

FAILS TO SECURE RECOGNITION

Lady's Own Friends Assert Could Not Recognize Her When Brought Face to Face.

Arrits, Va.—Mrs. D. J. Bowen, of this town, makes the following statement: "For 20 years I suffered with womanly troubles, and although I tried different treatments, I did not get any relief."

I was unable to look after any of my work, and my friends thought I could not get well.

Finally, I began to take Cardul, the woman's tonic; and I hadn't taken one-third of the first bottle, before I could notice its good effects.

Now I can do all my work, feel like I'm not more than 16 years old, but am really 49. My own friends say I look so well, they don't recognize me when we meet in the road.

My daughter is using Cardul, and she says it is a fine medicine. I also have a number of lady friends taking it, since they found out how it helped me.

Whenever I feel a little fatigued after a day's extra hard work, I just take a dose of Cardul and am all right.

I can't say too much for Cardul.

Thousands of women who now suffer from womanly troubles, could be relieved and benefited, by following Mrs. Bowen's example.

Are you of this number? If so, try Cardul today. It cannot harm you, and is almost sure to do you good.

The Busy Man.

Peals of laughter came from the president's room as the secretary stepped out.

"Mr. Green is too busy to see you at present," said the secretary, politely.

"I'm sorry," said the man who called on business. "Will you go back and tell Mr. Green that I've got two stories just as good as the one he's heard, if he'll let me in to tell them?"

DID THE WORK Grew Strong on Right Food

You can't grow strong by merely exercising. You must have food—the kind you can digest and assimilate.

Unless the food you eat is digested it adds to the burden the digestive organs have naturally to carry. This often means a nervous breakdown.

"About a year ago," writes a Mass. lady, "I had quite a serious nervous breakdown caused, as I believed, by overwork and worry. I also suffered untold misery from dyspepsia."

"First I gave up my position, then I tried to find a remedy for my troubles, something that would make me well and strong, something to rest my tired stomach and build up my worn-out nerves and brain."

"I tried one kind of medicine after another, but nothing seemed to help me."

"Finally a friend suggested change of food and recommended Grape-Nuts. With little or no faith in it, I tried a package. That was eight months ago and I have never been without it since."

"Grape-Nuts did the work. It helped me grow strong and well. Grape-Nuts put new life into me, built up my whole system and made another woman of me!"

HISTORIANS GET MACON LETTERS

STATE HISTORICAL COMMISSION RECEIVES VALUABLE COLLECTION OF LETTERS.

DISPATCHES FROM RALEIGH

Doings and Happenings That Mark the Progress of North Carolina People Gathered Around the State Capitol.

Raleigh.

The State Historical Commission has received a gift of an exceptionally valuable collection of letters and papers of Nathaniel Macon to be kept in the fire-proof cases of the commission in the new state building. The collection is a gift from Miss Laura Eaton Alston, of Warrenton. There are 60 or more letters written to Macon, most of them while he was in the United States Senate, which treat public affairs most interestingly from the viewpoint of the historian.

There are letters in the collection from Thomas Jefferson, Martin Van Buren, Governor Branch and others.

Secretary R. D. W. Connor of the State Historical Commission is rapidly perfecting the program for the unveiling of the monument to the North Carolina Women of the Confederacy to be unveiled in Capital Square here June 10.

The present plan is to divide the ceremonies between the city auditorium and the monument, the exercises to begin at the auditorium at 11 o'clock. The monument will be presented to the State by Chairman J. A. Long of the Monument Commission, and Governor Craig will accept it for the state. The details of the unveiling ceremonies will probably be published within a day or two.

The commission that procured the monument as the gift of the late Ashley Horne consists of J. A. Long, Roxboro, chairman; R. D. W. Connor, Raleigh, secretary; Henry A. London, Pittsboro; Mrs. F. M. Williams, Newton; Col. J. Bryan Grimes, Raleigh; Capt. T. W. Mason, Northampton. The late W. H. S. Burgwyn of Weldon was also on the commission up to the time of his death.

The monument is the work of Augustus Lukeman, of New York.

Government Buys Mt. Pisgah.

Washington—The National Forestry Commission approved the purchase by the government of the Pisgah Forest tract of the Vanderbilt estate near Asheville, consisting of about 86,700 acres at $5 per acre or a total cost of $433,551.30.

The tract contains most of the Vanderbilt estate, the Vanderbilt family retaining only about 400 acres about Buck Spring Lodge and about 11,000 acres around the family home.

