TEN DEAD FROM DRINKING POISONED CIDER

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 13.—The list of poison cider victims now stands at ten with four seriously sick. About a dozen others who drank of the cider have recovered sufficiently to be considered out of all danger by attending physicians.

The poison was found to have been in the barrel in which the cider was placed, and not a condition of the cider in itself. The farmer had used a barrel in which spraying material had been in the early spring and there was a presence of arsenic of lead in the cider which he carried to the Elks home at Bedford City. The inmates being of advanced age, were unable to combat the strong poison.

State Rehabilitation Officer Here

The State Rehabilitation officer, Mr. Conroy of Raleigh has been in the county this week attending to matters relating to his department.

There were three applicants to come under his supervision and all three were satisfactorily attended to. One colored boy was sent to the colored A & T school for colored at Greensboro and one girl was advised to finish her high school course after which he promised her a college course.

Jamesville Teams Defeat Columbia Boys and Girls

The boys' and girls' basket ball teams of the Jamesville school went to Columbia last Wednesday and won over their opponents in two very interesting games.

The boys won their game by a score of 14 to 4 with Gaylord featuring for Jamesville. The game was a thriller from start to finish.

The Columbia girls were out for the big end of the score and played a splendid game, the score in the first half being 4 to 4. The last half the Columbia girls found Miss Pearl Jones, Jamesville's star forward, to fast for them and her playing ended the last half with a score of 11 to 3 in Jamesville's favor. This was the first game of the season for the Jamesville girls and judging from this one, a most successful season is ahead of them.

The young folks were invited to stay over a while that night and a nice party was given them by the Columbia boys and girls.

The Columbia girls will meet the Jamesville girls in the near future in Jamesville.—Reported.

SERVICES CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Sunday school, 9:45—W. C. Manning, Superintendent. There will be no church services. The pastor will keep his regular appointment at Maple Grove church. Last Sunday there were 122 members present in our Sunday school. Let's reach the 150 mark next Sunday morning. A. J. MANNING, Pastor.

MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday school, 9:45. Morning worship, 11:00. Evening service, 7:30. Good congregations were present last Sunday although sickness prevented many of our faithful ones from being present. Sunday school attendance was 175 and about 50 were present at the prayer meeting. Four new converts were baptized last Sunday afternoon at Daniel and Staton's Mill into the fellowship of the Riddicks Grove church. A women's missionary society was also organized and this work is encouraging to pastor and people. The pastor accompanied by the following brethren, J. C. Anderson, C. R. Fleming, B. S. Courtney and J. W. Anderson attended an ordination service at Chocowinity Thursday night. The pastor will begin a series of special meetings at Biggs School house next Sunday afternoon at 7:30 o'clock. Services will be held at 7:30 each night. Next Sunday the pastor will preach at 11:00 on "Things that Abide", in the evening at 7:30 on "What is Sin", this is the third sermon in a series on Christian Fundamentals. Everybody cordially invited to all these services. A warm cordial welcome awaits you. If you doubt it, come and be convinced. R. L. SHIRLEY, Pastor.

ALL DAY SESSION DOES NOT CLEAR COURT DOCKET

Several $150. Fines Meted Out By Judge Smith

The Recorder's court adjourned Tuesday at 6 o'clock with many cases unheard. Eleven cases for failing to dip cattle were continued until the first Tuesday in January and after these were continued to that date, many cases were continued to next Tuesday.

The next case on docket after those reported on Tuesday was State vs. James Grimes for reckless driving. The defendant Grimes plead not guilty but the court after the evidence was in decided that he was guilty and a judgment of a $25 fine and costs of the action was imposed. Appeal to the Superior court was made and the bond fixed at $150.

Another charge against Grimes was that he had been driving a car under the influence of liquor in answer to this charge he plead not guilty and the verdict of the court upheld him.

State vs. Jasper Everett for violating the liquor laws was the next case brought up. Everett plead guilty and the Court imposed a fine of $150.00 and the costs of the action and that he enter into a bond for the sum of $150.00 for his appearance before the court on the first Tuesdays of January and March, 1925 to show the court that he had not sold or otherwise dealt in intoxicating liquors.

State vs. Bonnie Wynne on a charge of assault was brought against Wynne for kicking a twelve year-old colored boy out of E. P. Bunch's store about two weeks ago, breaking the child's leg and bruising his head. The case was continued under the same bond.

