

TWO WEEKS' SERVICE BEGIN AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH ON SUNDAY

SERVICES TO BE HELD TWICE DAILY, AT 11:00 A. M. AND 8:00 P. M.

Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock will mark the beginning of a series of services to be held at the Church of the Advent, Episcopal here, by Rev. John Hartley, Ph. D., which will continue for two weeks following, through June 10th.

The services Sunday morning will be held at the Church of the Advent, and the Sunday night services will be held at the Chautauqua tent which will constitute a union service of all the churches of Williamston, and the Chautauqua artists who are here at that time will take part in these services rendering sacred music, which is expected to attract a very large congregation for this service.

All other services will be held at the Church of the Advent.

Rev. Mr. Hartley is a pronounced teacher of the gospel, and through his sensational he delivers the truths of the Bible in a very forceful and easily understood manner. Rev. Geo. F. Hill, of Elizabethtown, is following to say of Mr. Hartley: "The Rev. John Hartley, Ph. D., is an experienced preacher. His sermons and addresses are full of illustrations, carefully planned, simply expressed, and will make you think and do you good."

This is as much as any one can say for any minister, and we feel certain that after this series of meetings at the Church of the Advent by Rev. Mr. Hartley, Williamston will be still a better and cleaner city for God and Christianity than before. It has been preceded by two earnest and powerful ministers this year, who have both shown improvement in the Godliness of our citizens, and we are satisfied that results will come from his efforts also.

Rev. Mr. Hartley is not a sensational minister but gives the truths of God's Word in a manner that commands even the most wicked to give undivided attention to his sermons and lectures, and those who miss this series of services will miss the opportunity to learn much about the Holy Book and its teachings that the average man does not learn by ordinary reading of the Bible.

INTEREST GROWS IN REVIVAL MEET AT HAMILTON NOW

PEOPLE GET MORE INTERESTED IN SOUL WELFARE AS THE MEETING CONTINUES

The revival at Hamilton is well under way, and interest is growing at every service. It is predicted that the large tent will be filled by the last of the week. The Ed. G. Caldwell Evangelistic party, of Dillon, S. C., are in charge of the services. There are two services daily, 9:00 a. m., and 8:00 p. m.

On Sunday there will be three services with subjects as follows: 11:15 a. m., "Play Ball," a special baseball sermon, using baseball terms and illustrations; 3:30 p. m., "Show Thyself a Man," for men only. A special service for women will be held in the Methodist church at the same hour, 8:00 p. m., "Lay the Axe at the Foot of the Tree," a sermon on modern morals and modern conditions.

The services at Hamilton are now concluding the first week, and much good has already been done in the community. People who have a way believed themselves as good as the other fellow who makes a bigger show have been shown that a Christian is known by his deeds by all his fellow associates. And that if you are one of the self-styled Christians who do nothing evil in your own sight but also do nothing for Christianity, you have a small chance of getting to Heaven. Rev. Mr. Caldwell has made plain the fact that a Christian will not be satisfied just to refrain from evil himself, but will do all in his power to help his fellow man who is laboring under the strings of the devil. The selfishness of the world constitutes as much sin as any other form of sin that has been created on green earth, and a man is led by this sin easier than any other, for it is hard for a man who does not turn himself wholly over to God's work to realize that he is what he really is, and not what he pretends to be.

Jesus Christ spent his entire life for humanity of the world, retiring nothing for Himself. The Christian on earth who live the life of Jesus Christ will be happy in Heaven; those who live for selfish interests here on earth more than they do for the welfare of their fellowman will in eternity realize that they have allowed men and women to go to hell who could have been saved from eternal suffering, and given eternal life in its stead. The average person who realizes this fact and will make a mental picture in their imagination of what the hereafter will be will do no less than shudder at the thought of the horrors that will present themselves in the world to come.

Rev. Mr. Caldwell is dwelling on these subjects that cannot have too much emphasis, and all who are interested in their hereafter can do no better than spend their time at his services.

