Entered at the post office at Williamston, N. C. as second-class matter under the act of March 3 1879.

Address all communications to The Enterprise Williamston, N. C., and not to individuals.

Next time a man tells you talk is cheap, ask him if he knows how much a session of Congress costs.

Yes; the world is a stage, as William Shakespeare once said, but too many people have speaking parts and too few take thinking parts.

This season of the year lots of men are more interested in anti-militarism than anti-militarism.

Just think of it; the energy a man expends in a round of golf would suffice to do the spring house cleaning.

An optimistic farmer is one who keeps hoping year after year that his produce will come up to the seed catalogue pictures.

There are said to be 526,000,000 Christians in the world. Too bad they love to fight and kill each other off so fast.

Postage on souvenir postal cards is doubled. It should be made a dollar a card if on the card is written, "Wish you were here with me."

Internal revenue collector for the Los Angeles district says income tax receipts are $12,000,000 ahead of the amount received last year. Some of those movie stars must be getting the real money now.

And sometimes we think maybe a man's wife is a nag because she is married to a jackass.

Lots of fellows stand around and make excuses while other fellows are making a success.

Weather is like time. We have so much of both it can't all be good.

It is said that our future Presidents already are beginning to save photographs of the primitive little 3-room huts in which they were born.

We are unable to believe the man who wrote Jack and the Bean Stalk is dead. Who could imagine anyone else writing our seed catalogues?

A perpetual motion—War makes fright, fright makes alliances, alliances make war.

Recent vital statistics indicate that too much of the midnight oil is fused oil.

One thing to remember while driving an auto is some other driver may be as crazy as you are.

Here is another—He slumbers here, one John McNeill. He also slumbered at the wheel.

Even if Norway has not enough money to maintain her lighthouses, she can be thankful that none of her fjords (pronounced Fords) require rear lights, like ours.

An American doctor declares that cross-word puzzles have resulted in writing many families. It must be nice when they all meet together in the same padded room.

Pence propaganda has at least made the big nations determine not to let the little ones fight any more.

A recent epitaph—Alas, here rests Sylvester Rakes; his car had wheels,

William Hohenzollern got two votes in the German presidential election.
He ought to be arrested for repeating that way.

For the present, the Government's opinions as to the oil-lease conspiracies lack conviction.

Shakespeare paraphrased by the modern girl: Who steals my purse steals a powder puff.

Yes; the mosquito is another ingrate that bites the hand—or ankle—that feeds it.

To Say Nothing of the Bones.— Customer: "It's tough to pay 50 cents a pound for meat." Butcher: "Yes; but it's tougher when you pay 25."

True Eloquence.—"He made a fine after-dinner speech." "What did he say?" "He said, 'Waiter, give me the check.'"

A correspondent asks which is the best way to make sure of admission to a court during the hearing of a murder trial. We do not recommend it, but the surest method is to commit the murder yourself.

When our caton gets all baled up, it can't tell whether it's going to be a bottle of olive oil, a pair of lard, a pat of butter, or a pair of silk stockings.

The inheritance tax is more humane than the others. It waits until the poor fellow can't suffer any more.

New York has her padlocks; the Delaware legislature has its deadlocks.— Time has its forelock, and Mr.
Coolidge has his Woodcock.

Poem
Uncle John

'They're still a-slashin' at taxes, as they promised the folks they would, several months before the election, when candidates thought they should; I reckon they went an' slashed 'em as the papers declare they did, but I was a small exception, so mine was an upward skid.
So far as I have observed 'em, the taxes was never so high—but the papers sez they are lower—and the newspapers never lie. Yes, they're goin' to keep on slashin' with some mighty furious blows—the Daily Hokus has said so, and the Daily Hokus knows! Of course it takes considerable change to satisfy Government needs, like salary hikes and benzine cars, and the million of punkin seeds. And it takes a right smart bundle for the cabinet's small affairs, the little social endeavors of the glorified millionaires. The election is done passed over and the cost of livin' is high—and we reckon they'll slash the tax some more—in the sweet by and by!

No Increase in the Price of Firestone
FULL-SIZE GUM-DIPPED
BALLOONS

The extra quality built in by the extra process of Gum-Dipping, the economy of these wonderful tires and the added mileage obtained from them during the past two years, has created such a large demand that over 75% of Firestone's mammoth production is now Balloon Gum-Dipped Cords.
This has greatly increased the total sales volume and the huge Firestone factories are now working on a 24-hour schedule to supply the demand.
This large volume, produced under the most economical tire manufacturing methods, permits Firestone to sell these extra-process Full-Size Balloons at no extra cost to car owners. And this in the face of greatly advanced cost for crude rubber brought about by the operation of the British Rubber Restriction Act.
Gum-Dipping means longer mileage—greater economy—at no extra cost to you!
Enjoy the safety, economy and comfort of Balloon Gum-Dipped Cords this summer. Let us equip your car now at low cost—with liberal allowance for your old tires.

PALE, NERVOUS
West Virginia Lady Says That She Was in a Serious Condition, But Is Stronger After Taking Cardui.

Huntington, W. Va.—"I was in a Very weak and run-down condition —in fact, was in a serious condition," says Mrs. Fannie C. Bloss, of 1964 Madison Avenue, this city.
"I on my left side the pain was very severe. It would start in my back and sides. Part of the time I was in bed and when up I didn't feel like doing anything or going anywhere.
"Life wasn't any pleasure. I was very pale. I was nervous and thin, and so tired all the time.
"Any druggist told me that Cardui was a good tonic for women and I bought a couple of bottles. I took two bottles, then I noticed an improvement. I kept on and found it was helping me. I have taken nine bottles. I'm stronger now than I have been in a long time.
"Cardui is made from mild-acting medicinal herbs with a gentle, tonic, strengthening effect upon certain female organs and upon the system in general.