In case of State against J. S. Wynn for having and transporting liquor, the defendant plead not guilty but the court decided against him when the evidence was heard. A fine of $150.00 and the costs of the action was placed on Wynn. He appealed to the higher court and was placed under a $150.00 bond.

State vs. Annie Bellamy was the next case brought up and "Annie" was charged with having liquor on hand for sale. She plead guilty and made prayer for judgment. This was granted when she entered into a bond for $100.00 until the first Tuesday in May 1925.

State vs. N. B. Daniel, Don Brown, Zeke Brown and Ida Thomas for obstructing a ditch, was another case when defendants plead not guilty and the court agreed in its verdict.

State vs. Mack Worthington was a charge of larceny and receiving and Worthington plead not guilty but the court did not agree with him and placed a fine of $25.00 and costs of the action on him. He appealed to the Superior court which will convene here next month.

There were eleven charges of failure to dip cattle against the following defendants, H. C. Council, Fred Cooper, N. J. Haislip, T. C. Whitley, Ed Council, E. R. Edmondson, E. D. Purvis, W. S. Purvis, A. E. Purvis, William Council and Jonah Council. All of these cases were continued until the first Tuesday in January, 1925.

JOHNSTON COUNTY SENDS LARGE DELEGATION TO COTTON GROWERS' OFFICE

Raleigh, Nov. 13.—Johnston county sent a large delegation to visit the Raleigh office of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cotton Growers Cooperative Association on Armistice day. The visitors brought their dinner with them and tables were arranged in the classing department of the Association building and dinner was served and it was an old fashioned picnic time. The visitors came early in the morning and were met by H. H. B. Mack, and his assistants and after being divided into groups they were shown the work of the Association. Each department was visited and the work described in detail. Assistant Secretary Webster took pleasure in making clear the accounting division and its battery of machines. Later General Manager Blalock made the visitors an address and as usual he had some interesting things to say. The group of men, women and children were gathered at the Wake county court house for a photograph—later the photographer had an accident and both of the plates were broken—and it was too late for another because the Johnston county folk had gone home.

Mr. C. B. Riddick of Everetts was in town yesterday attending to business. Mr. Abe Adler of Plymouth spent yesterday afternoon in the city.

Peanut Grading Poorer Than In Many Years

Peanut people say that the quality of peanuts is so poor that it is hard to find a crop that grades good.

It seems that the peas never matured in the hull and are found to be shriveled and light. In some cases the peas are so immature they have turned black in the hull.

Buyers say that the quality is at least one-third off from a good crop and farmers generally think the yield in the field will be off as much as a third. This will bring the crop down to only half its usual strength.

BASKET BALL PRACTICE NOW GOING ON

Local Team A Most Promising One

With a game in view for next Friday night the local basketballers are whipping themselves in shape for the event. For the past few nights the boys and young men of the town have been practicing in the Dixie warehouse, and in dead earnest, too.

With the exception of a few minor changes the main team of this year will be the same as that of last year. Everyone knows the record made by the basket ball squad of this place last year, and remembering that practically the same team is back again this year, a record to be proud of can be assumed.

The interest manifested by fans was a great help last year and has had much to do with the starting of a team this year. From indications interest and enthusiasm are equally as high this year, so look out for an "A" No. 1 team.

The following have reported for practices for the past several nights: Lyman Britt, Julius Purvis, Crack Taylor, Irving Margolis, Frank Crastarphen, A. Hassell, Jr., Jim Cooke, Abram Peel, John Henry Edwards, William H. Williams and Bill Manning. Julius Purvis is manager; Crack Taylor, treasurer, and Lyman Britt, captain. Mr. Will Stone is coach of the boys and he guarantees a good team for the season.

Interrupts Preacher To Congratulate Him

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 13.—Parishoners of the Rev. Dr. John E. Hartley here yesterday told of an unusual incident in which the clergyman figured while preaching to a New Bern Episcopal congregation recently. Dr. Hartley, who is attending a provincial meeting at Wilmington, could not be communicated with for all the details. Dr. Hartley made the point in his sermon that the American electoral system is defective in one respect—"Good men too often hesitate to seek office because they fear they will be abused if they are elected. As a result are given too much to harsh criticism and unkind comment on their officials."

The clergyman was quoted as saying, "He came to this country from England and has held important charges in the United States. There will be improvement in American officialdom when the people give their elected representatives a better deal. Dr. Hartley told his New Bern hearers, "I dignified man in the congregation left his seat, strode to the pulpit, grasped the preacher's hand and said, "Amen, Dr." according to the story. Dr. Hartley was "dumbfounded." After the sermon he felt flattered. The dignified, grayed man, he learned, was Furnifold Simmons, many years a member of the United States senate.

