ESTABLISHED 1898

Thorough Explanation of the New Federal Income Tax Law

The following statement is issued by the Chief of Internal Revenue, William G. Clegg, District of North Carolina.

Form 1060, revised and simplified, for the individual returns of income for the calendar year 1921 of $5,000 and less will be available Wednesday, January 18th, at the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue, Raleigh, N. C., and the following branch offices: Washington, Asheville, Charlotte, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Rocky Mount, Durham, and Raleigh. The statement will be available to the public in the form of a leaflet, and a copy will be sent to every taxpayer who has filed a return for the year 1921. The leaflet will explain the new law in simple, plain language, and will show how the new law will affect the taxpayer's income. It will also show how the new law will affect the taxpayer's liability for income tax.

The new law will affect the taxpayer's liability for income tax in several ways. First, it will increase the number of taxpayers who are liable for income tax. Second, it will increase the amount of tax payable by those who are liable. Third, it will change the method of computing the tax. Fourth, it will change the method of paying the tax. Fifth, it will change the method of collecting the tax.

NEW POSTMASTER INSTALLED TODAY

Mr. Jesse T. Price assumed the duties of the office of Postmaster of Williamston today. Mr. E. B. Wynne, who has served as Postmaster since March 24th, 1916, turned the office over to Mr. Price, the change taking effect at twelve o'clock last night. Miss Daisy Wynne is still Assistant Postmaster and other members of the force remain in office, these positions being under civil service regulation. Mr. Price was connected with the post office for a long while, first as an office boy, clerk and then as Chief Clerk or assistant postmaster and the public is confident that it will receive the same good service under the new administration that it has been getting from the old.

LAW TO BE STRICTLY ENFORCED THIS YEAR

To the parents and physicians of Martin County: I have received a letter from the State Board of Health today in which in 1922 a very accurate record will be kept of the reporting of contagious diseases. The accuracy of reporting one county will be compared with that of another. Especially interesting will be a comparison of the reporting in counties with widespread and part-time county health officers.

Let me say that parents are to be made by parents and teachers, when cases are known to them. If you do not report to report, the health officer should remind you of it and ask you to get a record of the case from our health officer.

Yours very truly,
WM. E. WARREN,
Quarantine Officer.

CRITCHER-ANDREWS

Thursday, January fifth, 1922, in the Church of the Ascension in Norfolk, Virginia, Miss Mildred Crawford Andrews became the bride of Mr. Titus Samuel Critcher, Rev. J. Scott Meredith officiating, using the ring ceremony. Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberson, an aunt and uncle of the bride, her cousins, Mrs. Walter Bogart, Mr. Crawford Roberson and Mrs. W. B. Watts, Dr. Simpson Hadley and the sister of the bride, Miss Vella Andrews.

Mrs. Critcher is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Andrews, and is a young woman of strong character and personality. Mr. Critcher is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Critcher, is associated with his father in the lumber and saw mill business and is popular with the people of his town in both a business and social way.

to him (or her) by blood, marriage, or adoption, is granted the same exception allowed a married person. The normal tax rates are unchanged 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemptions and 8 per cent on the remaining net income. The tax this year, at last, may be paid in full at the time of filing the return, or in four equal installments, due on or before March 15, June 15, September 15, and December 15. Heavy penalties are provided by the new revenue act for failure to file a return and pay the tax on time.

Announcement will be made through the press of the date of release of forms 1040 for filing individuals' returns of income of more than $5,000. Payment of Taxes Permitted in Four Installments. Sec. 250. (c). That except as otherwise provided in this section and sections 221 and 237, the tax shall be paid in four installments, each consisting of one-fourth of the total amount of the tax. The first installment shall be paid at the time fixed by law for filing the return, and the second installment shall be paid on the fifteenth day of the third month, the third installment on the fifteenth day of the sixth month, after the time fixed by law for filing the return. If any installment is not paid when due, the whole amount of the tax unpaid shall become due an payable upon notice and demand by the collector.

N. C. QUOTA FOR NEAR EAST RELIEF $200,000

County officials of the Near East Relief from all parts of North Carolina will convene in Raleigh January 25th in a state conference to discuss methods to be used in raising the state's quota of $200,000 this year for the starving Armenian orphans, it was announced from Raleigh by Col. Geo. H. Bellamy, state chairman.

Speakers of national and statewide prominence will be present if plans of Col. Bellamy go through. A number of county chairmen will also speak. Josephus Daniels, honorary state chairman; John W. Mace, national field secretary; Claude W. Hopper, regional director; and Col. Bellamy are among those slated for addresses. Efforts are being made to bring Congressman William D. Upshaw, the "Billy Sunday of Congress," here and one of North Carolina's delegation.

So far Congressman Hallet S. Ward of Beaufort County has accepted, providing he can get away from Washington. A number of county chairmen have also signified their intention of being in Raleigh for the conference.

The conference will be held for interchange of ideas in raising North Carolina's quota this year. Two years ago the Old North State attained a nationwide prominence by being the first state in the Union to raise their quota. Workers declare this year they will try to duplicate this feat.

The $200,000 is required to feed, clothe and educate 2,334 orphans of Armenian martyrs, entrusted to the care of North Carolina in five of the Near East Relief orphanages. These five are located at Trebizond, a port on the Black Sea. These children were made homeless and parentless by refusal of their forbears to renounce Christ and accept Mohamed.

REGULAR SESSION RECORDERS COURT

The Martin County Court convened Tuesday, January 10th, 1922, with Judge J. C. Smith presiding and Attorney H. Duke Critcher prosecuting in behalf of the State. The following cases were disposed of:

1. State vs. Arthur Slade: Abandonment. Prayer for judgment. Prayer continued till first Tuesday in July, 1922, upon payment of the costs of action and the payment into the office of the clerk of court the sum of $40.00 to be paid to Flora Slade and upon his entering into bond in the sum of $100.00 for his appearance before this court on said first Tuesday in July and show that he has paid to the Clerk the sum of $6.00 each month for the support of child of the said Flora Slade.

2. State vs. John Thomas, A. D. W. Plead not guilty. After hearing the evidence in the case, it appearing to the court probable cause of a secret assault with intent to kill, it is ordered that the Defendant enter into bond in the sum of $500.00 for his appearance before the Superior Court of Martin County at its March term, 1922, and upon his failure to give said bond to be confined in the county jail till the said term of Court.

3. State vs. James Pate. Carrying concealed weapon. Nol pros.

4. State vs. James Pate, Haywood Pate, Sam Pate. Assault with deadly weapon. Nol pros.

5. State vs. Thad Moore. Larceny and Receiving. Found not guilty. As it appeared to the court from the evidence in the case that the prosecution was prompted by malice, was frivolous and not for the common good, it was ordered that the prosecuting witness, Augustus Aynes, be taxed with the costs of the action.