A member of the commission stated that he considered the Pisgah Forest tract to be the most attractive forest in the country and although the price was high he declared it was the cheapest property yet bought for forestry purposes.

The commission took up with Governor Craig a proposition to have him secure legislation to have the State of North Carolina cooperate with the federal government to make the Pisgah Forest a national game preserve. The government will retain the name Pisgah Forest given the tract by the Vanderbilts.

Confer Honorary Degrees.

Wake Forest College conferred the following honorary degrees: Doctor of laws on N. Y. Gulley, dean of the Wake Forest Law school; W. J. McGlothlin, professor of history in Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville; Henry Wood, professor of German in Johns Hopkins University. The degree of doctor of letters was conferred on Clarence Poe of Raleigh, editor of The Progressive Farmer; Henry Jerome Stockard, professor of English at Peace Institute, Raleigh; and Gustavus Arvid Hagstrom, president Bethel Academy and Theological Seminary at St. Paul, Minn.

Hagood to Press Association.

Announcement has been made that Norman H. Hagood, of Harper's Weekly, is to be the orator for the annual convention of the North Carolina Press Association, to be in session at Wrightsville Beach June 24-25. It is a notable fact that a straw ballot as to the preference of the editors of the state as to who should be invited to deliver the address, taken some weeks ago by President Clarence Poe, with eight to ten editors of National reputation, resulted in favor of Mr. Hagood.

Secretary Daniels in Raleigh.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Mrs. Daniels arrived in the city a few days ago from Charleston, S. C., where on the night before Secretary Daniels delivered the annual address at the commencement of the College of Charleston, following commencement addresses at Davidson College, and at the Charlotte High School. Secretary Daniels left in the afternoon for Goldsboro to visit his mother going by automobile, and left Goldsboro that night for Washington. Mrs. Daniels remained for a few days.

Week's Decisions of Supreme Court.

Opinions in 19 appeals were delivered by the Supreme Court. It is expected that the arguments for the term will be concluded in a few days and that the Supreme Court will complete deliveries of opinions soon and adjourn.

In Sprague vs. School Commissioners from Wake the court holds that school commissioners of Raleigh cannot under the Constitution issue $50,000 bonds for new school buildings as "necessary expense" after the election on the question ordered by the Legislature has failed to receive a majority of the qualified voters, although it did get a majority of the votes cast. It was hoped that there being compulsory education the "necessary expense" could be construed as allowing the bond issue.

The full list of opinions delivered by the court follows: Drainage Association, Washington County, affirmed; Sprague vs. School Commissioners, Wake, reversed; Rhodes vs. City of Durham, defendant's appeal affirmed, plaintiff's appeal dismissed; Bond vs. Pickett Cotton Mills, Guilford, affirmed; Raleigh, Charlotte & Southern Railway vs. Mecklenburg Manufacturing Company, defendant's appeal no error, plaintiff appeal error; Causey vs. Seaboard Air Line, Randolph, no error; Uwharrie Mining Company vs. Candor, Montgomery, affirmed; State vs. Johnson, Avery, new trial; Fisher vs. Toxaway Company, Transylvania, affirmed; Myers vs. Norfolk & Western Railway, Wilkes, no error; Hooper vs. Hooper, Henderson, new trial; Wallace vs. Barlow, Wilkes, no error; Burris vs. Starr, Catawba, in plaintiff's appeal no error, defendant's appeal no error; State vs. Shaft, Buncombe, no error; Lance vs. Russell, Buncombe, modified and affirmed with costs against the plaintiff; Wynn vs. Grant, Buncombe, no error; Myers vs. Asheville, Affirmed; Selas vs. Life Assurance Society, Buncombe, new trial; Helk vs. Vance, Buncombe, no error.

Compare Farm and City Labor.

"What is the labor problem in your home county or town?" "What suggestions have you to offer for the improvement of labor conditions in your particular vicinity?" These topics were furnished an economics class of 40 University students by Dr. C. L. Raper, head of the department of economics and correspondent of the United States Rural Organization Service, as a basis upon which to gather some first-hand information relative to labor conditions in North Carolina. The investigations embraced some 36 representative North Carolina counties. The findings unfolded by this investigation are of general interest for the twofold reason of the general conclusions arrived at and the detailed content of the papers presented.

Extracts of B. & L. Report.

Young on the growth of building and loan associations in this state for the last fiscal year will show gratifying advancement and improvement. Governor Offers $100 Reward.