SUNDAY SERVICES AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. M. R. Chambers, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., Mr. J. E. Pope, superintendent. Preaching at 11:00 a. m. by the pastor. Subject: "Scripture Holiness." Let the new members especially be present and learn just what the doctrine of the church is on this important subject. At the same hour the doors of the church will be opened for membership. All who are contemplating joining soon will do well to unite with the church now, as the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered the following Sunday. No service Sunday night.

Messrs. A. J. Hardison and Ira T. Hardison went to Williamston yesterday.

Misses Effie Griffin, Alma Mizell, and Lillian Peel and Mr. Hubert Hardison and Mr. Jos. Gray Corey motored to Washington yesterday.

Mr. Arnold of Wilson will preach at Maple Grove church Saturday night, May 26th. He wishes to see a large crowd out.

Mr. J. R. Corey went to Jamestown yesterday to attend to business.

GOOD OPPORTUNITY FOR TEACHERS OF MARTIN COUNTY

SUMMER SCHOOL TO BEGIN ON JUNE 11TH FOR THE BENEFIT OF TEACHERS

Martin county will have six weeks summer school, which will begin on June 11th.

Every teacher in the county should take advantage of this opportunity. There is no better place for a teacher to get the real fundamental principals needed by a teacher as is found in the county summer schools.

No profession or business will be required to make such advancement in the next decade as the teaching profession and those who are fitted by thorough training or pre-eminently natural ability will have to go.

The time has been that a high school chap, whose head in many instances was lighter than gas, could go out and mash a community, draw the pay and go away, but unless the signs of the times fall, the day has done and passed for such things and there is growing a strong demand for more real stuff in a teacher than used to be. The day of mystifying the folks with a few wise phrases is done and passed, and the demand now is for real manhood and womanhood for teachers.

So far as advising people to teach for a work of profit and ease, we refuse, for nothing requires more work and offers less pay. But those who will teach must prepare themselves, that they may be able to convey knowledge that better fits people as citizens.

The summer school should be full to overflowing. You get good work and reasonable rates.

MRS. HENRIETTA PEEL McCRAW PASSED AWAY

Died Suddenly in Petersburg Monday Night; Interment Here On Wednesday

Mrs. Henrietta Peel McCraw died very suddenly at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. Lee Mingo in Petersburg, Virginia, on Monday night. She had retired about ten o'clock and a few minutes later Mrs. Mingo heard her call, and went to her room and found her in a dying condition, life lasting only a few moments longer.

She had been in declining health for the past two years and last summer came here on account of her ill health to have the constant care of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Peel. Several weeks ago she went to Petersburg to have the services of a specialist and to visit her sister. Since that time her condition seemed to improve and on Monday she had seemed unusually strong and was feeling all right when the members of the family left her shortly after ten o'clock that night.

Mrs. McCraw was the daughter of Mrs. Mary Rogers Peel and the late Joe Peel. She was born in Williamston in 1880 living here until her marriage to William Polk McCraw of Littleton about fifteen years ago. Since that time they have made Tarboro their home until her health became so impaired.

In her girlhood she connected herself with the Methodist church, being a member of St. James Methodist church at Tarboro at her death. Her love for her religion and her church was always uppermost in her life and for years she did much work in the organizations of the church. She was devoted to her friends and she has a host of them who have watched with deepest concern her sad struggle to regain her health and strength.

She had one child which died in infancy. Surviving her besides her husband and mother are three sisters: Mrs. F. Lee Mingo of Petersburg; Mrs. G. W. Hardison and Miss Estelle Rivers Peel and one brother, Herbert Peel of Florence, S. C. She was a grand niece of Elder Sylvester Haysell of this city.

The remains reached Williamston on the noon train Wednesday and after funeral services conducted from the residence of her mother, by Rev. M. R. Chambers and her pastor of Tarboro, they were taken to the Baptist cemetery where interment took place at 5 o'clock.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
A. J. Manning, Pastor

CLINIC HERE HAS HAD A VERY BUSY WEEK OPERATING

CLINIC COMPLETES WORK HERE TODAY AND GOES TO BERTIE NEXT WEEK

The clinic here operated on 100 children the first four days of the operation of the state hospital for school children. Dr. C. J. Sawyer of Windsor operated Monday and Tuesday and Dr. H. W. Carter of Washington operated Wednesday, Thursday and today.

