

ALL DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES WIN IN THE COUNTY ELECTION

All the democratic candidates were elected in Martin county 17 an approximate majority of 1000. The vote cast in Martin county was the smallest in several years. The light vote was due to the fact that the Republican Party did not put out a ticket for county officers in this county. Due to the fact that our office force is impaired and this article is to be sent to another town for the purpose of being set up this article is written on Tuesday night of the election. This article is based upon wireless, telephone and telegraph returns received at 12 o'clock Tuesday night. The Democratic Party seems to have made decided gains in the nation at large. The Democratic candidate for Governor in New York has been elected by a comfortable majority. Governor Edwards has been elected United States Senator from New Jersey. The Democrats have carried California and Tennessee and all indications are that several other Republican States will find themselves in the Democratic column.

ADVERTISING IS OF MOST BENEFIT TO THE CONSUMER

Advertising benefits the consumer—most of all. Advertiser goods are made to protect the consumer for quality and quantity. Think of the infinite variety of prepared foods, from which the greater part of a wholesome meal may be prepared with almost no work for the housewife. Think of the household conveniences and business conveniences—the time savers in your office or home—the accessories which make your automobile a greater pleasure. All of these things are rather intricate. It would cost a small fortune to prepare a few of them for private use. How do you suppose the man who first thought of these things was able to make them for you at a price you could afford to pay? It was through advertising—of course. Advertising organizes co-operative buying units. The man with a new idea knows that he can tell thousands or millions of people about his idea through advertising. He knows that the added buying power of all these people will enable him to produce his idea in practical form at a cost which is only a fraction of what the first article would cost. One of the best examples of how this is done is Eskimo Pie. Within six months after the inventor first had this idea, everybody in the United States knew about these delicious new chocolate covered ice cream bars. This was a spectacular demonstration of how advertising can bring a new idea to the whole American public. But in every advertising success, the same principle holds true. But advertising does more than introduce new ideas to you. It safeguards you in the purchase of any advertised product. You can depend upon it—nothing can succeed through advertising unless the article itself has merit. Advertising a bad product will make just as many enemies for that product as advertising a good product will make friends for the good product. And so, if an article has been widely advertised for a long time, you can be sure that it is good or the public would never have supported it. You know that advertised and trade-marked product must have a definite quality—and be fully worth the price. You can be sure that you get more real value in an advertised product for every penny you spend, than you will in an unadvertised product, because advertising is the cheapest selling method there is. You know the advantages of co-operative buying. You have heard a lot about the idea in the last two or three years. You belong to a cooperative buying society every time you buy an advertised product. Read advertising. Buy advertised products. It is the surest way to be certain of satisfaction and money's worth.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME THE FOUNDATION

When e'er the sills start sagging It's good-bye for the top, The tree will fall whenever The trunk begins to pop. So when we start to weaken In moral doctrines sound Then all that we've constructed Will tumble to the ground. Yes all our civilization, And culture that we prize, Will fall when e'er with Satan We 'gin to compromise. For all things good are founded On beauty, love, and truth; On wise and Godly aged, And noble Christian youth.

NOTICE OF SALE

By virtue of the Authority conferred in me by a Deed of Trust executed to me by B. A. Critcher on the 27th day of October 1919, and duly recorded in the Register of Deeds of Martin county, in Book A-2, Page 223 to secure the payment of a certain bond bearing even date therewith, and the stipulations in said Deed of Trust not having been complied with, I shall expose at public auction for cash, on the 4th day of December 1922 at the Court House in Martin county, the following property: Being and lying in the Town of Williamston, N. C., and bounded as follows: On the south by Main street on the east by Harrell Street, on the north by the lands of P. F. Apfel and on the west by the lands of T. C. Cook and covering one half acre. This lot fronts Main street one hundred and five feet and runs back two hundred and ten feet and is known as the old court house lot. This November fourth, 1922. J. B. H. KNIGHT, Trustee.

DRIVE FOR 1,000 MORE SHARES

The Martin County Building & Loan Association is a local organization which is doing a continuous and wonderful service to the people of this community. It affords the shareholder an opportunity of making a sound, safe and small or large investment, netting over six per cent interest, and giving the investor a chance to build a home, borrow money straight out or other generous offers which shareholders have the privilege of indulging in. A BIG DRIVE IS NOW ON to make this, the 11th Series, now open the largest and best of all the series past. It is strictly a community project, and every citizen, man, woman, boy or girl can become a shareholder. Beginning ON THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9th two teams will thoroughly canvass the Town and vicinity for new subscribers, and it behooves everyone to take in some shares, as many as they can.