SANTA CLAUS MAKES VISIT TO KIDDIES OF WILLIAMSTON

Santa Claus made a visit to the kiddies of Williamston yesterday. He came from W. J. and J. E. Simmons of Tarboro to find out what the little folks here wanted him to bring them Christmas.

He has a letter to all the children in this section in another part of this paper, telling them of the beautiful things he has for them and to go to the Simmons furniture store when in Tarboro and see one of the greatest and most magnificent displays of toys in the State.

Misses Robertson, Turnage, Anderson, Stewart, Stanbeck, Peede, Mrs. C. E. Hassell and Messrs. Seymour and Ricks of the local school faculty left this morning for Greenville where they will attend the meeting of the North Carolina Education Association.

SWINDELL TO SERVE 30 YEARS IN PRISON

GRANDFATHER OF GIRL VICTIM WHO SHOT SWINDELL DRAWS ONE TO THREE YEARS

Elizabeth City, Nov. 13.—The Swindell, convicted of having improper relations with a young girl here, yesterday was sentenced in Superior Court to serve 30 years in the state prison.

J. D. Farrior, of Wilson, grandfather of the girl in the case, who made his way into the jail here recently and shot and wounded Swindell so badly he probably will be a cripple for the remainder of his life, was sentenced to serve one to three years in the state prison. Farrior pleaded guilty. Swindell was convicted by a jury.

Eastern Carolina To Have Exhibit At New York Exposition

At the regular meeting of the Executive committee of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, Monday afternoon, it was decided to make definite plans for having an exhibit at the Southern Exposition to be held in New York January 19th for the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce. A plan has been worked out whereby every town and county that comes in on this project will be given individual recognition and specific publicity. Just how much space will be purchased will not be determined until a survey of the territory shall have been made.

MANY THINGS TO OFFER

With the many advantages that Eastern Carolina has to offer, a real creditable exhibit can be gotten up with the proper support from the towns and counties of Eastern Carolina. It is conservatively estimated that there will be at least 200,000 people from all the country who will visit Exposition Hall, during the two weeks. With a graphic utter pretation of the resources of Eastern Carolina, no action will receive more favorable consideration, than will the Eastern part of this State. Secretary Hartlett, with the help of the local Secretaries, will make a wide campaign to determine just how much space can be used for this big show. The Kinston Chamber of Commerce directors have already gone on record endorsing the sectional exhibit, and the auspices of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce. Secretary W. T. Kyzer of the Kinston Chamber of Commerce, is also Secretary of the North Carolina committee of the big Exposition, and will aid in getting a creditable exhibit there for this section. Any town or individual interested, may get the full facts by either communicating with the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce or the Kinston Chamber of Commerce.

TEACHERS OF STATE PUBLISH MONTHLY MAGAZINE

Two Schools in County Have 100 Per Cent Membership in N. C. Education Association

The teachers of the State are publishing independently of the State Department of Education, a monthly magazine, the N. C. Teacher, in the interest and progress of the educational system of the State. This magazine deals particularly and definitely with individual schools, persons and problems.

A fee of two dollars entitles you to membership in the North Carolina Education Association and a subscription to the North Carolina Teacher. In our county we have two schools that have a hundred per cent membership in this association, Oak City and Williamston. They are to be congratulated upon this achievement and their schools of the county should strive to attain this record.

CHURCH OF THE ADVENT

Rev. Clarence O. Pardo, Rector 9:45, Church school. 10:40, Advent-Edible class. 3:20, Holy Communion and sermon. 7:30, Evening prayer and sermon.

WILLIAM M. BUTLER TO SUCCEED LODGE

William M. Butler has been appointed to succeed the late Henry Cabot Lodge in the United States senate from Massachusetts.

Mr. Butler is chairman of the Republican national committee. He is an attorney and a manufacturer of note.

Miss Nellie Fisher of the Macedonia school was in town yesterday. Mr. Lewis Mizell of Jamesville was a business visitor here yesterday.

Everetts-Williamston Road Nearing Completion

The Everetts-Williamston road is near completion, if late reports are accurate. With good weather, the road will be completed by December the first. If the road is completed about this time, traffic will be able to pass through by Christmas.

The Bethel-Tarboro link of No. 90 is reported completed and it is probable that the entire road from Williamston to Rocky Mount will be completed and ready for traffic by the last of the year.

