FIND TANK OF LOST DIXMUDE

GAS TANK PICKED UP AT TOULON BEARS MESSAGE WRITTEN IN PENCIL

Paris, Jan. 3.—The gasoline tank belonging to the great French dirigible Dixmude, lost in southern waters, has been found at sea, according to a wireless from Bizerta, a Tunis naval station, today. The tank was picked up at Toulon; says a correspondent of the Echo de Paris. The tank, according to a radio message was inscribed with several sentences written in pencil.

PLUGGING DOPE LEAKS AIM OF GOVERNMENT

Washington, Jan. 3.—United States customs officials and the federal narcotic control board prepared today to launch a 1924 campaign against drug smuggling and illegal traffic in dope that would surpass last year's concentrations to wipe out this evil.

Among the first moves necessary to plug up the American borders against narcotic runners is a good working agreement with the Mexican government, providing for registration of unknown international dope smugglers and cooperation in border protection.

That a conference with Mexican authorities, similar to that with the Canadian government, held recently at Buffalo, will be arranged, was the expectation at the treasury.

Secretary of State Hughes, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Secretary of Commerce Hoover are members of the narcotic control board and their cooperation in the 1924 dope campaign is anticipated.

ANOTHER SCANDAL AMONG THE MOVIE STARS IN CALIFORNIA

The constant shooting of, in and among the movie stars of the country generally the very high ups in California palaces should be a lesson to us.

It discloses the fact that many of the great stars that we and our children so much admire are among the most corrupt, immoral people in the world, living in the most sinful way, and the pictures that so much delight for their educational refinement are too often the products of their lusts and drunken brows.

In the shooting of C. S. Dines, the rich oil man, while entertaining the "beloved" Mabel Normand and the beautiful Miss "Edna", Charlie Chaplin's leading woman, by Horace A. Greer, the jealous chauffeur, chauffeurs often see enough to make them jealous) is very strong circumstantial evidence that they are women without character, and their pictures are degrading the minds of millions every day.

None of the things are quite so deplorable as the act of Will H. Hays, the politician ex-postmaster general, in rushing west to wet blanket the miserable scandal to keep the innocent lobsters of the land from finding out about it.

These people who have almost broken up the prayer meetings of the country have crowded the gang plank to the mill of destruction with young men and young women.

TOO MUCH

"I say, y'know, all these bills are dated months before we were married."

"Well, darling, I know they are."

"Yes, it's a bit thick to expect me to pay for the bait I was caught with."

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Hardy Rose and sons, Hardy Jr. and Tom returned Wednesday from Florida and other Southern points. They report a very favorable trip. The worst roads encountered between here and Florida were found in the Williamston-Everett road. The road is clear if you can get to Everett, they state.

Charles Bernard of the French house of deputies, appeared on the stage of a music hall in Paris and was driven off by hisses. The French do not approve of officials appearing as comedians.

BASKET BALL TONIGHT

The Williamston town team will play the Ayden town team here tonight at the Dixie Warehouse. The local team has a string of victories and no losses. They will have to play well to have the string unbroken.

A good game is assured.

HAM-RAMSEY MEETING PRODUCING RESULTS

REVIVAL HERE, DANCE HERE: REVIVAL IN WASHINGTON DANCE IN WILLIAMSTON

We well remember that during last summer while a revival meeting was being held at the Williams-on Methodist Church a dance was advertised to be held in one of the local tobacco warehouses by a Washington dance club and a request was made by a number of the citizens of the town to cancel it. When the appointed warehouse refused the use of its floor, another was rented and the dance was advertised for a certain hour. The visiting preacher asked for a meeting to be held at the warehouse door and a prayer was offered and songs were sung, but the dancers danced on in the usual way. The change for the better comes this way.

The Rev. Mr. Ham is now holding evangelistic services in Washington and some of the Washington dancers desiring a dance were requested not to hold it. Whereupon they most reverently said "Well, we will dump it on Williamston Thursday night. They appeared promptly amid the mud and slush from all directions, and the dance being far off from the Rev. Ham they capered and danced in the usual modern and attractive way.

This goes to show that the Ham meeting has had some good effect. It has caused the people to respect a revival meeting this year who did not last year.

The modern jazz has such a hold on the throats of the young generation that it appears something will have to be done. Probably if there could be some understanding between the dancers here and those of Washington so that while one revival is being held here the local dance lovers could journey to Washington to hold their dances and vice-versa for those of Washington. Anything to save the respect of neighbors.

BEAUTIFUL RECEPTION

The following article was taken from the Staunton News Leader and it will be of interest to the many friends of Mrs. Heyendreich, who with Mr. Heyendreich has been visiting his mother at her home in Staunton, Va.