The Martin County Building & Loan Association has a strong personnel of Officers and Directors, as follows: Dr. P. B. Cone, President, C. A. Harrison, Vice-president, Wheeler Martin, Secretary & Treasurer, A. T. Crawford, Auditor. The Directors are John D. Biggs, C. D. Castanhan, P. B. Cone, C. A. Harrison, P. B. Cone, C. A. Harrison, Wheeler Martin, K. B. Crawford. THE BIG DRIVE CONSISTS OF TWO TEAMS COMPOSED OF THE FOLLOWING:

No. 1—John D. Biggs, Chairman; E. S. Peel, J. T. Price, J. S. Peel, C. A. Harrison, R. G. Harrison. No. 2—Wheeler Martin, Chairman; K. B. Crawford, Clayton Moore, J. W. Biggs, J. L. Rogerson. These gentlemen are making this drive out of their personal time, absolutely without charge, and for the upbuilding of the community, and pride of the Association.

The Martin County Building & Loan Association is one of the few organizations which came through the rough financial deflations of the past few years, practically unscathed, and it should be a source of great pride to the entire community. The people of Williamston and Martin county are requested to take as much new stock in the great 11th Series, now open, as possible, and help to make this flourishing organization a still greater asset to the community. The members of the teams now canvassing will endeavor to call on as many people as possible, but should anyone be missed don't take it the wrong way, but march on up and offer a subscription anyway. Now is your time; and it is to be hoped the good people of this community will profit thereby.

FEUER-SYKES

A wedding of not only local interest but to friends in New York City as well took place in the local Jewish Synagogue on Tuesday afternoon when Miss Chi Iselien Sykes was married to Mr. L. W. Feuer of New York City. Rabbi Chain Leckfetes performed the ceremony. The temple was tastily decorated with white chrysanthemums and candles burned in the altar.

Miss Sykes who is a noted beauty, tall, stately brunette, who is a great social favorite, entered the synagogue in the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a wedding gown of white satin with baby's breath trimmings and wore a wedding veil with orange blossoms. The bridesmaids wore dresses of yellow chiffon with brown satin girdles and carried bunches of large chrysanthemums.

When the bride left the synagogue she wore around her a fur wrap trimmed which fell to the bottom of her skirt, and was the gift of her father. Mr. Feuer had as his best man, Frank J. Margolis, of Williamston, formerly of New York City. Mr. Feuer who has travelled in this section for several years is a young man of pleasing personality and has made many friends since coming to this city. After a wedding trip to Asheville, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Feuer will temporarily reside at the Astor Hotel until their residence which is on the course of construction is completed.

Mr. Gray is Vice-president of the Norfolk Bank of Commerce, and is well known in banking circles throughout the East. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Martin of Jamesville, were here last week shopping.

WEEKLY COTTON NEWS

Raleigh, Nov. 6.—Objection by the Textile World, a leading cotton manufacturing journal, to the loaning of money by the War Finance Corporation to hold cotton, is without basis so far as the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association is concerned, according to Secretary Ashley E. Bing.

More than three million dollars was loaned during October by Tar Heel bankers, Mr. Bing states, for advances to members and some loans were secured outside the State, but the government has not been asked for a cent.

The War Finance Corporation tentatively agreed to advance as much as ten million dollars to the Tar Heel cooperatives, but the fine cooperation received from bankers will make it unnecessary to use any of this credit, according to present indications.

The cotton cooperatives are recognized as an important factor in the cotton trade as is indicated by the editorial in the Textile World, which suggests that an investigation of their activities be made by the Congressional committee appointed to look into the operations of the cotton exchanges. While endorsing cooperative selling as a general principle, the textile paper objects to the use of government credit for the purpose, as it alleges, of bulging the cotton market.

The Tar Heel cooperatives will get into their permanent quarters in the old Academy of Music building in Raleigh this week. While the building which was leased three months ago was being remodeled, the headquarters staff occupied temporary quarters in a garage.

The drive made this month for "distress" cotton has met with fine success, according to General Manager U. B. Blalock, who states that cotton is being delivered in large quantities to the Association, and he expects this to continue through this and next month.

The headquarters staff has been swamped with the mass of work, and some delay has been necessary in getting out grades and staples to members who have delivered cotton. The office force is working night and day to get these out, it is stated, but grading cotton can only be done in the daytime, and cloudy days interfere with classing activities.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 12

JESUS THE GREAT TEACHER

LESSON TEXT—Luke 9:20-49. GOLDEN TEXT—As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.—Luke 6:31.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 23:1-12; Luke 11:1-13; Col. 3:1-4.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Teaching Us to Love Everybody.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Living by the Golden Rule.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Golden Rule in Everyday Life.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Teaching Us How to Live Together.

1. Characteristics of the Subjects of the Kingdom (vv. 20-26). Only those who are subjects of the Kingdom know what blessedness is. The spiritual experience of the subjects of the Kingdom are marked by the following steps:

1. Poverty of Spirit (v. 20). This means consciousness of one's lost condition and worthlessness. It is spiritual bankruptcy. It means to come to the end of self and to show sorrow for sins.
2. Hunger for Righteousness (v. 21). The one who has come to know his poverty desires the true righteousness of Christ.
3. Weeping Because of His Lack (v. 21). This is the godly sorrow which worketh repentance (II Cor. 7:10). Those who thus sorrow are assured that they shall laugh.
4. Treatment Which the Subjects of the Kingdom May Expect (vv. 22, 23). When the subjects of the Kingdom become like the King they invite the hatred, contempt and persecution of the world. Those who pass through this for Christ's sake should rejoice, for there is great reward laid up for them.
5. The Governing Principles of the Kingdom (vv. 27-28).
 1. Love Your Enemies (v. 27). To love friends is easy, but to love enemies is only possible to those who have been made partakers of the divine nature.
 2. Do Good to Those Who Hate You (v. 27). Love acts according to its own nature. Enmity only stimulates love to act in harmony with its own laws.
 3. Bless Them That Curse You (v. 28). Injury by words is hard to let go unchallenged.
 4. Pray for Them Which Despitefully Use You (v. 28). Christ's own example is the best commentary on this precept (Luke 23:34; cf. Acts 7:60).
 5. Patiently Endure Wrong and Injury (v. 29). The Christian is not to bristle up in defense of his rights, but rather to suffer insult, injury and even loss. This should not be pressed so far that evildoers can go unchecked. It expresses the law which should govern individual action.
 6. Give to Every One That Asketh (v. 30). This does not necessarily mean that the thing asked for should be given. We should give to every one that asketh, but not necessarily the thing asked for.
 7. Do as You Wish to Be Done By (v. 31). This is called the "Golden Rule." If men were to live by this rule, the labor problem would be solved. An end would be put to war. International relations would be peacefully adjusted and all profiteering in business would end.
 8. Be Merciful (v. 36). The mercy of the Heavenly Father is the grand example.
 9. Censorious Judgment Condemned (v. 37). We should not seek out the evil in others for our satisfaction.
 10. Danger of Following False Teachers (v. 39). The one who does not know God and the way to heaven will lead others to ruin. Happily, we have the Scriptures, and the Holy Spirit is ready to make their meaning known, so there is no excuse.
 11. Those Who Reprove Others Should Strive to Live Blameless Lives (vv. 31-46). It is easy to see others' faults, but hard to see our own.
 12. The Sin of Profession Without Fruits (v. 46). The one who professes a life and fellowship with God should practice the principles which reveal the nature of God.
 13. The Judgment to Be Applied to the Subjects of the Kingdom (vv. 47-49).
 1. The one who hears and does the sayings of Christ the King shall be as secure as the house built upon the solid rock. The storms of the judgment cannot destroy him, for the Rock of Ages is immovable.
 2. The one who hears and does not the sayings of Christ shall be overthrown in the judgment and go down to utter ruin and destruction.

6. Give to Every One That Asketh (v. 30). This does not necessarily mean that the thing asked for should be given. We should give to every one that asketh, but not necessarily the thing asked for.

7. Do as You Wish to Be Done By (v. 31). This is called the "Golden Rule." If men were to live by this rule, the labor problem would be solved. An end would be put to war. International relations would be peacefully adjusted and all profiteering in business would end.

The Dangerous Lie. Every lie, great or small, is the brink of a precipice, the depth of which nothing but omniscience can fathom.—C. Roade.

TOBACCO GROWERS WILL GET MORE MONEY NOVEMBER 13TH

The directors of the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association have named next Monday 13th as the date of the second cash payment to every member of the Association who has delivered tobacco in South Carolina and three border counties of North Carolina.

Thousands of checks have been mailed to officials of the Association throughout the South Carolina belt and will be distributed upon presentation of the participation receipts by members at the markets where they were issued.

Oliver J. Sands, Executive Manager, James H. Craig, Treasurer of the association and other directors and officials will address the growers at mass meetings on November 13th and 14th at Mullins, Kingstree, Florence, Dillon and several other points throughout the South Carolina belt.

The opening of the Association's dark warehouses this week at Lynchburg, Farmville, Bedford, Appomattox, Amherst, Arrington, Phoenix, Dillwyn, Cumberland, Amelia, Columbia, Ashland, Milford, Richmond, Petersburg, Blackstone, Drakes Branch and Brookneal marked the successful operation of the Association in handling tobacco of all types grown in the Carolinas and Virginia. The announcement of its directors that the Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association will go the limit in protecting its contract by bringing legal action against contract breakers has been followed by 63 suits against alleged offenders in North Carolina alone. These suits involve close to $50,000 in liquidated damages and attorney's fees and are scheduled for late November.

More than a thousand Virginia members of the Association welcomed Oliver J. Sands, Executive Manager of the Association at enthusiastic mass meetings in Danville and Chatham last Saturday. Mr. Sands told of the good averages for which association tobacco has sold throughout the old belt from Aberdeen to Alta Vista and said: "We have not yet found any merchant, banker, business man or farmer, who would hesitate to frankly state that if it had not been for the Association the present prices being paid on the warehouse floors would not be in existence today. It is conceded by all tobacco men that the present crop of tobacco will yield in the Old Belt around 250,000,000 pounds net whereas the last year's crop of tobacco, which was considered a short crop ran around 157,000,000 pounds and averaged $21.90. Therefore we think we have been of great service to the tobacco growers in the three states and will by a conservative estimate put $10,000,000.00 more money in this section than there would have been had the Association not been in existence."