Special Ford Oil After Long Tests

THE TEXAS COMPANY PERFECTS LUBRICANT THAT STOPS STUTTERING

The Automotive engineers have long felt the necessity for a special motor oil for Ford cars. They have realized that the jerks and chatters, which often occur in pressing on the low gear pedal, or the brake pedal, could be eliminated by a lubricant of particular quality.

In order to produce a Ford lubricant possessing the required characteristics, the Texas Company's chemists and automotive engineers have spent two years in investigating the entire subject for Ford Motor lubrication.

The Company's laboratory at Long Island City was fitted up with a number of Ford engines equipped with delicate measuring apparatus. This apparatus determined the pressure required on the foot pedals to produce chattering and the exact amount of chattering resulting.

Many hundreds of tests with many kinds of oil were made on the Ford engines. The work continued for two years until the engineers finally determined upon an ideal Texaco Oil for Fords.

This oil also received long tests under running conditions in many salesman's cars, in order to see that it was as good in actual use as the laboratory tests indicated it would be.

The non-chattering or "non-stuttering" property of this oil, as it is called by the Texas Company, is not produced by the addition of animal vegetable oils or soaps, but by a special process of refining.

The product is unique in that it has a zero pour test, which means that it remains fluid at very low temperatures. This feature is highly desirable as the Ford engine depends upon splash lubrication and in cold weather the Texas Company's product will give immediate lubrication.

The elimination of "stuttering" by the use of this new oil is expected to save Ford owners great expense as well as furnish added riding comfort. Elimination of vibration increases the life of a car, increases its second-hand value, and lowers upkeep cost.

WENTIETH CENTURY CLUB MEETING

The Twentieth Century club held a regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Warren H. Biggs a hostess.

The program for the afternoon was one of Rose McCauley's latest books, "Told by an Idiot." The main idea brought out in the book is that history, like an idiot, mechanically repeats itself. The chief theme of "Told by an Idiot" is the absurd repetition of history and the ever recurring revolt of the younger generation against the older.

The story is a panorama of the changes and events of the years from 1879 to 1923 as they affect the lives of the large Garden family, all of whom had different natures.

Mrs. Biggs read a well written paper on the book dealing with the characteristics of the book and showing how they portrayed the character of the author.

Mrs. J. H. Saunders read a paper dealing with portion of the book that was devoted to the "Georgian period."

Mrs. J. W. Manning read current vents.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Wheeler Martin, jr., Mrs. J. S. Rhodes presided. The hostess served a delicious fruit salad with chocolate cake and fruits.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL IN FULL SWING TOMORROW

Have Dollar Ready For Representatives When They Call Tomorrow

Tomorrow the Red Cross roll call volunteer workers call on you for a dollar and more if you feel able to give.

Do not forget what they have done for us both in war and in peace. And should we not respond to the Red Cross society's call for financial aid with which to carry on the good work that it does, and should we have occasion to need the Red Cross to help us and call on it, whether we had little or much, it would come to our rescue. That is the spirit of the great organization. That was the spirit of our Lord when he was on earth.

But, let us people of Martin county, who are so well blessed that one dollar a year would not make any material difference in our lives, be thankful and appreciative enough to give the dollar without delay.

It will help the workers if you will have your dollar ready and will give it with a smile. It's hard work when it comes to asking for your cause and it is with the desire to serve humanity that the volunteers will call on you.

"Take My Advice" At Opera House Tuesday Evening

"Take My Advice" will be given Tuesday night instead of Thursday night as was first announced, on account of a special service which will be held in the Episcopal church on the latter date.

"Take My Advice" is a play that one cannot afford to miss. It is a tragic comedy in which a "div" wins a traveling salesman goes into a real country town and wakes up the inhabitants. It is the accomplishment of a miracle, and the work is according to the hero, "by hook or by main."

There is enough of pathos running through the story to be true to life, but humor is abundant throughout the entire performance. It is always amusing to the American people who have made such great strides in civilization in such a remarkably short time, to see the modern and the "antique" come in contact, especially when individuals are playing the roles "up-to-date" and "out-of-date."

The cast is composed of the following well-known amateur artists with Mr. John D. Biggs as director:

Dr. John D. Biggs, Messrs. R. L. Schurn and H. M. Stubbins, Misses Callie Harris, Carrie Delle White, Martha Louise Anderson and Mrs. John D. Biggs.

So, do not forget that "Something is going to happen in the old town" next Tuesday night. It will take place at the opera house and an admission of 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children will be charged.

