

GO WHAR YOU GWIN

The other day a man dropped a five dollar gold piece into the contribution box...

"All right," said the parishoner as he walked away. "I'll get credit for it in heaven."

"No, you won't" called the deacon after him. "You will get credit for twenty-five cents."

Probably the deacon's statement was true. The man had actually given five dollars but he had not wanted to. He had wanted to give it to a quarter. If the spirit of a quarter is to be considered and not the act itself then the recording clerk put down twenty-five cents in the right hand column of this particular man's account.

I recently witnessed a lawsuit against an insurance company. The insured had policies in two companies. One paid its claim cheerfully and promptly. The other tried by hook and crook to get out of paying but was forced to do so by law. One company was given full moral credit by beneficiary for every cent that was paid. The other company had to pay just the same but received no commendation and the money was received with a vindictive snicker.

I saw a contribution reported at a large banquet for a Red Cross fund. The signed pledge cards were passed up to the chairman who read them aloud. When he came to one particular card he looked at it intently and hesitated, then he said loudly and crisply: "Here is a pledge for only twenty-five dollars from Mr. X. We will not accept such a small donation for such a large and vital cause from a man with the giving power of Mr. X." He deliberately tore the card to bits and let them flutter to the floor. Later Mr. X sent in another pledge card for two hundred and fifty dollars. This was accepted with a grim smile but ethically Mr. X got credit for twenty-five dollars. The campaign committee gave the Chairman credit for the other two hundred and twenty-five dollars.

If you are going to do a thing do it in the first place and don't wait to be hammered into it and thus lose all the credit and all the satisfaction. If your wife needs a new hat and you know right well she is going to get it, why haggle and fuss about it? Give it to her and go on out and earn

NOTICE OF SALE

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust executed to me on the 17th day of January, 1922, and of record in Martin County Public Registry in Book U-1, page 258, securing bonds of even date and tenor therewith, and the stipulations in said deed of trust not having been complied with, and at the request of the holder of said bonds, I will, on the 2nd day of Feb., 1924, at 12:00 o'clock, Noon, in front of the Court house door of Martin County, offer at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described tract of land:

FIRST TRACT—The South side of my farm which begins at Main Road at the end of a small ditch running East to Molasses Branch, thence down said branch to S. L. Wallace heirs line, thence along said line to the Main Road, this being the line between my land on the South from Molasses Branch and the land of E. Wallace, thence West to the Main Road, thence a North Course to the first station, being 25 acres, more or less.

SECOND TRACT—Beginning at a post oak at Brownings corner, running South 2 degrees East 202 poles to a pine in cedar branch, thence 40 poles to a white oak, thence along White oak line 155 poles to Wards corner, thence North by East to the first station, containing 25 acres, more or less, and being the same tract of land now resided on by the said Alexander Hill and wife, Corn Hill. This the 4th day of Jan., 1924. B. DUKE CRITCHER, Trustee.

MOTHERS—Don't you know you can turn a distressed, feverish, coughing child into a comfortable and happily smiling one simply by giving CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY No Narcotics the money to pay for it, then you will feel a sense of having done the generous thing and she won't be sorry she married you.

When a thing is presented to you for consideration, decide what you ought to do. Be generous in your decision—generous according to your particular situation. Then do it and be done with it.
