, and note results. A Virginia lady found out in this way, and also learned of a new beverage that is wholesome as well as pleasant to drink. She writes:

"I am 40 years old and all my life, up to a year and a half ago, I had been a coffee drinker.

"Dyspepsia, severe headaches and heart weakness made me feel sometimes as though I was about to die. After drinking a cup or two of hot coffee, my head would go like a clock without a pendulum. At other times it would almost stop and I was so nervous I did not like to be alone.

"If I took a walk for exercise, as soon as I was out of sight of the house I'd feel as if I was sinking, and this would frighten me terribly. My limbs would utterly refuse to support me, and the pity of it all was, I did not know that coffee was causing the trouble.

"Reading in the papers that many persons were relieved of such ailments by leaving off coffee and drinking Postum, I got my husband to bring home a package. We made it according to directions and I liked the first cup. Its rich, snappy flavor was delicious.

"I have been using Postum about eighteen months and to my great joy, digestion is good, my nerves and heart are all right. In fact, I am a well woman once more, thanks to Postum."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Write for copy of the little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled. Instant Postum is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. Grocers sell both kinds.

"There's a reason" for Postum.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 5

MOSES' CRY FOR HELP.

LESSON TEXT—Numbers 11:10-15, 24, 35. GOLDEN TEXT—"The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in its working."—James 5:16.

This lesson is taken from the book of Numbers, "the book of journeyings," or aptly called the "book of murmurings." The events of Exodus and Leviticus cover perhaps one or two years, whereas those recorded in Numbers occupy about 38 years. Read in this connection Ps. 95:10 and I Cor. 10. From Sinai to Kadesh-Barnea are found four general murmurings. The first was at Taberah, 11:3, and the events of today's lesson which occurred at Kibroth, 11:34. The other two were at Hazeroth, 12:15, 16, and Kadesh, 13:26. This book is full of impressive warnings about worldliness.

Moses Was Human. I. Complaint and Controversy, vv. 10-15. Moses was great but he was human. No man is "faultless," and in this lesson we have another incident illustrating the weakness of Moses. Yet despite all this we find inserted in the very next chapter God's estimate of his character, 12:3. Moses had been subjected to a terrible strain, the details of his leadership, the constant murmuring of the people under this load he gave way, just as he had previously yielded to impulse, Ex. 2:12, and as he did subsequently, Ch. 20:10-13. The Israelites are a striking illustration of the natural discontent of the human heart. Any affliction, and discomfort or privation, and we forget God's marvelous works on our behalf, His wonderful goodness. That God was displeased is indicated by verse 10, but that did not imply that Moses, too, was to lose his temper, to resort to murmuring, and to accuse God of being responsible for the burden or that he would not help to share the load, v. 11. God placed great honor upon Moses by calling him to this task of leadership, and now he complains, and doubts for a moment God's sustaining grace, 2 Cor. 12:9; Phil. 4:13. The language here used, vv. 12-14, is wonderfully suggestive. The utter weakness of the Israelites, the promised goal, the hunger of soul and body, the sorrows of affliction are all graphically set before us. Moses' own weakness is revealed (v. 13) by his words, "where should I have flesh to give?" He seems to forget absolutely God's dealings with Israel before they reached Sinai (Ex. 16), as though God expected any such thing from him. The height of his petulance and bitterness is reached when he exclaims, "kill me I pray thee . . . and let me not see my wretchedness," v. 15.

Burden Distributed.

II. Comfort and Counsel, vv. 16-18, 24, 25. Moses had been warned not to bear the entire burden of leadership by his father-in-law, Jethro, Ex. 18:17, 18. Now that he is unwilling to take the full honor of undivided leadership God most graciously grants his request and appoints others to share the burden and responsibility. There was no more power, however, but more machinery. God distributed the burden and revealed the fact that Moses' power was in proportion to his burden. Human nature always looks for the arm of flesh upon which to rely, but such a reliance usually brings a curse not a blessing upon those who seek it, Jer. 17:5. God dealt in mercy with Moses. Notice how gently he passes by this exhibition of infirmity and notwithstanding this lapse, bears testimony to his faithfulness (12:7). Yet he is impartial in chronicling his faults and thereby giving us an incidental and thereby giving us the truth.

What a suggestion in the words "I will come down and talk with thee," yet that is the privilege of the believer in Christ, John 14:16, 17 and 18:13. God calls a "tent meeting," v. 16 R. V., but before he meets them they must sanctify themselves, for so only is one prepared to meet God, Ex. 19:10, 15, 22. These people had been lusting for the food of Egypt even as today many who have professed to accept Christ are forever longing for the pleasures of time and sense. They forget the bitterness of past slavery in the privations of the present, entirely forgetful of the goal of luxury and freedom, Rom. 10:28, 2 Cor. 4:17. God granted their request, v. 18, to their sorrow, v. 20. The whole trouble was then "rejected the Lord," v. 20 R. V. The granting of material prosperity tends to leanness of soul, Ps. 106:15. It frequently happens that God does not answer our prayers because he knows that to answer them actually and literally would spell disaster in our lives.

Conclusion. This lesson brings Moses very near to us. Such a remarkable man as he is he sometimes seems to be far removed from our actual experiences in life. Yet as we consider him faltering for a moment beneath his staggering, crushing burden of responsibility, with strength and courage gone, we share our sympathy with him and he seems to enter into the actualities of our daily life. God reveals himself as one who understands perfectly, one who knows exactly all that his servant felt, and one who in tender compassion had not a word of rebuke.
