A ton of pork from one litter of pigs can be produced at seven months of age if the pigs are raised under sanitary surroundings and fed properly, say live stock workers of the agricultural extension service.

Black and the receding colors such as dark blue and dark green used in materials without luster tend to reduce proportions and are becoming to a stout woman.

A local merchant in Pitt county is running a 2400 egg incubator for a local stock company. Farmers can have their eggs hatched for 3 cents each, reports W. B. Pace, county agent.

NEW USE FOR MOUSE TRAPS

The mouse trap has a new government job. Finding English sparrows, which have been committing serious depredations on the immature corn and mungo beans growing in the experimental plots of the federal experiment station at Honolulu, Hawaii, too wary to eat poisoned grain, the mouse trap was called into service.

In the corn plots, the traps are wired to partly eaten ears. For bait a soft kernel is used. When the bird attempts to eat the innocent looking bait, the trigger is released and the pufferer caught by the head or neck. Death is instantaneous. For the mungo beans, the traps are also baited with soft corn and fast on the ground near the plants.

TIMBER SUPPLY IN THE UNITED STATES IS NOW BECOMING VERY SHORT

In the course of about 75 years most of our enormous natural wealth in virgin timber has been consumed or converted into other forms of capital, says Col. William B. Greeley, chief of the forest service, United States department of agriculture. With industrial progress, the rapid consumption of timber increased until, a few years ago, advancing prices and depletion of supplies turned the tide.

"We are still living mainly on our forest capital," says Colonel Greeley, "and to meet our current needs we are not merely drafting the insufficient reserves of remaining mature timber, but also drawing heavily on growing stock that has not yet reached saw timber size. The accident of a sudden crisis less than three years ago sent lumber prices skyward, so fast that public attention was sharply drawn to the situation and an inquiry ordered.

"The crisis passed, but the inquiry made clear that the nation had experienced a brief preliminary symptom of the economic stringency which must come as the full consequences of our past and present course work out. The availability of accurate information is essential to every effort in the whole process of restoring the balance between the timber used and the timber growth."

LIVE STOCK ORGANIZATION SETS YARD PRICE RECORD

A net return of 96 per cent of stock yard prices for a five year period is the record set by a Litchfield, Minn., live stock shipping association, according to the United States department of agriculture. During the period covered, 996 cars containing 47,263 hogs, 12,011 calves, 9,252 cattle, and 3,113 sheep were marketed at a gross price of $2,277,667.12. Expenses of marketing were approximately $88,000, thus permitting a net return to the farmers of $2,189,512.25.

Freight charges constituted the largest single item of marketing cost, being 38.2 per cent of the total, but as the shipping point is only 80 miles from the South St. Paul stock yards, the freight charges are considered smaller than for an organization at a more distant point. The manager's commission and expenses, yard expenses, and stacking fund totaled $18,170. Total marketing expenses, including the freight, switching, and war tax, selling commission, feed, weighing, inspection insurance and yardage, were $48,370.19.

Nearness to market is an important factor making possible the return of 96.12 per cent of gross receipts. As the distance of associations from market increases and freight charges increase, the central market expenses form a larger percentage of the total cost of marketing, the department of agriculture says.

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 18

JESUS AND ZACCHAEUS

LESSON TEXT—Luke 19:1-10. GOLDEN TEXT—For the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost—Luke 19:10.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Prov. 1:18-19; Matt. 9:13; Luke 16:1-12. PRIMARY TOPIC—Having Jesus for a Saviour. JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus in the Home of Zacchaeus. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Jesus Saved an Extortioner. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christian Standards in Business.

I. Jesus Passing Through Jericho

Jericho is noted as the stronghold of the Canaanites, which was miraculously delivered into the hands of Israel in response to their faith (Josh. 6), and also for the faith of Rahab, which saved her from destruction with the city (Heb. 11:30, 31).

II. Zacchaeus Seeking Jesus

1. His Object (v. 3). He sought to see who Jesus was. Though perhaps prompted by curiosity he eagerly sought Jesus. He doubtless had heard of Jesus' kind treatment of publicans, so was prompted to see what kind of a man He was.

2. His Difficulties (v. 2, 3). (1) His infamous business (v. 2). He was a tax collector of the Roman government. The very fact that a Jew held such an office under the hated Romans would make him extremely unpopular. Then since he was rich it was evident that he had practiced extortion in collecting the taxes. (2) His shortness of stature (v. 3). He was too small to crowd his way through to Jesus, and being hated by the people they thrust him aside, no doubt with taunts and jeers. (3) His persistence (v. 4). He ran before the multitude and climbed up into a tree. What he lacked in stature he made up by the height of the tree. Obstacles placed before him he brushed aside and those he could not brush aside he climbed over, because he had set his heart upon the goal. Though Zacchaeus' legs were too short to enable him to see Jesus they were long enough to run past the crowd and enable him to climb the tree. It was somewhat undignified for this rich man to climb the tree, but his soul was so desirous to see Jesus that he cast his pride to the winds.

III. Jesus Finding Zacchaeus

While Zacchaeus was trying to see Jesus, Jesus was looking for him. This is always the case. When Jesus saw him he commanded him to come down from the tree and declared his intention to go home with him. Zacchaeus did more than he expected. Jesus did not utter a word, which would humiliate Zacchaeus. Jesus knew his heart's desire and dealt accordingly with him. All souls who earnestly seek Jesus shall be found of Him. How wonderful His grace, that regardless of one's past life, that Jesus will receive him as a friend and enter into fellowship with him. Zacchaeus quickly responded. He came down and with joy received Jesus.

IV. Zacchaeus' Conversion

His conversion was sudden and thorough. He was converted before he had reached the ground. It does not take Jesus long to save a soul. 1. What the Crowd Said (v. 7). They said just what they say today when sinners come to Christ. They called to mind the man's former sins. They also reproached Christ, saying that he had come to be a guest of this notorious extortioner, the tax collector. His supreme mission was to save sinners, but to save us; not to shame and destroy us, but to save from sin and reconcile us to God our Father.

2. What Zacchaeus Said (v. 8). His conversion was thorough. It took hold upon his heart. His new life was begun with resolution and restitution. He dedicated the half of his goods to the poor. His conversion got hold of his pocketbook. His determination to make restitution wherein he had wrongfully exacted taxes shows the genuineness of his conversion. While God forgets the past of a sinner when he comes to Christ, the sinner who is converted will seek to make right all wrongs he by unkind words or unrighteous deeds.

3. What Jesus Said (v. 9, 10). "Today is salvation come to thy house." The publican was now a child of God, a son of Abraham. Salvation is a present reality when one receives Christ.

Few Good Lies.

As universal a practice as lying is, and as easy a one as it seems, I do not remember to have heard three good lies in all my conversation.—Swift.

Withdrawing Friendship.

They seem to take away the man from the world who withdraws friendship from life.—Cicero.

He Who Rules.

He who rules must honor first as much as he commands.—George Eliot.

Frequent Headaches

"I suffered with chronic constipation that would bring on very severe headaches," says Mrs. Stephen H. Kinser, of R. F. D. 1, Grapple Creek, Va. "I tried different medicines and did not get relief. The headaches became very frequent. I heard of and took it for a headache, and the relief was very quick, and it was so long before I had another headache. Now I just keep the Black-Draught, and don't let myself get in that condition."

Theford's Black-Draught (purely vegetable) has been found to relieve constipation, and by stimulating the action of the liver, when it is torpid, helps to drive many poisons out of your system. Biliousness, indigestion, headache, and similar troubles are often relieved in this way. It is the natural way. Be natural. Try Black-Draught. Sold everywhere.
