

Bracing as a North Wind

At the end of a hard day, just sit down to a cup of Luzianne Coffee. See how you pick up with every savory sip. Luzianne is far, far different from any other coffee. It's got something that all the others seem to lack. And it's packed in dust-proof, moisture-proof cans that bring Luzianne to your kitchen just the same as when it left the roaster. Buy a can and try it for yourself. An iron-clad, air-tight guarantee says that if you are not entirely satisfied with Luzianne, your grocer will give you back your money. And he will.

Support the Government

The successful outcome of this War does not depend altogether on the man behind the gun, but it depends on the man behind the Government. Our Commander-in-Chief is utilizing all the resources of this country for this cause, and WE MUST RALLY AROUND HIM AND SUPPORT HIM WITH ALL OUR MIGHT. This war will be won by America in American style; and we must apply the principle of the Holy Scriptures, "Ask and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock and the door will be opened unto you."

Palmer-Boswell

A wedding of interest throughout Virginia and the South was solemnized at Chase City, Va., Thursday, June 6 at 7 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Boswell became the bride of William Ware Palmer. Miss Boswell is the daughter of Mrs. Alice Leclair Jeffress Boswell and the granddaughter of the late Captain Thomas Jeffress of Chase City. Mr. Palmer is the son of Dr. Jesse Gary Palmer and Mrs. Palmer of Opelika, Ala. The ceremony was performed in the Baptist Church, Rev. H. T. Williams officiating. The church was decorated with American flags, ferns and growing plants. Miss Gladys Hester played the wedding march and Robert Iverson Boswell sang "Constancy" just before the ceremony. As the wedding party left the church the "Star Spangled Banner" was played.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Clarence A. Jeffress of Kinston, wore a gown of white beaded georgette with a veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The only ornament was a pearl necklace, an heirloom in her mother's family and always given to the first daughter marrying. Thomas D. Jeffress and Albee H. Jeffress of Kinston, small cousins of the bride, wearing white suits and carrying American flags, preceded the bridal party. Mrs. N. Edwards Adamson of Portsmouth was matron of honor and wore her own wedding gown of white crepe meter and lace. Miss Rosalie Bryant Geer of Brooklyn was maid of honor and wore rainbow tulle. They carried bouquets of larkspur, corn flowers and field daisies. Miss Margaret Spratling and Miss Sarah Spratling of Portsmouth were the bridesmaids and wore white organdy frocks with green sashes and carried garden hats filled with the same flowers. Dr. Jesse Palmer was best man. The groomsmen were Robert Iverson Boswell of the University of Virginia, Robert T. Williams of Richmond, Eugene Hunter J. Fitch, U. S. N., of New York, T. C. Raymond A. Patterson, U. S. A., of Raleigh, S. C., Edward Aramson, Jr., of Portsmouth, C. A. Jeffress of Kinston, and Arthur Roberts of Chase City.

Reckless Driving

Mr. T. S. Hadley, who lives near Rivers Schoolhouse, has been unfortunate for the past week and a half, because of the recklessness of some auto drivers. He has had four horses killed or injured and finally a Mr. Bail, owner of Bear Grass ran into his farm. A colored boy was driving toward home with the mule hitched to a cart, when Bail, coming racing up behind him, frightened the animal, which commenced to run down the road. Bail never slackened his speed and so when the mule turned to go into the lot gate, the auto struck the animal broadside injuring it severely. The car was broken, and that seemed to be Bail's chief regret. A warrant was issued for Bail's arrest.