People are highly pleased with the doctors, nurses, and in fact the whole outfit, and some are praising the state for making it so easy that even the poorest as well as the ablest may come.

The saddest part is that many have to be turned away because room is not great enough and the time is not long enough to care for all who wish to be treated.

Let us hope that the state will send this splendid outfit to our county again soon.

Miss Sykes and Superintendent Manning brought in more children than come in most counties, and the proportion of payers in Martin was larger than the average in most of the counties visited.

They expect to operate on 25 more today and go to Bertie county next week.

IMPORTANT MEETING TO BE HELD AT THE COURT HOUSE MAY 29

At a joint meeting of the board of education, the board of county commissioners and the committeemen of the schools of the county will be held on May 29th at ten o'clock a. m., at the court house in Williamston.

The purpose of this meeting is to prepare the school budget for the next school year, and to formulate plans for the advancement of education throughout the entire county. These plans must conform to the new school law passed at the recent session of the legislature of North Carolina.

It is earnestly desired that every committeeman come to this meeting with the needs of his school carefully prepared, so they may be submitted for consideration.

A. J. Manning, Superintendent.

WASHINGTON LADY OVERCOME BY GAS AND BURNED CAUSING HER DEATH

Disconnected Gas Tube Ignited From Gas Heated Is Cause of Her Tragic Death

WASHINGTON, May 23. — Miss Jennie Burbank, aged seventy one, was either burned to death or asphyxiated at the home of her niece Miss Mayme Burbank, corner of 4th and Market streets this afternoon. When found Miss Burbank was lying on the floor in the bath room dead, with several burned places on her body.

Miss Burbank, who was almost totally deaf, went to the bath room for the purpose of taking a bath and the furnace pilot lighted the automatic heater and the heater for heating the room. After she had been in the room a while her niece went to the room and started to open it. Miss Burbank said she would be out within a few minutes. Waiting for some fifteen minutes her niece

BILL BOOSTER SAYS

AM A BOOSTER! I AM FOR EVERYTHING THAT IS FOR THE GOOD OF THE COUNTY. I AM FOR GOOD ROADS, BRASS BANDS, PUBLIC LIBRARIES, PAVED STREETS, SCHOOLS, CHAUTAUQUAS, COMMERCIAL CLUBS, MEMORIALS, YOUTH CELEBRATIONS AND SO ON! I AM A BOOSTER!

NEW BOAT LINE FROM NORFOLK TO WILLIAMSTON

SAILINGS BEGAN WEDNESDAY; TWO BOATS A WEEK WILL BE THE SCHEDULE

The Norfolk, Baltimore and Carolina Line, which has been operating a boat as far this way as Edenton, for some time in the past, has now lengthened the line to Plymouth and Williamston.

The sailings to Williamston began Wednesday, the "Clytie" making its initial trip, and will be continued making Williamston twice a week, Wednesdays and Saturdays. This line has been operating a successful line out of Norfolk as far as Edenton for some time, and the success of these sailings have been such that the company has faith in the business of this section, and has lengthened the sailing to Williamston. The company handles freight from other lines from the North into Norfolk, and will be glad to take charge of the transfer of freight at Norfolk for businessmen of this section.

The local agency will be handled by Mr. C. D. Carstarphen, who will do his utmost to give satisfaction at this end of the line, and use his influence if needed with the company for any favors that may be needed by the business interests here at the Norfolk end of the line. The Norfolk, Baltimore and Carolina Line are very fortunate in securing Mr. Carstarphen to handle their interests here, and we predict that the sailings to Williamston will be made a success if for no other reason than that Mr. Carstarphen has charge of the line's interests here.

CHAUTAUQUA MAKES A VERY GOOD START HERE THIS WEEK

THE ATTRACTIONS ARE BETTER THAN WAS EXPECTED BY MANY

The Swarthmore Chautauqua opened its most pleasing entertainment at the big tent on the school yard Wednesday afternoon.

Up to this time the high points in the program was the Wednesday night lecture by Dr. Grove Herbert, his subject being the "Crisis and the Call." This was a real challenge to men and women of all classes to play square. The presentation of present conditions of affairs was full of information.

