FRIDAY, MAY 9, 1924.

The citizens of Griffins are taking a step in the right direction in arranging to procure a special school tax.

There was a time when a man could stand up and hold his own, educated or uneducated, but that day is now long past and if a man would make the greatest success in life he must be the best educated.

The old story that when you educate a man he quits work has now grown into a flagrant falsehood. It was, in fact, never true, the educated changed their work to something that would produce more results. It is a truth that the more ignorant a man is the harder he has to dig for what he gets.

The voters of the proposed know the shortest road to success leads through the school house. And it is they who are determined to give to their children the best they are able. It is thought certain that the proposal will carry by a good majority.

Griffins Township Fails to Appear
A fact not to be overlooked is the absence of Griffins township heading a list of tax payers who have failed to pay their taxes. This is remarkable and goes to show that Griffins township is absent from the bad things while the proposed special school tax goes to show that the good people of that district are right there when a good thing is in question.

ROAD CLOSED

For the traveler it is a bit hard to have a detour from a regular route to another. So it is one detour after the other. But when he knows that work is going to be made the detour with pleasure. But when a road is blocked and when there is little or no work going on its makes a difference. Main street has been blocked now for almost one year and a half and is still blocked. Of course one can't go to Robersonville by Route 90 now but he can go to Everett and the farmers can surely go home by Route 90, but as it is they have to detour.

Just when the undercut will be finished no one seems to know, but unless work is continued it will never be completed.

A WORLD ACCOMPLISHMENT

The fact that the foreign governments interested in the reparations question, including Germany, have accepted the Dawes report as the basis for final settlement, is the greatest step toward better world conditions that has been made since the signing of the Armistice.

The United States should be proud that three American business men could evolve this plan in a few short months.

The honor of consummating such a program for the benefit of humanity falls to the lot of but few men.

"The Nation's Garden" a monthly magazine of information for the truck growers and gardeners of the South comes off the press with its first copy dated April.

The magazine presents an elegant appearance and is full of good live matter that will help the people of the territory if they will make proper use of it.

The paper is published by the National Press of Wilmington, N. C.

BUSINESS TRAINING

Read the advertisements if you want to absorb the best business thoughts. At least half of our energies in life are expended in trying to achieve success in life. One of the great hindrances in these efforts is in not knowing. The keenest and most up-to-date thought along business lines is reflected in the business advertisements that you see in every newspaper and magazine.

While you yet find an occasional man who does not believe it necessary to advertise. You see Mr. Ford who has the best known business in world, an extensive advertiser. The Standard Oil Company and Mr. Edison advertise everywhere and Heinz has painted "57" on the banks of the Congo. If you are looking for real business thought, read all the advertisements.

Some criticize advertisers and charge that they are untrue. It may be that they are, however the written advertisement is doubtless as true as the average spoken word.

WOULD HE PREACH LIKE "IKE"?

(From the Dunn Dispatch)
Devoting more than two-thirds of its two columns of editorial matter to advocating the candidacy of Josiah William Bailey for the Democratic nomination for governor. The Eastern News, Republican paper of Benson, winds up with the following information for the Dispatch:

"Our neighbor, the Dunn Dispatch, can't understand why the Republican papers of the State are taking so much interest in the candidacy of J. W. Bailey for governor. That is easy. Mr. Bailey is advocating many of the things which the Republicans have been advocating for years. The fact that Mr. Bailey is a Democrat does not alter the situation. Republicans as a whole are great admirers of a square deal to all, and since their conception of things is in line with much of the doctrine of Mr. Bailey they feel that if Mr. Bailey should be nominated and stump the State with "Ike" Meekins, both preaching the same doctrine, that the two great orators could wield a powerful influence for good in North Carolina during the next few months."

The News is wrong when it says: "The Dispatch can't understand why the Republican papers are taking so much interest in the candidacy of Mr. Bailey. We have understood it all along, and the information given us by that paper is in line with the views which we expressed in a recent editorial. It is true, absolutely true, that "Mr. Bailey is advocating many of the things which the Republicans have been advocating for years." And it might be added, the chief of which is the destruction of the Democratic organization in the State. It goes without saying that the Republicans would like to get control of the State government, and if Mr. Bailey could "bust" the Democratic organization then they would stand a better chance of doing that."

The News assures us that with Mr. Bailey and "Ike" Meekins both preaching "the same doctrine" the two could wield a powerful influence for good in North Carolina. But the question is, would Mr. Bailey, if nominated, preach the same "doctrine" that the Republican nominee will preach? We have an idea that Mr. Bailey would preach a different "doctrine" were he nominated from that which The News says he is now preaching. The News is expecting too much of Mr. Bailey when it expects him to preach like "Ike" Meekins.

WHERE'S MOTHER?

Bursting in from school or play, This is what the children say; Trooping, crowding, big and small, On the threshold in the hall— Joining in the constant cloy, Ever as the days go by, "Where's Mother?" From the very bed of pain This same question comes again;

From the boy with sparkling eyes Bearing home his earliest prize; From the bronzed and bearded son, Perils past and honors won—"Where's Mother?" Burdened with a lonely task, Some day we vainly ask For the comfort of her face, For the rest of her embrace; Let us love her while we may, Well for us that we can say, "Where's Mother?" Mother, with untiring hands, At the post of duty stands, Patient, seeking not her own, Anxious for the good alone Of the children as they cry, Ever as the days go by, "Where's Mother?"

CANDIDATE FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS

To the Democratic Voters of Martin County:

Sick Headache
"I have used Black-Draught when needed for the past 25 years," says Mrs. Emma Grimes, of Forbes, Mo. "I began taking it for a bad case of constipation. I would get constipated and feel just miserable—sluggish, tired, a bad taste in my mouth, and soon my head would begin hurting and I would have a severe sick headache. I don't know just who started me to taking."

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT
but it did the work. It just seemed to cleanse the liver. Very soon I felt like new. When I found Black-Draught so easy to take and easy-acting, I began to use it in time and would not have sick headaches. Constipation causes the system to re-absorb poisons that may cause great pain and much danger to your health. Take Thedford's Black-Draught. It will stimulate the liver and help to drive out the poisons. Sold by all dealers. Costs only one cent a dose. E-104