ELIZABETH CITY, HERTFORD AND WEEKSVILLE TEACHERS VISIT WILLIAMSTON

The following teachers from Elizabeth City, Hertford and Weeksville schools visited our city last night and left this morning for Greenville where they will attend the Educational Society meeting which is being held in that city today and tomorrow.

The teachers are making the trip through the country on new International school trucks.

Elizabeth City—Misses M. P. Bell, Lillie at Hayman, Nannie Bray, Ada Whitehurst, Myrtle Lane, Josie Lee Carwright, Beatrice Robertson, Claude Leigh, Margaret Chesson, Jodie Baker, Ruth Munden and Messrs. B. E. White and Ralph Mercer.

Hertford—Mr. S. M. Reed. Weeksville—Misses Marjorie Snowden, Gemma James, Rena Jennings, Ella W. Thornton, Nernice Benton, Elizabeth Fletcher and Mrs. J. M. Scott, and Messrs. Wm. L. Davis, J. A. Butler and R. F. Coats.

Reporter's note—All exceedingly good-looking and especially nice.

N. C. FARMER SHOOTS WIFE AND SELF TO DEATH

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 13.—Raymond Jackson, aged thirty-four, white farmer, living four miles north of Kinston, this morning shot to death his wife as she lay asleep in bed, then turned the gun on himself and died.

AMERICANS DON'T KNOW WHAT TO EAT SAYS DENTIST

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 13.—Unless the American people eat more whole grain breads, more vegetables, cooked to retain the lime salts, more whole milk and natural sweets, "the next two or three generations will be a nation of weaklings, so far as bone and teeth are concerned," Dr. C. B. Fowlkes of Birmingham, Ala., asserted in an address today at the American Dental Association convention.

"In the matter of diet, the dental profession has an opportunity for doing a real service in outlining a diet that furnishes the necessary lime salts to build tooth and bone structure during the pre-natal and pre-school period, as well as during childhood to the eighteenth year," Dr. C. B. Fowlkes said.

"One has only to look about him to see that the American people are not eating the right kind of breads, rice and sweets, to say nothing of properly proportioned vegetable diet," the speaker declared. He stated that it is possible for any individual to possess decay in his own mouth 75 per cent by proper home prophylaxis, and that proper mouth hygiene would reduce the percentage of contagious diseases in children, such as measles, diphtheria, scarlet fever, etc.

Cotton Association Broke All Records Last Monday

Raleigh, Nov. 12. Paying cotton farmers approximately a quarter of a million dollars in one day, and receiving four thousand bales of cotton in one day, the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association broke all its own records Monday. Fraits made by members reached almost $2,000,000 and the receiving clerks were actually stamping with work.

Last week was a big week and this week promises to be bigger. The total deliveries last week were more than two thousand bales above the deliveries for the same week in 1923 and the deliveries Monday were far ahead of the deliveries for the same day a year ago. Receipts since November 1 has been about an increase over the same period a year ago of more than 50 per cent. Members of the Association are glad and the Association is making an advance of $70 an every 100 pound bale.

Lundberg Stock Co. In Jamesville Tuesday Night

The Lundberg Stock Company will appear in the next number of the Lyeuna course at the Jamesville high school auditorium, Tuesday night, November 18th.

This company has a program that varied and should be interesting to both young and old. A one act play with variety to an evening of music, both instrumental and vocal. The members are familiar with concert and dramatic work and have given much study in this line of work and are fully capable of conveying the best possible that their evening work affords.

Miss Lundberg will know in this immediate section and State, will have charge of the program. She is very capable and she is welcomed by our numerous friends.

"Just Married" At New Theatre, Washington, Monday Night

At the New Theatre, Washington, Monday, November 17, Jules Hurytg and Messrs. Shubert announce "Just Married", a truly delightful comedy by Adelaide Matthews and Anne Nichols, staged by J. C. Hurmgn and Clifford Stork. During its run of two years at the Comedy, Shubert and Nora Bayes theatres, New York, play critics were unanimous in declaring it to be the most agreeable and entertaining play that had been produced in years.

The scene of this merry farce is on board the French Line steamship, "Lafayette", bound from Bordeaux, France to New York. Just before the ship's sailing, a jovially intoxicated young man aboard the ship by mistake, and later in the evening, into the wrong stateroom. From that time on the peace of everyone aboard is threatened—they become so hopelessly mixed up, that there is apparently no way out of their difficulties. Eventually, however, things are straightened out, and the voyage proceeds undisturbed.