One of the most interesting of the Christmas society events was the beautiful reception given yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Robert R. Heyendreich and Miss Louise Heyendreich entertained in honor of their guest, Mrs. Robert F. Heyendreich, of North Carolina.

The house was attractively decorated in Christmas evergreens and lighted with red candles while red candles and roses were used on the table.

Receiving were Mrs. R. R. Heyendreich, who wore black lace and red roses, and Mrs. R. F. Heyendreich and Miss Heyendreich, who wore frocks of flame chiffon embroidered in silver and of yellow taffeta and marion and corsages of rosebuds.

Little Miss Helen Gilkeson received the guests at the door and assisting in serving were Mesdames. Gilpin Wilson, Jr., and R. Morris Armistead and Misses Anna Bosserman, Anne Wilson, and Martha Bell. Mrs. J. L. Gibbs poured coffee.

GETTING MIXED

"What noise is that you're making down there?"
"Is either night falling or day breaking? Donno which, m'dear."

NO FUN

A woman came into a car with five children. She busied herself seating them. A benevolent old gentleman entered and gave her his seat.
"Are these all your children, madam," he asked, "or is it a picnic?"
"They're all mine," snapped the woman, "and it's no picnic."—Parade.

50 PER CENT OF PEOPLE INFECTED BY TUBERCLE BACILLI

Dr. McBrayer's Studies Corroborated By Health Bodies

Only about fifty per cent of the people in North Carolina and the South are infected with tubercle bacilli, and not ninety per cent as was formerly claimed, says Dr. L. B. McBrayer, writing at length on this subject in the December issue of the Bulletin of the State Board of Health. Dr. McBrayer came to this conclusion, the Bulletin says, some time ago from a number of studies made of the subject in several different communities of the state by members of the sanatorium staff. Since that time the United States Public Health Service and the National Tuberculosis Association have made similar studies with more or less similar results. Both health bodies agree with Dr. McBrayer that 50 per cent is a too high rate of infection. The general conclusion is that there is less infectious material in the country than was formerly supposed.

Dr. Linsly R. Williams of the National Tuberculosis Association, New York gives it as his opinion that this greatly lowered rate of tuberculosis infection is due to the destruction of the bacillus at its source; that is while it is in the human body or as soon as it leaves the body in the sputum. Keeping down the infection at this point, destroying the sputum by burning and shielding the mouth and massive doses of the tubercle bacilli is considered by all the fighting agencies the most effective means of preventing tuberculosis.

Two other interesting conclusions were found in the studies made by the Sanatorium workers. One was that house infection, that is, the house being the medium of transmitting the infection of tuberculosis from one person to another, is not probable. The other was that the infection of tuberculosis is not transmitted by casual exposure, but that prolonged exposure and massive doses of the tubercle bacilli are required to produce serious infection.

BOY SCOUTS CELEBRATE THE NEW YEAR BY HAVING ICE CREAM SUPPER

The local boy scouts assembled in the scout hall Tuesday evening to celebrate the new year. The ice cream supper was the main event. About fifteen members were present and all were naturally looking forward to a big time. To start the party off several of the boys agreed to entertain with a few rounds of boxing. It proved to be successful, for the house cheered the fighters on until one called for the sponge. All the contestants claimed a good evening's entertainment. The idea of supper soon knocked the boxing business out and then a real match began, for the boys were in a better position for supper than for the gloves.

Interest in the meeting was intense and much good work is expected from the troop this year.

RECENT IMPROVEMENTS MADE IN WILLIAMSTON

Filling Stations Add to The Appearance of Town

Among the outstanding recent improvements in the town are the two new filling stations, near the railroad on Washington and Haughton streets. The two stations present a good appearance to the passerby and afford real service to the customer.

The modern grocery store of Mr. C. O. Moore, fronting both Washington and Haughton streets would be a credit to a much larger town than ours. Mr. Moore has shown his ability as a merchant by starting with a small stock in a small store and steadily growing until he now occupies his own building. He carries both heavy and fancy groceries. A section of one side of the store is occupied by a soda fountain.

SECOND G. WASHINGTON COULDN'T TELL A LIE
Greenwood, S. C.—Circumstantial evidence and a name played the leading parts in the trial of George Washington in recorder's court here yesterday on a charge of selling whiskey—and the name went out.

Washington, who serves cherry pie and other things at a lunchstand for negroes on Walker avenue, decided on Christmas day that some of his neighbors were profaning the yuletide season with conduct unbecoming to civilized beings, and reported them to the police. Said neighbors retaliated by telling the police that some liquor sold to them by George had caused their hilarity—liquor so fiery that "it tasted like matches."

Recorder W. L. Daniel devoted about two hours to the hearing of evidence, gave George the benefit of the doubt, due to his general truthful bearing, and fined the other negroes $10 each at one full blow.

