ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

IN HONOR OF SISTER

At her attractive little home on East Main Street Mrs. J. L. Williams was hostess to a number of friends with 7 tables of bridge on Tuesday evening at 8.30, honoring her sister Miss Marie Chapman, of Grifton.

Crystal bowls of sweet peas in the living room and dining room, where the tables were placed made the rooms more attractive.

Individual baskets of peanuts on the tables were enjoyed during the games and a fruit salad with sandwiches was served after five progressions had been made. Mrs. S. R. Biggs made high score, and she was given a bridge score card and Mrs. Luke Lamb, who had the lowest score, was presented a lovely bunch of sweet peas.

Those playing with the exception of the honoree were Mesdames P. H. Brown, E. S. Peel, A. R. Dunning, L. T. Fowden, K. B. Crawford, F. U. Barnes, Luke Lamb, Oscar Anderson, Joe Godard, Jr., J. H. Saunders, S. R. Biggs, H. M. Stubbs, Cortez Green, B. W. Hardy, P. B. Cone, Wheeler Martin, Jr., J. D. Woolard, G. H. Harrison, L. C. Bennett, Roy Gurganus, W. E. Watts, Carrie Biggs Williams, and Misses Margaret Manning, Elizabeth Burras, Carrie Dell White and Nelle Wynne.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Here

Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin were visitors here yesterday.

Attend Baraca-Philathea Meeting

IN MEMORIAM

(Published by request)
To Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Martin on the death of their daughter.

Dearest Frances, how we miss you,
How our hearts long for you, dear,
In our home and by our fireside
There will be that vacant chair.

Little did we think, our darling,
When you left without a care,
That within a few short hours
We should be standing by your bier.

As we gaze upon you, darling,
On the cold face of our child,
And we long to see you, dearest,
Open wide those eyes and smile.

But the Saviour, He has called her
Away from this world of strife
Called her in her youth and virtue
There with Jesus to abide.

But we'll not forget you, darling,
Though from us you're laid away,
And we hope to meet you, dearest,
On that resurrection day.

PAULINE.

A mere matter
of detail

THE great popularity of Dutchess Trousers is largely due to the wise care that the manufacturer gives to each small detail—the way the buttons are sewed on, the size of the cuffs, the finish of the seams, the belt loops.

You will appreciate these niceties even though the first thing that strikes you is the fashionable cut. Custom tailor style, yet at a price that fits a modest purse.

We have your size in Dutchess Trousers for dress, for work, for play—and every pair bears the famous warranty label, guaranteeing "10c a Button; $1.00 a Rip."
