FARM LIFE SCHOOL CLOSES AFTER A SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Big Picnic and Several Speeches Features Of The Day

The closing exercises at the Farm Life School were held Tuesday, April 15. The day was ideal for good feeling and every one acted his part in making a real day of pleasure.

The expected speaker was not present so Dr. John D. Biggs, R. A. Pope, W. C. Manning and J. L. Holliday filled the vacancy, each making a short speech. After the exercises had begun, Dr. Griffin, a candidate for congress came in and make a short talk. Dr. Griffin did not make a political speech. However he made a very good talk and contributed some very good advice to the people.

Each of the former talks was in reference to the need of the school work of the present day.

After the talks were made, dinner was announced. The people of the neighborhood literally covered the several long tables which had been built in advance. There was an abundance of food of every kind and every one ate until they could hold no more, and not one-half of the delicious food had been consumed.

After dinner the large crowd again returned to the school building to hear the declamations. They were given by five girls and by two boys and they were all ably recited but the judges awarded the prize to Miss Alma Mizelle.

The student body, the trustees and friends of Professor and Mrs. George W. Smith presented them with a crystal fruit bowl as a token of their appreciation for their untiring efforts to make the school a success, during the time that Mr. Smith had been superintendent.

The announcement that the Agricultural department would have to be discontinued was indeed a disappointment to the boys and girls who have taken the course during the past two years. The average attendance has not been of those in that department not been large enough during the past year to bring the school up to state requirements. The transportation of pupils from nearby schools in the community this past year has cut the average of high school pupils down considerably.

EDITOR LEAVES TOWN TO SEARS & ROEBUCK

It is announced that Norris City, Ill., will soon be without a newspaper. For a long time a number of the prominent citizens of Eldorado have been trying to get a new paper started in Eldorado, feeling that the town is large enough to support two papers, and have induced Ralph Clippinger, with pledges of liberal patronage, to move his Norris City plant, the Edward to Eldorado, which he will do in the near future and publish a daily paper.

The merchants at Norris City have been sleeping for some time, paying no attention to advertising and seemingly content to let Sears & Roebuck have the business. This quite naturally cut into the revenue of the paper and contributed largely to the deadness of the town, consequently Mr. Clippinger readily accepted the Eldorado offer, where he is assured of "greener pastures."

A newspaper in a town is just as important to that community as the schools and churches, and to let it die or move away from lack of support is the worst advertising a town can receive.—Ridgeway (Ill.) News.

Miss Annie Louise Crawford arrived home last evening from North Carolina College, Greensboro, to spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crawford at their home on Haughton street. She made the trip from Durham with a party of friends by motor.

Mrs. Charles Sawyer, John Louis Perry and Capehart Nichols of Winslow were in town Wednesday.

Dr. J. H. Roebuck of Bear Grass has returned from Tucker's Sanatorium, Richmond and will soon be able to resume his practice.

SHORT SESSION RECORDER'S COURT TUESDAY

Cases of Minor Importance Disposed Of

The Recorder's court of the Tuesday session created very little sensation, there being no cases of importance. Judge Smith of Robersonville presided and Elbert S. Peel prosecuted.

The following cases were heard and disposed of during the session that lasted only through the morning:

State vs Will Purvis. Resisting an officer. He was found guilty and sentenced to jail for three days and cost.

State vs Lawrence Woolard. Manufacturing liquor. Woolard was found guilty and sentenced to jail for twenty days and fined $100.00 and cost and required to pay jail fees. He appealed to the Superior court.

State vs Charles Rhodes. Operating auto while under the influence of alcohol. He was found guilty and sentenced to jail for one month and the County Commissioners were given leave to hire him out for the cost and for the payment to I. T. Taylor of the sum of $12.50 for damage to his car.

State vs Sed Williams. Trespass. He was adjudged not guilty.

State vs Jim Baker. Assault in two cases. He was found not guilty in one case and guilty in the other. Judgment was suspended upon the payment of the cost.

State vs Kader Brown. Larceny. The Court found him not guilty.

State vs Kader Brown. Carrying concealed weapon. In this case the Court decided he was not guilty.

Rook and Bridge Party

Mrs. Arthur Anderson, at her pretty home on Haughton street, was hostess last evening from eight until eleven at a bridge and rook party. There were four tables arranged for bridge and one for rook, all of them in the large living room which was charming in its decoration, wistaria in profusion and huge bowls of spring violets being used.

Mints were found on each table that were enjoyed during the games and then a tempting salad course with black coffee was served. Attractive Easter favors in little white rabbits were found on each plate.

Those invited to enjoy Mrs. Anderson's hospitality were, Mrs. Louis Bennett, Mrs. Roy Gurganus, Mrs. A. T. Crawford, Mrs. Oscar Anderson, Mrs. John L. Rodgeron, Mrs. Mark Daws, of Richmond, Mrs. Elbert Peel, Mrs. John D. Biggs, Mrs. P. B. Cone, Mrs. W. H. Biggs, Mrs. J. G. Godard, Jr., Miss Anna Pope, Mrs. Wheeler Martin, Jr., Mrs. W. J. ## Advertising Records

In a recent issue of the Gazette of Red Lake Falls, Minn., it carried an article saying that for 19 years they had an advertiser who never missed a single week in carrying a good lively advertisement.

They claim no other paper in America can boast of running an advertisement of one concern in every paper for 19 years.

The Enterprise can say that for five years it has carried an advertisement in every issue for one of the leading firms in this section of the state, Harrison Brothers and Company.

The Gazette only publishes one paper per week, while the Enterprise publishes twice every week, so after all the Gazette has only nine years more consecutive ads to its credit than The Enterprise.

The greatest feature in advertising is that good advertisers are good business people.

What is better known than a Ford? Yet, Mr. Ford advertises more than, or as much as any concern in America.

Mr. Edison advertises, the Standard Oil Company advertises and so does California.

If your business is not good, try advertising.