Governor Craig offered a reward of $100 for John T. Cox of Stanley County, he being a fugitive wanted on the charge of killing Deputy Sheriff Dan T. Tolbert near Badin recently when the officer was attempting to arrest him and A. E. Cole on the charge of selling whiskey. Cole was arrested and testifies that Cox fired the fatal shot.

Craig Commutes to Life Sentence.

A. W. McLean and Judge Walter Neal were successful in their efforts with Governor Craig to procure a commutation to life imprisonment for W. T. McKenzie sentenced in Robeson County to die in the electric chair June 12 for the killing of his brother-in-law Peter Jones. Both men had been highly regarded. McKenzie was a rural mail carrier and man of good habits. The Governor explains that habits.

Map of Soils is Ready.

Dr. B. W. Kilgore, state chemist and director of the soil survey and test farm work, says the soil map for Bladen county is just completed, making about one-third of the state now surveyed and mapped as to types of soil. The work is now being pushed in Wake, Union and Rowan counties. It is estimated that 19 years will be required to complete this work with the co-operation of the state department of agriculture and the United States department as now organized for the work.

This map of the soils is being followed up by the department with analysis of the soils and with special experiments on all new types of soil as to the best means of cultivation and crops best adapted. Special bulletins as to these are being issued, that on the mountain soils being already out and being used to great advantage by the farmers of the mountain sections of the state. There are four other special bulletins now in the press as to special soils in different sections of the state and these are calculated to be of great benefit to farmers, truckers and others.

A BIG CELEBRATION

PARADE MOST SPECTACULAR FEATURE AS REVIEWED BY VICE-PRESIDENT.

MARSHALL WANTS HONESTY

City Thronged With 75,000 People Who Enjoy May 20 Observance With no Mishap.

Charlotte.—Without unpleasant incident of note and under ideal weather conditions, more than 75,000 people from Charlotte and territory within 100 miles and more took part in the greatest celebration, the anniversary of the signing of the Mecklenburg Declaration.

The dawn found the city streets filled with visitors and regular and special trains from all points in the Piedmont Carolinas added their quota until the city was one solid mass of humanity when the time for the parade arrived. The size of the crowd has been variously estimated, from the ultra conservative to the other extreme. Some estimates have run as high as 90,000, and a few as low as 60,000, but according to those familiar with large gatherings, 75,000 appeared to cover the crowd.

It was a larger crowd than was here when President Taft was the guest of honor, and larger than when Vice President Adlai Stevenson was here years ago on a similar occasion. Narrowed down to its final analysis, it was the biggest assemblage of people ever seen in Charlotte. It was also one of the most orderly. There were very few disturbances among the throngs of sufficient importance to demand police attention, and with two or three exceptions here were no accidents and these were not of a serious nature.

The presence and address of Vice President Marshall was alone a feature far beyond the ordinary. The distinguished representative of the United States captivated and Mrs. Marshall added her amiable charms to the magnificent occasion. The vice president won the hearts of the citizens when he asked for tickets to the baseball game and he occupied a box just behind the catcher's position. He rooted for Charlotte and seemed to greatly enjoy the game. This one incident alone served to show the people of Mecklenburg and adjoining counties that they had the right kind of a man in the important second place in the United States government.

Second only to the presence of the vice president was the magnificent parade which took place between the hours of 11 and 1 o'clock. This was conceded to be the best event of its nature ever witnessed in the state.

Cabarrus May Have Creamery.

Concord.—Interest has been aroused in the establishment of a creamery for the farmers of Cabarrus. The matter is being agitated and not only the farmers but a number of business men have evidenced interest and stated they will take stock.

For some time creameries in other sections have been securing a large supply of cream from the farmers in this county. Lately the supply has increased to such an extent that the supply of butter and milk on the local market has hardly been sufficient for the demand. Milk routes have been established in various sections of the county to take the cream to creameries at other points.

Re-Opened Lenoir Bank.

Lenoir.—The First National Bank opened its doors for business again a few days ago at 11 o'clock, after being closed two weeks pending an examination of its affairs by National Bank Examiner J. K. Doughton. At a meeting of the directors L. L. Jenkins, president of the American National Bank of Asheville and of the First National Bank of Gastonia was elected president of the local institution.

Lamar C. Pegram, formerly assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Gastonia was elected cashier. There was almost an entire reorganization of the board of directors and of the official staff.

Little Time at Biltmore.

Asheville.—The sale of the Pisgah Forest holdings of the late George W. Vanderbilt and the announcement that the Government, the purchaser, will take immediate possession of the holdings, together with the mailing of notices to the members of many of the departments to the effect that their services will not be required after the first of June, gives rise to the belief that Mrs. Vanderbilt will discontinue many of the departments of the Biltmore estate. Only the mansion will be reserved.

