

To The Public:

A rumor has been circulated that we are about to close our store. This rumor is without any foundation. We never intend to do so; we are doing as much business now as we always have during this season of the year. We are receiving new merchandise every week; and the quality of the merchandise that we offer indicates that we are in business to stay.

We have just received a new line of summer millinery. Including the newest styles for ladies and children at a price of a great saving.
