

Says State Officials Must Pay Their Income Tax

The Commissioner of Revenue holds that, under the income tax provisions of the State constitution and the statute enacted in pursuance thereof, all officers of the State including Justices of the Supreme and judges of the Superior courts, are required to list and pay income tax on their salaries.

The Commissioner holds that this matter has never been decided on by the Supreme Court. The case of Purcell vs. State, 133 N. C. 125, does not decide the only question presented. It was the right of the State to tax the salary of a Federal judge. The right of the State to tax its own judges is a different question. The Commissioner does not recognize that case as being the matter. When the question is properly presented to and decided by the Supreme Court his department will obey its decision.

The Commissioner does not think that levying the same tax upon the salaries of judges is as fair as levying it on all other salaried officers. It is the duty of the Legislature within the meaning and contemplation of the constitution, to provide for the support of the State government. The Commissioner does not think that levying the same tax upon the salaries of judges is as fair as levying it on all other salaried officers.

MORE ABOUT LETTING OTHER FELLOW WORRY

Editor of the Enterprise:—

In your issue of the 17th you carried an article "Let the Other Fellow Worry," which struck me very forcibly. This article speaks the truth from many standpoints. It even pictures in detail many god fellows of whom we have heard in the past. It gives us a picture of the ancient prodigal that threw away all he had and the fellows hit in the said article are only fulfilling the natural desires of men to have ease and pleasure and therefore are only following the natural impulses. It may be in many cases that the class of people referred to have not had the opportunity in the life that the rich have had and therefore are not capable of keeping down their passions and staying in due bounds.

After viewing the other side of life and following the grand cycles thereof we can discover another picture of mankind. We are talking about the fellow that never owes. He stands in an entirely different class. He has no need to restrain himself. He can indulge himself and live sumptuously every day and under the laws of the land and is entirely within the law.

But perhaps there are other ideas that do not bear this idea up. Jesus said in Luke 6:35 "Lend without interest, never despairing." Some of the lexicons describe this verse as meaning "Lend without interest, never taking away the hope of the work and never doubting that God will reward your obedience." Nehemiah's story of his conversion as a leader of the people of God in his commandment against interest is thrilling and in accord with what Jesus said of the same subject. He says there arose a great cry of the people and their wives against their brethren, the Jews. We are mortgaging our fields and our vineyards and our houses.

The true meaning of mortgage is "death grip," and when men are under mortgage they can without doubt feel the grip.

There has always been a wide gulf between the slaves and the master. One is made without thought, the slave; the other by careful study and diligent work. Both exist for a few years and are gone. Men call them selves free and independent but they are not. Money rules them. Some of those in debt are but little wiser than those who are not. Unfortunately the lawyer a man owes under debt the louder he has to call for help and the higher the load of interest that is heaped upon him. Many of those unfortunates are those who have gone to their ruin because they gave a mortgage on their farms that was paid for in order to fix up their homes for the women they loved and who deserved a better home.

Mr. Mobley is a World War veteran, having served in the Tenth Division and was one of those who broke the Hindenburg Line on Sept. 30th, 1918. Mr. Mobley is also the only Williamston boy who received the Croix de Guerre and the D. S. C. for unusual bravery. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mobley have a host of friends in Williamston who will be glad to know that they will reside at their farm about one mile south of Williamston. They will be at home after January 28th.

At the home of their pastor Rev. A. J. Manning, Mrs. Lucy Roberson and Mr. Chas Mobley were united in marriage on Wednesday afternoon, January the eighteenth at two-thirty o'clock by Mr. Manning.

The marriage service was quiet but very impressive and pretty. The only attendants were Misses Sylvia Upthorpe, Thelma Page and Mrs. Manning, Messrs. Cortez Green, brother of the bride, and Mr. Herman Taylor. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr and Mrs. Mobley left by motor for Wilson and Raleigh to visit relatives.

Mrs. Mobley has resided in Williamston for the last few years and for the last year has been an operator for the Williamston Telephone Co. She is very popular in the town and county as a young woman and as an operator.

NEWBERRY HENCHMEN TO GET FEDERAL JOBS

Senator Newberry's henchmen in Michigan who were indicted with him are now receiving their rewards in the way of appointments to prominent Federal positions, according to a statement made recently in the Senate by Senator King (Dem., Utah), who said: "I have on my desk two of the letters to which I referred. One of them states that Mr. Henry C. Myers, of Caro, Mich. has been indicted at Grand Rapids has been nominated for postmaster at Cro one of the best paying offices in the county. The letter says: 'Is this a reward for distributing money to gain a nomination for office?'"

"Myer's name will soon be sent to the Senate for confirmation."

"Another letter which I have states: 'I understand that five major Federal appointments have been made in Michigan under the present administration, and with one exception, i. e., the collector of internal revenue at Detroit, all of such appointments have been from the Newberry organization, and by that I mean men who were indicted with Newberry by a grand jury composed of 16 Republicans and 7 Democrats. Such appointments are as follows:'"

"Earl Davis, recently appointed United States attorney for the eastern district of Michigan; James R. Davis, appointed prohibition officer for this state; Fred Cronquist, division prohibition officer, with offices in this city; and Edward J. Bowman, district attorney for the western district of Michigan."

"It seems as though the President of the United States, in making his appointments, is more interested in rewarding the friends of Mr. Newberry than the supporters and friends of the senior Senator from Michigan (Mr. Townsend)."

Washington, Jan. 12.—There is much astonishment being expressed here at the discovery today that the late Senator Boice Penrose, of Pennsylvania, had $236,100 in idle cash in a safe deposit vault in one of the banks here. The deputy register of wills of the District of Columbia had been requested by the executors of the Penrose will to open the safety deposit box and it he found $236,100 in cash, this five $10,000 notes, the balance in denominations of $1,000, $500, $100, and $50 bills. How long this big amount of idle money had been laid away in the deposit box without drawing interest has not been made known.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The French government has addressed Henry Ford by cable, asking if he would consider the purchase of battleships. In announcing the request late today, Mr. Ford said he had replied that unless he could buy the entire French Navy he would not be interested in job lots. No answer to his cable had been received, he said.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The Fisheries Products Company gives out their spring prices on fertilizers. They offer 8-3-2 at $2.86; T. O. B. Wilmington and Norfolk, 8-3-3 tobacco special at $26.36. The eight pound will make them about $3.00 per ton higher. Their price on 8-2-2 is $2.02.

They require 25 per cent payment to accompany the order and the balance to be paid upon the arrival of the goods. The Fisheries Products Company is very well known in the section of the state where many stockholders of the company scattered throughout the territory. The prices indicate that the ruling prices of all guano will be about the same as that for last year.
