TEACHERS MEET HERE SATURDAY ENTHUSIASTIC

Much Interest Shown by All Teachers of County in the Meeting

The Martin county teachers in general session in the Williamston school auditorium at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday, December 8th.

After the singing of "America, the Beautiful," Rev. D. W. Arnold read Paul's address on Mar's Hill to the men of Athens, found in Acts 17:22-31. Following the reading, "Come Thou Almighty King" was sung. Rev. A. Phillips then offered a short prayer. The devotional service was concluded by the singing of "Old Blue Joe."

At the beginning of the business session, Superintendent Pope called for a reading of the minutes of the previous meeting. As no one offered any correction to the same they were adopted as read.

Superintendent Pope then read the letter of Mr. Warren to the secretary, relative to membership in the State organization. In this Mr. Warren acknowledged the receipt of the secretary's check for $65, and heartily commended the effective work of the officers of the local unit in securing a membership of sixty five of its teachers. Further, he insisted that every member of the local enrol as a member of the State organization. Mr. Pope encouraged this, and asked that all who desired to join might signify their wish on the roll call card that had been distributed. As a result seven teachers indicated a desire to join and paid the membership fee, one dollar.

Mr. Pope spoke of his appreciation of the attitude of the teachers toward the meetings and of their ready response to the demands made upon them. Mr. Geo. W. Smith of Farm Life school was asked to give his report on the "visit blank" such a card, he stated, would of course, have blank for the names of the visiting teacher, the parents, and the child or children in that teacher's grade. He suggested questions that he thought valuable and proper in the preparation of the card.

Mr. Pope at once recognized the work accompanying the preparation of this card, and stated that mimeograph copies of it would later be issued to all the teachers.

Next, Mr. Pope explained a type-age-grade table, which he himself had prepared. On this chart the ages ranged from six to 26, and the grades from 1 to 11. The former extended across the sheet from left to right, and the latter from top to bottom. Upon this he showed the relative positions of the numbers indicating the children who were normal, accelerated or retarded. Mr. Pope urged teachers to follow his instructions carefully and to make a chart of their schools.

Then he briefly discussed the causes which tend to keep the retarded rates so high. These were the ones he listed: Too few months of grammar grade training; curable mental backwardness; incurable mental backwardness; failure to have been "reached" by teacher; the "lock-step" method of promotion; the inappropriateness of the course of study, largely a result out of a ready acceptance of the State schedule without investigation; malnutrition, physical defects, and diseases; and bad home conditions and influences. Following this explanation Mr. Pope explained his chart:

SHIPMENT OF FORDS FOR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Mr. B. R. Barnhill has made assurance that all wishing Fords for Christmas presents this year will not be disappointed. This morning he received six car loads of cars including all the different types, and his large force of mechanics are now working like bees assembling them so they will be ready for the Christmas holiday trade next week.

Mr. Barnhill has organized a crew of mechanics who can erect a shipment of cars in record time, as he states that all these cars will be ready for delivery by the first of the coming week. This is an achievement that Henry Ford himself would smile upon and commend.

"visit homes." Schools, he stated, should be fitted to give opportunities to the children of each class. As a matter of fact, they are not meeting these needs, because their courses are not varied enough.

Mr. Smith asked that all superintendents and principals who would like to work out a basket ball schedule for the schools of the county meet him directly after the meetings of the various groups.

Mr. Pope advised a ten days' Christmas vacation to be given in accordance with the directions of the board of trustees.

Before the general session adjourned so that the various reading circles might meet, Superintendent Pope announced that the next meeting would be held on Saturday afternoon, January 20th.

Supt. R. A. Pope, President. Eva Irene Peele, Secretary.

Elijah Biggs, murder. Found guilty and sentenced to jail for four months to be hired to J. C. Keel to pay the cost.

Alexander Taylor, secret assault. Found guilty and sentenced to the State prison for a term of not more than five nor less than three years.

One of the saddest things appearing before this week's court was five persons asking for divorce—poiled lives for ten people. And when we look over the divorces granted and see more than twice as many as we had ten years ago, it gives ground for alarm. Some say, too lax divorce laws, but the principal trouble is too lax morals. When married people behave themselves more becomingly there will be less divorce cases.

Several civil cases were disposed of on agreement, and court adjourned Thursday evening.

Judge Connor was complimented by the court officers, lawyers and others who appeared in his court, for his fairness to all and his high sense of feeling for everybody.

The local tobacco warehouse of the Tobacco Growers Cooperative association will close December 20th, and will be re-open Tuesday, January 8th. All farmers having tobacco graded are requested to make delivery before it closes for the Christmas holidays.

STALLINGS-WILLIAMS

One of the most beautiful home weddings ever witnessed in Williamston was that of Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams, when their daughter, Lillian became the bride of Mr. Joe H. Stallings of Tarboro.

The parlor was beautifully and artistically decorated with long leaf pine, ivy, cedar, holly and green and white paper.

The bride wearing a navy blue suit with grey accessories, entered with the groom and approached a beautiful arch where the ring ceremony was performed by Rev. B. S. Cowan, pastor of the Primitive Baptist church of Robersonville.

After the ceremony a dinner was given by the bride's mother and the young couple left for a tour to northern cities.

The bride is an unusually charming and attractive young woman. She has many friends and admirers. The groom is a prominent farmer and is well known throughout the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Stallings will make their home near Tarboro.

When you take a business or pleasure trip phone 46. Your friends want to know of your travels.