The concert Wednesday and Wednesday night by Margery Jane Page and lady associates was a feature that charmed a large portion of their audiences and was an entertainment that brings the older people's memory back to school days, and made one forget their trials and tribulations of today.

The fiddling of Charles Ross Taggart was approved by every one present Thursday. He does not claim to be a violinist, just an "old country fiddler," — something that everybody can stand.

The squall of the the new fangled "violinist" did not mystify the audience, but the real old stuff, the true voice of the fiddle, the world's best music.

The musical troop Thursday was satisfactory in every respect, and no kick was registered against them. They may have used rather too much brown paint and lip stick. It gives just a little too much of the smack of vaudeville and not quite enough of the Chautauqua dignity.

Frank Dixon should not be missed tonight. He is one of America's best known and most highly esteemed orators, with plenty of good, hard common sense logic, and we are not afraid to wager a nice prize to the person who can take a nap while he delivers his lecture.

Sunday night will be given over to religious services at the tent, and the Rev. John Hartley, who begins a mission service at the Church of the Advent Sunday will conduct the service Sunday night.

Monday will be the crowning day with "Crosed Wires," a musical comedy which has gained wide popularity and we predict that it will draw the record crowd of the Chautauqua.

It is denied that the present generation has no musical ability as they can all adjust a phonograph needle and set it going.

went to the door a second time. As she placed her hand on the door she found it was very hot. Realizing that something was wrong she pushed the door open and found her aged aunt lying on the floor dead. A stream of fire was issuing from the gas pipe near the floor from which the tube had been removed.

JAMESVILLE SCHOOL CLOSED A MOST CREDITABLE YEAR

HAS GOOD COMMENCEMENT DESPITE EPIDEMIC OF "FLU" AND MEASLES

The finals of the Jamesville school were called off on account of epidemics of influenza and measles. But despite these providential afflictions, the school carried out two prominent features of its proposed program.

Dr. R. C. Beaman of Lumberton, N. C., preached the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday morning, the 13th inst. It is needless to say his message was strong and inspiring, and thoroughly enjoyed by a large congregation.

On Wednesday night following, the graduation exercises were held. Both of these events were conducted in the large and comfortable auditorium.

The Jamesville school has been making excellent advancement under the wise supervision of the Messrs. C. A. Askew, W. W. Walters, and John Lilley. Our experienced and courteous county superintendent of education, Mr. A. J. Manning has given full support and helpful advice and cooperation with Professor H. L. Edens, principal of the school and all other officials of the school in their endeavor to build a strong high school at Jamesville as an educational center. Professor Edens deserves no little credit for the success of the school, as his many years of service in the work of teaching the country's future generation has equipped him with knowledge that has been very beneficial in the progress of the school. His efforts and cooperation with the other officials of the school have been untiring and when any progress was in sight he left no stone unturned that would aid in the cause.

JUG OF VINEGAR LOOKED LIKE 'THE REAL STUFF'

Wednesday morning when The Enterprise crew came down to start to work they found a jug of vinegar that had been sitting in the window broke to smithereens on the sidewalk, and the window partly raised. We don't know which the intruder wanted, the jug of vinegar or some copies of The Enterprise which were just inside the window as the vinegar had the appearance of being "good old rye" when looked at from the side opposite the label.

We cordially invite the intruder to come around when we are on duty and we will see that he has all he can drink of the vinegar as we will buy another jug as soon as we get hold of another quarter to pay the groceryman; and we always have a few extra copies of The Enterprise we don't mind giving to parties who want to read and can't pay us a "jit" for them.

DEAF ARE CAPABLE OF HANDLING MANY JOBS

The deaf are engaged in a variety of occupations. The industrial field to which they belong is constantly broadening. The position which deaf workers are capable of filling are almost unlimited.

The general public does not understand the deaf. Not knowing them it is not inclined to give them employment. It frequently happens where a deaf workman is employed and proves inefficient, no more deaf workers will be taken in. Such a rule is not applied to hearing workmen. They are hired and fired right along without any thought of judging all by the shortcomings of one or a few. Such a practice entails an unnecessary hardship on the deaf; it is manifestly unjust. The deaf do not ask for pity or sympathy, but for a fair show.