Build Septic Tanks.

Wilmington.—At a meeting of the property owners of Wrightsville Beach held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce recently, it was decided to install a system of septic tanks for the disposal of sewerage at a cost of $5,000. Work will begin at an early date. The system has been approved by the state board of health and also by the local board. This system has been made necessary on account of the increased number of cottages at the beach in order to prevent the contamination of water.

DANIELS TALKS TO DAVIDSON

Davidson's Commencement Draws Large Attendance—Pleasant Reception For Secretary.

Davidson.—"The fight that Woodrow Wilson made at Princeton has in it more glory for him than anything he has done as President of the United States," declared Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels in his address at the 77th commencement of Davidson College. The need for the democratization of educational institutions was portrayed as a vital fact of the present era.

Bearing from the head of the Nation a message of affectionate greeting for the institution at which the former studied when a youth, Mr. Daniels then arraigned that theory of scholarship which in the past "has made many a college a citadel of privilege." The only education worth while is that which inspires its possessor to lay his knowledge at the feet of the whole people for the benefit of mankind, said the speaker, who then voiced an appeal and a challenge to the trained young men to enter politics, so that in public life there shall be leaders who are broad enough to lead for all the people.

Not once in the course of his 60-minute speech, having humorous references did the Secretary of the American Navy, as such, talk shop. In his capacity of champion of what are known as progressive measures, however, Mr. Daniels did not lose the opportunity to train his guns for a broadside into the entrenchments of special privilege or to salute as a great triumph of popular government the flag of the initiative and referendum. To Mr. Daniels this is clearly not "an alien banner with a strange device" as Gen. Harrison Gray Otis once termed it.

"Before I shall begin the message which I have for these young men," said Mr. Daniels, "I wish to bring to you a message from the President of the United States." He read the following:

"The White House, Washington. "My dear Secretary: I understand that you are to speak on Monday at my old alma mater, Davidson College. Will you not be kind enough to convey my cordial greetings and to say with how sincere an interest and affection I remember the college and wish it the best possible enlarging fortunes? "Cordially and sincerely yours, "WOODROW WILSON."

Governor Craig Praises Charlotte.

Raleigh.—Governor Craig is enthusiastic on his return from Charlotte, at the magnitude and complete success of the celebration and the showing Charlotte makes as the truly "Queen City" of North Carolina. He says immense crowds, splendid music and magnificent floats made a stirring combination and that great numbers of old soldiers added much to the impressiveness of the day.

"Charlotte is decidedly the leading city of the state," declared the governor. "There are more people, more fine streets there than in any other town in the state. There are evidences of progressiveness and growth everywhere. A ride over the city would convince anyone that the people there have faith in their town and are backing up their faith with their money and unlimited energy. Their evidences of civic pride for Charlotte are splendid. They are setting an example for other towns which must 'get a move on' if they would keep pace."

Against Division.

Salisbury.—News that is of special interest to the members of the Reformed Church in this state comes from Lancaster, Pa., where the General Synod of that church in the United States is in session. It brings the information that the General Synod has upheld the protest against the establishment of the Central Carolina Class.

Enlarging Warehouse.

Washington, N. C.—The work of construction on the large addition to the Beaufort county tobacco warehouse has commenced and will be pushed rapidly to completion, also a stable with 150 stalls will be built in connection with the warehouse for the benefit of farmers bringing their tobacco from a distance. When these additions are finished the capacity of this warehouse will be doubled.

Gastonia School Burns.

Gastonia.—At 2:30 o'clock in the morning the Central Graded School building was practically destroyed by a fire which threatened nearby structures. The fire was discovered about 2 o'clock and had gained such headway efforts to control it have been ineffective. School closed a week ago and no one is supposed to have been in the building, so nothing concerning the origin of the blaze can be ascertained. The buildings cost the City of Gastonia $30,000 and was erected within the past few years.

Wants "Talk" With Wilson.

Washington.—Some deaf and dumb man in North Carolina wants to come up and talk it over with the President. He is after an office—a real job—something like superintendent of the mint. The President received a letter from the Tar Heel, and turned it over to the Secretary of the Treasury. "If you have anything you think will suit me," the letter states, "let me call on you and talk it over." The President can do almost anything, but he is not trained to converse with a deaf and dumb person.

REMARKABLE CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation and congestion, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind, I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."—Mrs. JOSIE HAM, R.
