EVERY RIGHT MIND MAN IS CONFRONTED WITH PROBLEMS SAYS MR. FORDEN

Every right-minded man, married, single, rich or poor, in fair financial circumstances is confronted with three problems:

1. How can I build an estate sure?
2. How can I protect those dependent upon me for financial aid?
3. How can I protect myself against old age and total and permanent disability in old age?

The same right minded man who is established in a business will be confronted with three other problems:

1. How can I protect the business already established?
2. How can I secure to my estate my share of the value of this established business?
3. How can I avoid the loss to the business which would be incurred when I have been totally disabled or carried away by debt?

This doubtful right minded man who has already accumulated some worldly goods is then confronted with three more questions:

1. How can I protect my present fortune from the casualty of death occurring in a period of depreciation in business?

NOTICE

Under and by virtue of a Deed of Trust executed by Henry Ward and wife, Sarah Ward, to the undersigned I will on Saturday, April 15th, 1924, at 12 M. at the Court House door in Tarboro, N. C. sell at public auction for cash, the following described property:

A certain tract of land situate in Goose Nest Township, Martin County, North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Dan Brown, Dina Staton Andrew Wynn, Telitha Pitt, containing 12 acres, more or less, being the only land owned by the said Henry Ward in said Township.

This March 14th, 1924.
R. M. RAWLS, Trustee.

2. How can I provide for the immediate payment of any financial obligations which are unsettled when the last call comes to me without previous warning?
3. How will my heirs and loved ones meet and pay administration expenses, income, inheritance taxes and other things?

Then comes the single question of mighty importance to every responsible being:

How can I relieve my mind from anxiety for the future of my loved ones and from fear for myself of physical and financial decrepitude and dependent old age?

The answer to all the questions can be given by Leslie Fowden who sells the best and most attractive life insurance contracts written.

What will it cost? There is no cost. You simply make a deposit once a year to your credit and the absolute assurance is given you in a plain life insurance policy which you alone can abandon or revoke. It is a contract and an agreement which cannot fail of performance if you yourself do not break or cancel it.

Mary had a little man so husky as a mule

And they decided life insurance was the right thing for a fool

Now Mary's little man is beneath the bed to stay

And Mary is washing dishes at six cents per day.

Don't make this mistake see Leslie at once.

To The Democratic Voters Of The First Congressional District.

Notice is given that I am a candidate for the Democratic Nomination for Congress from this District and I respectfully ask a fair and candid consideration of my fitness to represent the people of the District.

Having absolute confidence in the Democratic National Convention I believe it will select a Committee that will write a platform in the interest of all right thinking people and upon this platform I will stand.

There are however certain principles and methods of administration that good business sense suggest which as a member of Congress I would favor and advocate.

The government should belong to the people and a man who is honored with office or in any way serves the people is the servant and not the master.

I believe in the sanctity of a business obligation. In treating the other fellow as you would be treated. In living up to the lofty ideal of "live and let live".

"No man can serve two masters" and I do not believe men who have been honored with high office should be allowed to sell their influence under the cloak of their profession. I am under no obligation, political or otherwise to anyone. Most of my business dealings have been with the man of small means and I fully appreciate the difficulties the average man has in making a living and while I know he does not want any advantage he does want an equal chance. To help him secure this opportunity will be my pleasure.

I fully realize there has been a letting down of the high ideals held by Woodrow Wilson as is evidenced by the rottenness being aired in our National Capital today and I know there must be a revival of common honesty and moral integrity or our Country is in real danger. We have too many laws and too little enforcement. I favor less laws and a drastic enforcement of what we do have.

I want to see less burdensome taxes on the people and to accomplish this I advocate a complete overhauling of every department in Washington and the discharging of thousands of useless employees who render no real service. Abolishing of all duplication of work and thereby decreasing expenses. As it is now conducted, work of exactly the same character is carried on in several different departments. I favor the cutting of all governmental expenses to the bone where it can be done not to interfere with efficient service.

I lay no claim to being an astute politician nor to having a mind filled with legal lore. I am a plain ordinary business man but I do claim to have a mind and heart not biased in judgment and which will serve the best interest of my people.

I invite the most searching scrutiny of all my dealings with my fellow man and should the voters of the district deem me worthy the honor of their support I pledge myself to their service.

Respectfully,

JOHN D. BIGGS
