GINGHAM WEEK

INGHAMS have set their caps to catch the feminine world—with qualities that are better, s yles t' at are pretier and the lowes prices that have been named in years.

Who could resist such allurements as these crisp ginghams present? Who would deny thecselves the joy of possessing just lots and it of the ming little trocks; such as could be so early rade from these, the loyliest cinchams you'vs ever seen?

ECON MY? Of course it is. The most emphatic kind.

Ginghams are assuredly at their best durl g GINGHAM WEEK-it is a chance to see the greatest variety of ginghams, the pretties ginghams—which is to say that "it is the best time to choose einghams for your spring and summer requirements.

Japanese Glycerin Production. Until the outbreak of the war all the glycerin used in Japan was imported from the United States and European countries, notes Finance and Commerce (Shanghai), but the enormous demand resulting from the war led to the establishment of a factory under the protection of the Japanese government, which has reduced somewhat the volume of imports of glycerin. Orig-Japan used only fish oil, but are now adding to the supply by using tallow vegetable wax and coconut and bean oils. China's imports of glycerin during 1920 showed a fair increase. of a total valued at about 107,000 haikwan taels, the United Kingdom suppiled over 60,000 taels' worth; Japan 25.000 taels; the United States, 11,000 nels; the Netherlands, 3,000 taels, and Switzerland, 2,500 tacks, while Ger-nany also sent some small supplies. Shanghai is the largest absorbing cen ter, taking about 63 per cent of the toral importations of glycerin into China, The average value of the haikwan