WILSON JAIL DOESN'T PLEASE SOLICITOR

WILSON, May 23.—Solicitor Allsbrook is not at all pleased with conditions as he finds them in the Wilson county jail. He, together with Home Anderson entered the jail this morning in order to make an investigation at the direction of governor Morrison, who is calling on all the solicitors of the state to examine the prisons in their counties and make a report. Solicitor Allsbrook said that it would never be possible to fix the old jail and make it sanitary and habitable, and the only thing the county could do is to build a new jail and court house.

He remarked to Mr. Anderson that he would not allow his dog to be locked in this place over night, as that he was going to tell the governor or something about the condition of the Wilson county jail.

ROANOKE FAIR IS MAKING STRIDES IN DEVELOPMENT

NEW ATTRACTIONS ARE BEING BOOKED AND OLD ONES ENLARGED

As the date for the Roanoke Fair grows nearer, indications are that it will rival those of much larger places than Williamston, a number of the best attractions booked at the larger fairs having been booked for the Roanoke Fair, to be at the fair grounds here November 13, 14, 15, and 16th.

Mr. H. M. Poe, the active manager, has entered in the stake races 135 entries, but this is by no means all the horses, as the open races which is what this fair has had heretofore are to be run as usual.

The great Sheeley Shows, a thirty five car company that is playing such fairs as Richmond and Raleigh will also play Williamston and they have a clean show. Nothing in this line has ever been in this section before that can anywhere near measure up to the Sheeley Show in size.

Bookings for the free acts are now being made. They will be of the top line variety, such as played by the largest fairs in the country.

Doubly as many fire works as last year and in addition to the fire works at night the free acts will give an hour's show in front of the grand stands. Of course, these acts will perform between each race in the day time.

The management is expecting more cattle and swine this year than ever before, and in the poultry department a number of bookings have already been made.

The fair management is especially desirous of having the ladies of the section make a large display of their home work and canned goods. This is always a most important department of a fair, and the number of exhibits on display indicate the local interest in the exhibition. This department is where the county will get its advertising and boosting. We may publish stories of the success of our farmers and gardeners every week in the year; which will make the people of our neighboring counties read with wonder and consternation, but when they come to our fair next fall and see these exhibits that we know our ladies of the county can produce, they will see with their own eyes the things that they could not believe when read about in black and white; that is in the same sense of conviction. When they are read about, the reader almost invariably will have some variation to offer himself in his mind, but when seen at the fair, it will create in them a direct desire to get where they can do likewise, and with our boosting and the ladies' exhibits combined we will be on a fair road to bringing new progressive families to Martin county, as well as stimulate an interest in those who do not take part in the exhibits, to get busy and accomplish more for themselves than they have in the past.

The object of these exhibits at all fairs is to encourage our neighbors to accomplish the same progress we do, and if you do not show them your progress they will invariably believe they are abreast with the times. This is an impression that we must not allow to exist in Martin county if we are to continue on our upward progress, as only a steady climb will put Martin county where she rightfully belongs.

SERVICES AT BAPTIST CHURCH

A. V. Joyner, pastor
Sunday school 9:45 a. m., J. C. Anderson, superintendent. If you are not connected with any other Sunday school we shall be happy if you come and bring the children Sunday morning. We have a place for everybody in our school.

Sermon by the pastor 11 a. m. Subject: "The Need of Our Times." May we ask that as we shall have no evening service at the church, because of the Chautauqua program at the tent, that every one shall do his best to attend church Sunday morning. The pastor will endeavor to bring you a message that will help you all through the week.

MR. C. W. BAILEY OF HOBGOOD IS DEAD

HOBGOOD, May 22.—Mr. C. W. Bailey, one of Hobgood's most prominent and popular citizens, father of Mr. W. L. Bailey, died this afternoon at two fifteen o'clock, after an illness of several weeks. The interment will take place at Bethel tomorrow afternoon at four thirty.

The many friends of the bereaved relatives extend their deepest sympathy in this time of deep sorrow.
