Theodore is in Chile. Who cares?

Never has there been such lovely weather as for the past two weeks. The man who can keep grouchy in the midst of it has no place on earth. Sun, earth and sky have combined to produce days of which poets dream and write. This is indeed a land blessed of God, and the harvest is plentiful.

The recent dinner that Huerta gave cost $20,000 just for the things to eat. A specimen of the high cost of living, and the folks have to pay for it. A fat Martin County possum with pumpkin yams, wild turkey (woods full of 'em), red ham, quail, pies like mother used to make and grape juice can put that dinner on the shelf and not half try. And the best of it, the whole menu is right at home.

A Tar Heel in Virginia

Editor, THE ENTERPRISE,
 Dear Sir:-

I write to let you know how much I enjoy reading THE ENTERPRISE. I am glad to see the items from the different townships in the county. I am acquainted with a large number of people in the county and hear from them in this way, when otherwise, I would not.

I am very glad to know that the farmers are getting good prices for their crops and are reaping the reward of their labor. It is a great pleasure to hear these people in Virginia say that North Carolina is one of the foremost states in the union intellectually and financially. Just a few years ago the Old North State was looked down on as being behind the times but today we can point with pride to her rapid progress along all lines of industry. It is an undisputed fact, that not one state in the union has equalled her along educational lines in the last ten or fifteen years.

I am glad to know that my home county is running an intelligent paper. I think the people of Martin County should give their home paper a hearty support and see that they have as good a paper as any county in the state with the same population.

The people in Martin County are blessed with good government. The taxes are much lower than in many places. Taxes here, in Norfolk, are twice as high as they are in Martin County. I consider this a great blessing.

I read in THE ENTERPRISE that you are advocating and building good roads, which, when completed will meet with the approval of both those who favored them and those who opposed them.

I notice that there are not any items from Robersonville any more. What is the trouble are they all asleep or are they too busy to write? May be we will hear from them in the next issue of THE ENTERPRISE. Mr. Editor: I wish you much success with your paper.

Very truly yours,
 J. C. ANDREWS,

WHY NOT GET A GUARANTEE?

Every Article of Merit that is Sold These Days is Guaranteed—No Guarantee Often Means Poor Quality.

There is very little excuse for any person to claim that he has been "stung" on a purchase. Fifty years ago the buyer had to look out, but today it is unusual to find a merchant who will not return the money for any article that has proved unsatisfactory.

An excellent example of this kind of fair dealing is shown by the clean cut guarantee that Saunders & Fowden give on Dodson's Liver Tone.

These people tell us that any person who pays 50c. for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and does not find it a gentle and most pleasant liver tonic, harmless, but a sure reliver of constipation and a perfect substitute for calomel, can get his money back just as quick as they can get it out of the money drawer.

Dodson's Liver Tone has practically taken the place of calomel. It is absolutely harmless, sure in its action and causes no restriction of habit or diet. No wonder the drug people are glad to guarantee it, while other remedies that imitate the claims of Dodson's Liver Tone are not guaranteed at all.
