FUNNY, ISN'T IT? Isn't it funny? That a man who thinks he is a business man will get up in the morning from a newspaper advertised mattress, shave with an advertised razor, and put on advertised underwear, advertised shirt, collar, tie and shoes, seat himself at the table and eat advertised breakfast food, drink advertised coffee, put on an advertised hat, light an advertised cigarette, ride to his place of business in an advertised car, seat himself at an advertised desk, in an advertised chair, then turn down a newspaper advertising solicitor on the ground that advertising does not pay. —Sam Little, Ada, (Okla.) Evening News.

ENTHUSIASM WORTH MORE THAN ALL OTHER ASSETS

To The Enterprise: Under the heading of "Are We Able?" we notice that your paper states: "When it comes to enthusiasm, Williamston has got it." The town to the ordinary observer, seems to lack many things, among them money, so why not make a capital of its enthusiasm? Need we say more than quote Henry Chester as follows: Enthusiasm is the greatest asset in the world. It beats money and power and influence. Single handed the enthusiast convinces and dominates where wealth accumulated by a small army of workers would scarcely raise a tremor of interest. Enthusiasm tramples over prejudice and opposition, spurs in action, storms the citadel of its object, and like an avalanche over whelms and engulfs all obstacles. It is nothing more or less than faith in action. Faith and initiative rightly combined remove mountainous barriers and achieve the unheard-of miraculous. Set the germ of enthusiasm afloat in your plant, in your office, or on your farm; carry it in your attitude and manner; it spreads like contagion and influences every fibre of your industry before you realize it; it begets and inspires effect; you did not dream of; and it means increase in production and decrease in cost; it means joy and pleasure and satisfaction to your workers; it means real life, real virtue; it means spontaneous bed-rock results—vital things that pay dividends. Fannie Chase Station.

IS A MYSTERY WHY A FARMER SHOULD NOT WANT COUNTY AGENT.

We published in Tuesday's issue, an article by a gentleman signing his name "A Martin County Farmer." It will be easy to understand that this particular farmer is very much opposed to a county demonstration agent. We are glad to give the gentleman space and perhaps his idea has many friends; (it may be that a majority of the people of the county approve it.)

It is really amusing to see a man go wise that he needs no help, and it seems to us that a person who wants no help is helpless. So far as we know, the merchants, bankers, nor officers have to desire to thrust anything on the farmer that would injure him. And there is no doubt but that the merchants, bankers and officers who are willing to pay taxes to pay a man to help the farmers are doing it for no other purpose than to help the farmers' condition in life.

It is true that we have many good farmers who perhaps need no help, but on the other hand, there are lots of them who not only need help, but seriously need it. "A Martin County Farmer" advised two good things; one was that every home should spend as much as $1.00 for a good farm paper; the other was that each farmer spend a penny for a postal card to get agricultural bulletins. This advice is fine; it is almost a crime for a farmer not to take a farm paper. Nothing helps more. They should also read all state and national bulletins that treat on our crops. Still a tax of four cents on each citizen of the county would put a county agent on full time.

Many people would not profit a cent directly from the service of an agent, but most of us have some friends who would. We must admit that the wealth of this section comes from farm products, almost exclusively, and some folks think that the merchants and bankers and officers who would kick on paying a small amount of taxes to help the farmer is either selfish or ignorant. Of course we can't understand why a farmer should oppose it and will undertake no explanation.

LESSON FOR MARCH 25

JESUS THE WORLD'S SAVIOR

GOLDEN TEXT—This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.—1 Timothy 1:15. PRIMARY TOPIC—Favorite Story of the Quarter. JUNIOR TOPIC—Favorite Lessons of the Quarter. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus' Picture of Jesus. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Lessons From Luke's Gospel.

The method of review must be determined by the grade of the class, by the test of the teachers and by the nature of the studies of the quarter. Three methods are suggested:

- (1) Centering in the Topic—Jesus the World's Savior. This method is suggested by Doctor Crannell. I. The World's Liberator. 1. From Diseases. Lessons 1, 5, 8. 2. From "Legalism." Lesson 1. 3. From Pride. Lessons 2, 6. 4. From Selfishness. Lessons 2, 5, 6. 5. From Prejudice. Lesson 7. 6. From the Sinful Past. Lesson 7. II. The World's Teacher. 1. About Sin and Salvation. Lesson 8. 2. About Human Duty: (a) To Others. Lessons 2, 4. (b) To God. Lessons 5, 8, 9. (c) To State. Lesson 9. (d) With Money. Lessons 4, 8, 9. 3. About Prayer. Lesson 4. III. The World's Sacrificer. 1. Sacrifice Faced, Accepted. Lesson 10. 2. Sacrifice Rendered. Lesson 11. (2) Modern Applications of the Lessons. This scheme calls for reports by members of the class to whom assignments were previously made. This is taken from Peloubet's Notes. Lesson I. "What should we keep of the old-time Sabbath?" Lesson II. "Why is it hard to be humble today?" Lesson III. "Are our churches really open to the prodigals?" Lesson IV. "What should our rich men do for our Lazaruses?" Lesson V. "Men and women who deserve much gratitude and receive little." Lesson VI. "What may we reasonably expect from prayer?" Lesson VII. "Why is it hard for a modern business man to be a Christian?" Lesson VIII. "How the church should utilize its average members." Lesson IX. "How can we get our church members to give as much as they should?" Lesson X. "Things that Christians do not grieve enough over." Lesson XI. "How the message of the cross might be brought to all men in a generation."

(3) The Central Teaching of the Lessons: Lesson I. There is no malady of man connected with soul or body which Jesus cannot heal. Lesson II. Unselfishness will move one to humbly take the lowest place in life, esteeming others better than himself. Lesson III. God is longing and waiting to welcome to His bosom the vilest sinner who comes with contrition of heart. Lesson IV. The one who lives only for this life shall surely suffer agony and torment in the life to come. Lesson V. Ingratitude is common to the natural heart. The Lord expects those who experience His salvation to give Him their love. Lesson VI. Those who pray to God in the right spirit shall surely get the blessings sought. Lesson VII. The supreme purpose of the coming of Jesus Christ to the earth, taking upon Himself our humanity, and dying on the cross was to save lost men. Lesson VIII. Upon those who have not been faithful in the use of gifts the Lord shall execute judgment at His coming. Lesson IX. We are responsible to God, but God measures our gifts by the extent of our ability. Lesson X. Bitter agony was suffered by Christ when He bore our sins. Lesson XI. In Christ's death a full price was paid for our sins.

What God Remembers. "I," says God, "will remember." How sweet to think of what God will, and what He will not, remember! He will remember His own covenant, but He will not remember His people's sins. The cross, which rattles the former, puts away the latter.—G. H. McIntosh.

God's Offer. Back of our ignorance and uncertainty God stands with His offer of wisdom and guidance to all who will ask it.

No Truer Picture. There is no truer picture of what history reveals than a crucifix.—Rev. G. A. Studdert Kennedy.

The Lie. Sin has many toads, but a lie is the handle that fits them all.—O. W. Holmes.

When D. C. Wilson opened an evening class in art for business men at Milwaukee, he didn't create much enthusiasm. But when he announced that after the due preliminary training, the class would draw from nude models, art began to get popular.

666 Quickly Relieves a Cold.

lar around business circles. Now the class can be seen hand at work over their drawings—glancing, drawing—glancing at the model—reconstructing—and glancing at the model.
