SEVERAL VALUABLE DOGS KILLED BY POISON

There was much indignation here last week because of the wholesale poisoning of dogs. Whoever the miscreant was, he was violating the law, and putting himself in the position to be summarily dealt with. It is said that dogs which were kept housed were turned loose so they could get the poison. Many folks had valuable dogs, which they prized, and these, too, died from the effects. T. C. Cook lost six or more chickens which ate some of the stuff which was placed for his dog. It is a dangerous business, and the man who indulged in the pastime of destroying people's property, which may seem needless to others, has some of the traits of the Huns.

Red Cross Workers

A list of the women who visit the work rooms of the Red Cross Chapter here will be published each week as given out by the Secretary. Those who worked in the rooms on June 21st were:

Mesdames Jim Andrews, F. U. Barnes, John D. Biggs, Jr., S. R. Biggs, Jr., W. H. Biggs, W. R. Burrell, B. S. Courtney, K. B. Crawford, A. R. Dunning, G. W. Hardison, L. B. Harrison, C. B. Hassell, J. L. Hassell, F. W. Hoyt, C. H. Jordan, John W. Manning, Laurence Peel, J. S. Rhodes, J. H. Saunders, J. G. Stator; Misses Deborah Fleming, Bessie Page and Carrie Dell White.

Every woman who can help is cordially invited to come to the work rooms in the Masonic Hall every Friday.

HOW FAR BEHIND THE BOYS ARE YOU?

One of Pershing's men, returned from France, was speaking:

"When I left for home," he said, "the boys over there were feeling pretty blue, because they thought that you here in America were not backing them up as you ought. We had a pretty bitter winter over there. The weather was the coldest France has known in years. Many of us were without proper food and clothing. Some were even without shoes. None of us were complaining, though, but the feeling that when we were doing so much for you, you were not doing everything in your power to back us up, sometimes bit in pretty hard."

"We felt like the little Irish man felt—a Y. M. C. A. but one evening a bunch of us had gathered there to listen to a speaker from America. During the course of his lecture he said:

"We in America are behind you boys to a man."

"Then my little Irish friend got up. 'Yes,' he said, 'you're all behind us, all right, a h— of a ways behind—4,000 mile's."

Are you that far behind "the boys"? If you are, move up closer. Put all your energy into this War Savings Campaign. Save to the utmost of your ability and put your savings into W. S. S., and get everyone else to do the same. Make "the boys" in France realize that while the mileage may be great, it is easily spanned by your willingness to help.

To Begin Services

Rev. H. M. Eure announces that he will begin revival services in the Methodist Church at Hamilton on next Sunday (Fifth) morning. Everybody is cordially invited to come and help make the meeting one for the great good to the people and the community.

The window of Watts Garage on Washington Street was found to be open on Sunday night, and it is thought that some one attempted to get in to secure automobile parts.

Hermon Taylor came near having a serious accident last Friday. He had a load of gasoline on a truck, which he had secured at Washington. At a bridge on the Old Ford road, the structure gave way and the machine fell over. Taylor had presence of mind enough to jump and so saved himself from being crushed.

The Shadow of the Hun is Hovering Over YOUR Home. Only the other day he brought the war to our own shores—right to your front door. The lives of YOUR boys are pledged that the German fiends shall perish. Now—it's up to you to pledge your money to back up those boys. President Wilson, Secretary McAdoo, Governor Bickett and the mayors of cities and towns have proclaimed

JUNE 23 TO 28, NORTH CAROLINA WAR-SAVINGS WEEK.

Canvassers, acting under authority of the United States Government, will call upon you.

Remember—all the money that you have, or ever will have, is poor stuff to weigh in the scale against some mother's broken heart.

North Carolina's quota of $48,000,000 must be raised June 23rd to 28th by pledge and purchase.

Our Liberty Depends on the Outcome of the War

Consider for what is a man profited if he gain the whole world and lose his liberty; or what shall or what shall a man give in exchange for his liberty?

Our boys over there are giving their lives in exchange for liberty—you are not asked to give but to lend

While We Pray—Let Us Pay

It will do no good to pray for victory unless we have faith. And faith in this case is War Savings Stamps.

Mothers' boys are dying for you. Time will not heal their wounds. When the war ends, it will end—for you. It will never, never end—for mother.

NORTH CAROLINA WAR-SAVINGS WEEK JUNE 23 TO 28

President Wilson and Governor Bickett have Proclaimed it.

During that week you will be called upon by Government canvassers. You must pledge to buy during the remainder of the year, all the War Savings Stamps that you possibly can.
