UP-TO-DATE STILL CAPTURED The most up-to-date still ever captured in this county wa staken Sun day morning by Sheriff Roberson, Deputy J. T. Edmondson, and Chief Page in the extreme western end of the county. The plant consisted of a good .75 gallon still, a boiler, a heating plant, sugar, meal, malt and such other things as are needed in the manufac ture of liquor. There was no one at the still, al thought it had been run during the night. The plant was located about 200 vards from the county road near the old Coburn place about two miles northwest of Parmele. It is generally believed in that section that the rea owners of the plant are prominent parties of Bethel but tha tit was be ing operated by negroes.