FINANCING THE FARMER IN THE LAST FEW YEARS

Much Progress has been Made in Recent Years

During the last seven years remarkable progress has been made in providing farmers with the types of credit institutions needed in carrying on the business of agriculture. For many decades the farmer was forced to get his inadequate credit from banks which were designed to serve commercial needs. The farmer was forced to pay high interest rates when he borrowed from commercial banks which were not designed to accommodate his credit needs. Farmers and their organizations were constantly criticizing our banking system because they could not borrow sufficient funds at legal interest rates. Finally it became evident that new types of banks had to be created in order to give the farmer the longer term credit his business demanded. Adequate machinery for practically every credit need of the farmer has been devised. The machinery is new and will need adjusting, but the main problem is in quantifying the farmer with the banking facilities that have been designed for his use, and getting him to use them.

AS THE OLD YEAR GOES DOWN AS HISTORY PEOPLE INVESTIGATE THEIR RECORD

"Pete" FOWDEN Says Taking And Carrying Insurance Is As Important as Taking Inventory

1924 is here and finds lots of us with her, and many of those who were here one year ago are gone and are no more. And when we pass another mile post and reach 1925 lots of us will be with those that passed in 1923. This is the beginning of a new year and you can look in at every business man and see him taking inventory. The bankers are making out their statements showing to the public their gains, their assets and liabilities. The farmers are making their bank statements which show them how they stand, in fact every merchant, banker, manufacturer, farmer, salesman and business man are taking inventory of their past years work to find out where they are. How many of us are taking inventory of our future obligations to our wives, children, creditors and ourselves? How many of us have what life insurance we really could carry that would leave our wives enough to pay the bank what we owe or pay the mortgage off the home and leave them in shape to get a little more than the bare necessities of life and educate the children? How many young men have enough insurance to pay them $100.00 a month as long as they live and leave behind them an estate of $100,000.00 if they should become disabled in any way either by accident or health. When I say young men I mean every man for we all have obligations, if not to women and children, to our creditors and ourselves. Ask your banker the best way on earth to save money and get protection, ask your doctor, lawyer and every business man whose opinion you respect. I write every policy and the most attractive you can buy. You can leave your wife and children so much every month until your youngest child reaches the age of twenty-one, then a lump sum to the widow. You can buy policies that will protect yourself in case of accident or disability in any way. You can buy a policy that will pay you the real cash and thereby make old age serene. In fact, you owe yourself, your family and creditors obligations and there is no way that you can get and give the same results as you can in life insurance. Remember procrastination is the thief of time. I don't claim to know many things but I do know life insurance and I am at your service any time and will be glad to explain any policy to you that you are considering buying now or at a future time or any policies that you already have. It doesn't mean you have to buy because you talk to me. Kindly let me serve you for by so doing I am serving you, your family, creditors and the community in which you live. Life insurance is a duty you owe yourself and others.

Major Peel is to be congratulated on his work, and the story is recommended to our readers as one of containing interest and originality.

$400,000,000 CUT CUT PUBLIC DEBT, 1923.

Washington, Jan. 3.—The treasury accomplished a net reduction of almost $400,000,000 in the public debt in 1923 according to official figures made public today. Outstanding obligations of the nation totaled $21,589,160,346 when the books were closed Monday night. Treasury officials expressed satisfaction that the mass of obligations, the bulk of which were incurred during the world war, now were in "manageable shape," and said the refunding operations of the last two years had left the treasury in a position to care for all maturities of the future—without impairment of the program for gradual retirement of the debt. Success of the retirement program, however, they added, depended upon a continuation of the policy of economy.

Miss Irene Hart, of North Wilkesboro has accepted a position in the Sandy Ridge school. She is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Griffin.

Mr. Irish stated Bartholomew B. Coyne, New York attorney, who has announced that he would seek Thaw's freedom, "does not represent us in any way."

INDIANAPOLIS STUDENTS PASS RESOLUTION

A FULL ENDORSEMENT OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS AND AGAINST "PREPAREDNESS"

One of the most important resolutions that will be entered into this year in any place in any way was the Students' resolution on January 1st at Indianapolis. This resolution was passed by seven thousand student members of the International Convention of Students Volunteer Movement and represented one thousand of the leading schools of this country and others.

The resolution was a full endorsement of the League of Nations and against "Preparedness". There are many changes today against our colleges and the things they teach, the charges usually coming from the ignorant. The fact must be admitted however, that the trust type of Democracy is coming from our college professors and the great student body which passed the resolution come much nearer expressing the truth than they will when they become warped and twisted by political contaminations. It is very gratifying to see such organizations rise and give the truth to the people, for unfortunately a large number of our folks seem unable to think for themselves. When the public is uniformly educated the politicians will not be able to pull so much wool over the eyes of the people. Good wishes and good health to the young men of the nation who write "Justice" on the mat head.
