

HARDISON MILL LOCAL MENTION

Mr. Wendell Hamilton and Mr. T. J. Jackson of Jamestown passed here on their way back to Washington. Mr. H. F. Robinson had the misfortune of losing a newly purchased hawke carrouse home from Williamston. The hat was lost between town and Rocky Springs church Wednesday. The members of Sam had notified Mr. Robinson and will appreciate it very much. Mrs. G. W. Smith and her husband are preparing their books for the State fair at Raleigh next week. He and the boys will leave Wednesday, October 17th. They expect to get some real benefits from the trip. We noticed the other day that Mr. J. D. Marble was grieving. He was asked what the trouble could be; this was the report of the condition of the PLANTERS & MERCHANTS BANK. The bank is in the state of liquidation at the close of business, September 30, 1923. ply: "It makes me grieve to know the grape season is over, and the association has passed for a long time. Misses Estelle Coltrin and Connie Robinson and Messrs. Jos. G. Core and C. B. Coltrin attended revival services at Macedonia on Wednesday night.

Pirates are operating on the Black Sea, according to official reports sent to the Department of the Interior at Sofia, Bulgaria. A vessel loaded with opium was bound from Bourgas to Constantinople was stopped by some by shots fired from a steamship displaying no colors. A number of the pirates boarded the merchant vessel, killed the captain, his crew of five and one passenger and carried off the money the passenger was carrying to Constantinople to buy goods. The vessel was then set adrift in a sinking condition.
