COLLEGE BOYS WIN AN INTERESTING CONTEST

The Williamston High School Basof Robersonville spent Tuesday in ket Ball Team met the strong quin of the Washington Collegiate Institute in the Brick warehouse M night February 28. When the whistle blew to commenct the game every player ran to his place, the centers met and the referee tossed the ball a few feet in the air. Then the game was in full swing with every mar doing his bit. The ball saw both goals only one time in the first five minute but then the W. C. 1. by advantage of their size began to push the ball toward their goal more frequently. Our boys were kept busy trying to keep out of the giants way and had but little time to shoot goals. The first half left us with only six points to our credit and ninteen points to Washington's credit. The second half found more determination in William ston's quint so the Institute had to put forth all their might to keep the ead. The last half passed quick leaving both teams with twelve points to their credit for the last half. The
