THE GOOD ROAD NEEDS CONSTANT ATTENTION

A good road begins to wear from the first rainfall of the season. Constant attention must be given to the road to keep it in good condition.

It is the duty of the road official to see that the road is kept in good condition. This requires constant attention and the use of the best materials and methods available.

The road official must also see that the road is kept free of obstructions. This requires constant attention and the use of the best methods available.

COOPERATION OF PARENTS AND TEACHERS NEEDED IN OUR SCHOOL WORK

Do present day teachers have the confidence of parents? Yes. How do they win it? By being rather than seeming somebody, does one win the respect of another.

make folks hungry for education of every human heart

The appeal of the homeless and less child. It has been ever thus. The great heart of the Lord and Master rebuke those who would hinder the little ones from approaching His loving embrace.

The only possible debate is that touching the amount you will give to this worthy cause. The object of this message is to lay that before you with this suggestion: The income of one day would be reasonable.

Let your offering be of such proportion as to obtain the sense of feeling that you have done something worthy of your heart. It is not the amount that measures the value of the gift; it is the relation of the gift to the heart of the giver.

Let conscience debate, and joy will inevitably follow. Make your offering on, or near Thanksgiving day, direct to the orphanage of your choice.

The income of a day for the help of the fatherless and motherless children in our State. Our Thanksgiving season has long been notable for the outpouring of money for the maintenance of the orphan home.

Again we come, as the year draws to its close not singly to remind these givers that another harvest season is at hand, but hoping also, to establish this beautiful custom with thousands of others who may not have realized the joys of having a worthy part in this commendable work.

Men may debate as to the objects of their charity; they will not debate the gift to the heart of the giver. Men may raise questions as to this or that institution; there is no debate concerning the blessed work that our institutions are doing for the children in North Carolina.

The Kellam Hospital treats successfully Cancers, Tumors, Ulcers, X-Ray Burns and Chronic Sores without the use of the knife, X-Ray, Radium, Acids or Serum, and we have treated successfully over 90 per cent of the many hundreds of sufferers treated during the past twenty-three years.
